TUESDAY, MAY 14, 1822.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 28th of February 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewardry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part thereof, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Freehold and Leasehold Houses, Building Ground, &c.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. William Alexander, by order of the Assignees of John Gough, a Bankrupt, at the Christopher Inn, Bath, on Tuesday May 21, 1822, at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon;

Lot 1. The equity of redemption of and in all that well built, substantial, and well situated freehold messuage or dwelling-house, workshop, arca, vaults and premises, with the offices thereunto belonging, being No. 3, in the Lower Borough-Walls, in the said City of Bath, some time since in the occupation of Messrs. J. and J. Gough, Painters; and now in the tenure or occupation of Mr. Dove. These premises are now let at £40. per annum, which is considerably below their real value.

This lot is subject to a mortgage for securing £270, and interest thereon, from the 25th day of January 1820, all interest having been paid to that day; and is also subject to the payment of the clear yearly ground rent of £10 per annum, issuing and payable out of the said premises.

Lot 2. All that valuable freehold messuage or dwelling-house, with the buildings, vaults, premises and garden thereunto belonging, being No. 7, situate in Forefield-Place, in the Parish of Lyncomb and Widcomb, in the County of Somerset, and now in the tenure or occupation of Mrs. Lewis, under the yearly rent of £47 5s.

This lot is well calculated for the residence of a genteel family, and is situated in the most pleasant part of the neighbourhood of Bath.

The land extends in length from east to west about 126 feet, from north to south about 29 feet, with excellent garden walls on the south and east sides.

The premises are subject to the annual sum, or yearly rent charge of £7 10s. issuing and payable thereout.

Lot 3. All that valuable freehold plot, piece or parcel of ground, nearly adjoining the last mentioned lot, containing in length, on the north side from east to west, in an irregular or indirect line, 100 feet or thereabout; on the south side, from east to west, 84 feet or thereabout; in width, on the east side, from north to south, 75 feet or thereabout; and on the west side, from north to south, in an irregular or indirect line, 60 feet or thereabout.

This lot will form an excellent garden, being bounded on every side by newly erected and substantial stone walls, of which those on the south and west sides belong to the land, and would prove highly valuable to any person occupying a house in its neighbourhood.

Immediate possession of this lot will be given on completion of the purchase.

Lot 4. All that unfinished freehold messuage or dwelling-house, situate and being in Hygeia-Place, Claverton-Road, in the Parish of Bathwick, subject to a clear yearly ground rent of £10 10s. per annum.

Immediate possession of this lot will be given on completion of the purchase.

These premises are most advantageously situated, and may at a trifling expence be rendered fit for the residence of a genteel family.

The land extends from east to west-south side, 77 feet, from east to west-north side 90 feet, from north to south-west side 155 feet, and from north to south-east side 141 feet, bounded by stone walls not yet coped.

There is a back way from an intended road on the north side of the premises, which is connected with the road in front, leading to Claverton Down, by a way of 14 feet.

For a view of the property in Hygeia-Place, apply to Thomas Thomas, No. 2, Prospect-Place, Claverton-Road; the other houses by permission of the tenants; and the piece of land by application to the Auctioneer; and for further particulars and conditions of sale, application to be made to Messrs. Cary and Cross, Solicitors, Bristol; Mr. J. V. Little, Solicitor, Green-Street, Bath; and at the Auctioneer and Appraiser's Office, Bridge-Street, Bath.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Hunloke v. Gell, in or about the month of June next, before James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London;

All that the freehold manor or lordship of Westhallam, in the County of Derby, situated at about equal distances from the Market Towns of Derby and Nottingham, together with the whole of the estates within the said Manor (save only about 50A. of glebe land), also a most valuable colliery now in work upon the estate under a lease nearly expired, the said manor, estates, and colliery, are in the occupation of upwards of thirty respectable tenants, exclusive of cottage tenants at very low rents, and contain in the whole near 1800A. of excellent farming land; also the perpetual advowson of the Rectory of Westhallam, worth near 400l. per annum, and the present incumbent between seventy and eighty years of age. The manor of Westhallam is an excellent lordship for game. The coal in the estate is a most valuable speculation in both present and future prospect, it is of good quality and from its advantageous local situation commands the best markets on the lines of the various canals with which it is connected.

Printed particulars may shortly be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chamber's, in Southampton-Buildings, and further information may be obtained of Mr. Thomas, Solicitor, No. 6, New Boswell-Court, Lincoln's-Inn, London; Mr. Edwards, Solicitors, No. 24, Great George-Street, Westminster; and of Mr. Thomas, Solicitor, Chesterfield, and where plans of the estate may be seen.

JOHN CAMMEYER, otherwise JOHN WRIGHT.

THE Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Maule, Esq. v. Rumsey and others, having directed an inquiry to be made whether John Cammeyer, the son of the testator, John Cammeyer, late of Stone-Dean, in the Parish of Chalfont St. Giles, in the County of Bucks, Gentleman, is dead.—Any person who can give information touching the said John Cammeyer the son, is requested to forward the same to the Chambers of Joseph Jehyll, Esq. in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or to Mr. Cobbett Derby, Harcourt-Buildings, Temple, or Mr. Heelis, Staple-Inn, the Solicitors in the Cause.—The said John Cammeyer, under the assumed name of Wright (his mother's maiden name), left England in February 1805, as a sailor, on board the brig Guernsey, of Guernsey, ——— Colletet, Master; he went in the said ship to Madeira, Grenada, and St. Thomas's, in the West Indies, at which latter place he left the said ship on the 30th of July 1805, and has not since been heard of.
