

Dalnmore Farm, comprising together ninety-five acres (more or less), part whereof is in the occupation of William Green, a yearly tenant, and the remainder in the possession of the Assignees of the said Bankrupt or their under tenant.

Lot 2. Several pieces or parcels of land lying together, and containing thirty acres (more or less), called Lombard Tree Grounds, now in the occupation of the said William Green.

Lot 3. Two pieces or parcels of land called Salter's Tining Meadow, and Salter's Tining Field, also lying together, and containing twenty-three and half acres (more or less).

Lot 4. Four pieces or parcels of land called Pool Piece, Stock Orchard, Little Field, and Summer's Hill, containing twenty-four and half acres (more or less).

Lot 5. Two messuages or farm-houses, barns, stables and other outbuildings, fold yards, gardens, and sundry inclosed pieces or parcels of arable meadow and pasture land, being part of two several farms called respectively the Wood Farm, and Sandy Land Farm, containing 169 acres (more or less). To one of the last mentioned farms are attached a threshing-machine and chaff-cutter, worked by water, and which may be taken by the purchaser of this lot, at a valuation.

Lot 6. A piece or parcel of land called Upper Field, containing six acres (more or less).

Lot 7. Three pieces or parcels of land, called Lane's Meadow, Lane's Field and Windmill Hill, containing together twenty-four acres (more or less).

Lot 8. A piece of woodland called the Coppice, containing ten acres (more or less).

The above mentioned lots are held of the Bishop of Worcester, by lease for three lives who are all in existence, at a reserved rent of £10. per annum.

N. B. The Bishops of Worcester always add a life, and renew the lease of their estates, on payment of a reasonable fine.

Lot 9. A freehold messuage or tenement, garden, and two pieces of pasture land adjoining, planted with fruit trees, and comprising together four and half acres (more or less), in the occupation of Edward Crisp and the Assignees of the Bankrupt.

The last mentioned premises will be sold together or in such lots as shall be agreed upon, and the purchaser or purchasers thereof will be entitled to rights of common on the extensive waste called Malvern Chase.

The whole of the above described estates form a valuable investment for money, are situate in the Parish of Welland, in the County of Worcester, within two miles of the celebrated Malvern Wells, five of Upton-upon-Severn, five of Ledbury, good market towns, and ten miles from the City of Worcester.

For outgoings, and all other particulars, apply to Mr. Saunders, Solicitor, Sidbury, Worcester, or Mr. Clarke, Solicitor, Upton-upon-Severn; Mr. William Green, the tenant, of Dalnmore Farm; Mr. Richard Harris, of Welland, and Mr. John Benbow, of the Wood Farm, in Hanley Castle, will cause the estates to be shewn.

Freehold Estate, at Stamford-Baron.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Huddestone v. Terrewest, with the approbation of Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the George Inn, in Saint Martin's, Stamford-Baron, in the County of Northampton, on Tuesday the 11th day of June 1822, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, in eight lots, before Matthew Hage, the person appointed by the said Master for that purpose;

A freehold estate, situate at Saint Martin's, Stamford-Baron aforesaid, consisting of two capital messuages and out-buildings, with gardens adjoining, situate in the High-Street, near to the George Inn, Saint Martin's, Stamford-Baron, in the respective occupations of Miss Brereton and the Rev. Mr. Amphlett.

A large barn, part whereof is converted into a plumber's shop, and the remaining part into a chaise-house, four stables, and two chaise-houses, all situate in Church-Lane, Saint Martin's, Stamford-Baron, and in the respective occupations of Mr. Barnes, Miss Brereton, Mr. Norris, Mr. Lawson, and the Rev. Mr. Amphlett.

And a close of meadow or pasture land, in the Cow Pasture, Saint Martin's, Stamford-Baron, containing by estimation one acre, or thereabouts, in the occupation of Mr. Lawson.

The premises may be viewed by applying to the respective tenants; and particulars may be had at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-

Lane, London; and of Mr. M'Dougall, Solicitor, Lincoln's-Inn, London; Mr. Jalland, Solicitor, Newark-upon-Trent; of Mr. Hage, the Auctioneer, Newark-upon-Trent; and at the place of sale.

Freehold Estate at Newark-upon-Trent.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Huddestone v. Terrewest, with the approbation of Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Kingston's Arms Inn, in Newark-upon-Trent, on Thursday the 13th day of June 1822, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, before Matthew Hage, the person appointed by the said Master for that purpose;

A capital freehold messuage, with every requisite convenience, suitable for the occupation of a large genteel family, with a coach-house and stable and other out-buildings, and a small garden, all adjoining to and at the back of the said messuage, situate at Castle-Gate, Newark aforesaid, together with the pew in the parish church of Newark, now in the possession of Major Bauldeley.

To view the premises apply to the tenant, and particulars may be had at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Mr. M'Dougall, Solicitor, Lincoln's-Inn, London; of Mr. Jalland, Solicitor, Newark-upon-Trent; and at the place of sale.

Freehold and Leasehold Estate at Lincoln.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Huddestone v. Terrewest, with the approbation of Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Rein Deer Inn, in Lincoln, on Friday the 14th day of June 1822, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, in four lots, before William Widdowson, the person appointed by the said Master for that purpose;

A freehold and leasehold estate, situate at Lincoln aforesaid, consisting of a capital messuage or dwelling-house, with the gardens, stables, stable-yard, coach-house, and out-buildings, held under leases from the Dean and Chapter of Lincoln, and the Corporation of Lincoln, and late in the possession of Mrs. Terrewest.

A building in Silver-Street, Lincoln, now used as an attorney's office, and a stable and stable-yard in Butchery-Lane, Lincoln, both in the occupation of Mr. Hayward, and a paddock or small piece of land, on part of which the said office and stable have been lately erected, all of which last mentioned premises are freehold, except a small part of the paddock forming the south east corner thereof, containing 11 perches or thereabouts, which is leasehold, held under the Dean and Chapter of Lincoln.

A close of land, called East Moor Close, adjoining on Carholme-Lane, near Lincoln, containing by admeasurement 3A. 0R. 33P. late in the possession of Mr. Smith, deceased, and held on lease from the Corporation of Lincoln.

And a close of land in Carholme-Lane aforesaid, containing 2A. 3R. 0P. now in the possession of Thomas Stapleton, and held by lease under the Corporation of Lincoln.

The premises may be viewed by application to Mr. Widdowson, at the place of sale, and particulars may be had at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Mr. M'Dougall, Solicitor, Lincoln's-Inn, London; of Mr. Hayward, Solicitor, Lincoln; and at the place of sale.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery made in a Cause of Fenwick against Lord Rosslyn, with the approbation of John Springett Harvey, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court;

A freehold mansion-house, with extensive offices, garden, and about 271 acres of grass land, called Ridding Park, and several houses and closes of land, the whole situate at Follisfoot, in the Parish of Spofforth, in the West Riding of the County of York.

The mansion-house and park in the Public Sale-Room of the Court, in Southampton-Buildings, near Chancery-Lane, London, on Tuesday the 18th day of June 1822, and the houses and closes of land, by a person to be appointed for the purpose by the said Master, at Gascoigne's Hotel, in Harrowgate, on Tuesday the 9th day of July following.

Particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Bateman and Jones, Messrs. Hutchinson and Hold-