Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, MAY 25, 1822.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 18th of May 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the fourteenth of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville,

AT the Court at Brighton, the 28th of February 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewardry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part thereof, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year. Jas. Buller.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto the Most Honourable John Crichton-Stuart, Marquess of Bute and Earl of Dumfries, for and on behalf of Henry Stuart, of Bramfield, in the county of Hertford, and of Dromana, in the county of Waterford, Esq. and of William Stuart, Charles Stuart, and Gertrude Stuart, minors, the only children of Henry Stuart, Esq. commonly called the Right Honourable Lord Henry Stuart, late of Waldershare, in the county of Kent, and of Dromana aforesaid, deceased, by Gertrude-Amelia Stuart, commonly called the Right Honourable Lady Gertrude-Amelia Stuart, his wife, only child and heir of the Right Honourable George Mason Villiers, late Earl Grandison, of Dromana, and Viscount Villiers and Grandison, in Ireland, also deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority that they the said Henry Stuart, William Stuart, Charles Stuart, and Gertrude Stuart, and the issue of the said Henry, William, and Charles, respectively, may, in testimony of their affection and respect for the memory of their noble maternal ancestors, take and use the surname of Villiers, in addition to and before that of Stuart, and also bear the arms of the noble family of Villiers, quarterly with their paternal arms; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that His Majesty's said royal concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Crown-Office, May 25, 1822.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Saltash.

William Russell, of Brancepeth Castle, in the county of Durham, Esq. in the room of Matthew Russell, Esq. deceased.

Whitehall, May 24, 1822.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Henry Harrison, of Melton Mowbray, in the county of Leicester, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, May 18, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about ten o'clock in the night of Thursday the 28th of March last, a fire was discovered in a close adjoining the dwelling-house of Mr. Stephen Searle, of Folkington, in the county of Sussex, which consumed one stack of wheat, one stack of beans, and one stack of oats, the property of the said Stephen Searle, and also a barn and other out-buildings, with the corn, &c. therein; and that there is strong reason to suppose, that the same was caused by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Alfriston Society for prosecuting felons, thieves, &c. to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

TAKE notice, that a writ of ad quod damnum has issued, directed to the Sheriff of the county of Wilts, to enquire if it will be to the damage or prejudice of our Sovereign Lord the King, or of any other, if our said Sovereign Lord the King should grant unto the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, Governors of the possessions, revenues, and goods of the Hospitals of Edward King of England the Sixth, of Christ, Bridewell, and Saint Thomas the Apostle, Lords of the Manor of Pewsey, in the county of Wilts, and to their successors and assigns for ever, licence to have, hold, and enjoy an open and public market in every week, on Tuesday, within the town of Pewsey, in the said county of Wilts, for buying and selling of corn, grain, and hay, and such like commodities, and all manner of provisions of victual for mankind, and all goods, wares, and merchandise commonly bought and sold in markets, together with reasonable toll, and together also with stallage and piccage, and all liberties, privileges, remedies, emoluments, and incidents to the same market belonging; and that an inquisition will be taken on such writ on Monday the 10th day of June next, at the house of Thomas Rogers, commonly called or known by the name or sign of the Duke's Arms Inn, situate in the town of Marlborough, in the said county of Wilts, at the hour of twelve o'clock at noon of the same day.—Dated this 20th day of May 1822.

Wainewright and Smith, 7, Furnival's-Inn.

CONTRACTS FOR COALS AND CANDLES.

Commissariat Department, Treasury-Chambers, May 14, 1822.

SUCH persons as are desirous of contracting with the Agent for Commissariat Supplies, to furnish for twelve months, from the 25th of June next, such quantities of

as may from time to time be required for sundry barracks and stations in the under-mentioned counties, &c. may receive particulars of the contracts on applying at this Office, between the hours of ten and four; and to the respective Barrack-Masters in the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Alderney; and deliver their tenders at this Office as follows, viz.

Tenders for supplying coals, sealed up and marked "Tender for Coals," until twelve o'clock on Friday the 7th of June.

Tenders for supplying candles, sealed up and marked "Tender for Candles," until twelve o'clock on Monday the 10th of June; but no proposal, either for coals or candles, will be noticed, unless made on or annexed to a printed particular, and the prices inserted in words at length; nor unless a letter be subjoined to such proposal, from two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the sum expressed in the particulars, for the due performance of the contract.

Tenders to be made for the several counties, and separate barracks and stations, as specified in the particulars of contracts.

If tenders are sent by post, the postage must be paid.

Office of Ordnance, May 20, 1822.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before the 5th of June next, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the performance of the required for service of the Ordnance Department at the Tower and Pall-Mall, for a period of three years, terminable at any time after the expiration of the first year, upon three months notice being given by either party.

For the terms and conditions of the contract apply at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall, between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where such persons as intend to make a tender for the contract will receive a schedule of the work to be performed.

The proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for the performance of Plumber's Work;" but no proposal can be admitted after the 5th day of June next, at twelve o'clock at noon; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein Sir Charles Price, Baronet, and others are plaintiffs, and William Silas Hathaway and others are defendants, it is, amongst other things, referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire who is the heir at law of Fletcher Partis, Esq. the testator in the pleadings of this Cause named, and who at the time of his death (which happened on or about the 31st day of August 1820), resided at Bath, and was a native of Cumberland.—Any person or persons, therefore, claiming to be the heir or heirs at law of the said Fletcher Partis are, on or before the 14th day of June 1822, to come in before the said Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out his, or their claim to be such heir or heirs at law, or in default thereof he, she, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein Margaret Ann Parker and others are plaintiffs, and Thomas Webb Edge the younger and others are defendants, the Creditors of Barlow Eretts, late of Strelley, in the County of Nottingham, Clerk, the testator in the said Decree named (who died on or about the 27th day of May 1819), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Sir John Simeon, Bart. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause William against Lancaster, the Creditors of Edward Willan, late of Sharp, in the County of Westmoreland, Yeoman, deceased (who died in the month of May 1820), are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove their debts before John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 15th day of February 1822, made in a Cause Creasy against Rolls, and of an Order made in a Cause Newsom against Rolls, dated the 4th of May 1822, the Creditors of James Creasy, late of Chad's-Row, Gray's-Inn-Lane, in the County of Middlesex, Gentleman, deceased (who died on or about the 21st day of February 1816), are by themselves, or their Solicitors, on or before the 23d day of June 1822, to come in and prove their debts before Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 15th day of February 1822, made in a Cause Creasy and others against Rolls, and of an Order, dated the 4th day of May 1822, made in a Cause Newsom against Rolls, it is, amongst other things, referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court to inquire what children of the testator, James Creasy, late of Chad's-Row, Gray's-Inn-Lane, in the County of Middlesex, Gentleman, deceased (who died on or about the 21st day of February 1816), were living at the time of the death of Sarah Creasy the wife of the said James Creasy, and whether any of them are since dead, and who are their legal personal representative or representatives.—Any person or persons, therefore, claiming to be the child or children of the said James Creasy, or the representative or representatives of such child or children as have died since the death of the said Sarah Creasy, are, on or before the 23d day of June 1822, to come in before the said Samuel Compton Cox, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out his, her, or their kindred, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Lowe against Lowe, the Creditors of John Lowe, late of Crown-Court, in the Parish of St. James, Westminster, in the County of Middlesex, Carpenter, deceased (who died on or about the 26th of March 1815), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause of MacDougall against Benyon, all persons claiming to be the next of kin of the Reverend Peter Beauvoir, late of Downham-Hall, in the County of Essex, Clerk (who died on the 14th day of September 1821), living at the time of his death, or to be legal personal representatives of any of such next of kin who have since died, are forthwith to come in and prove their claims before John Springett Harvey, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery bearing date the 24th day of January 1822, made in a Cause Ware against the Attorney-General, the Creditors of Elizabeth Boyle Weppler, late of Dagenham, near Ilford, in the County of Essex, Widow, deceased (who died on or about the 20th day of August 1820), are, by themselves or their Solicitors, on or before the 23d day of June 1822, to come in and prove their debts before Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 24th day of January 1822, made in a cause wherein Charles Hodges Ware is Plaintiff, and His Majesty's Attorney General is Defendant, it is (amongst other things) referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esq., one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire whether there were any next of kin of Elizabeth Boyle Weppler, late of Dagenham, near Ilford, in the County of Essex, widow, (who died on or about the 20th of August 1820), living at her death, and if any of them are since dead, who are their legal personal representative or representatives; any person or persons therefore claiming to be the next of kin of the said Elizabeth Boyle Weppler, whose maiden name was Grant, and who was first the wife of Dr. Walter Davidson, of the Island of Jamaica, and afterwards of John Christian Weppler, of the same place, deceased, living at her death or to be the representative or representatives of such next of kin who are since dead, are required on or before the 23d day of June 1822, to come in before the said Samuel Compton Cox, Esq., at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out his, her or their kindred or representation, or in default thereof, he, she or they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Vaughan, of Chorley, in the County of Lancaster, Cotton-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman (carrying on business under the firm of Vaughan and Rainford), are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 27th day of May instant, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Mr. William Norris, Old-Exchange, Manchester, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the stock in trade, goods, debts, household furniture, personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, and all or any part of the real estate of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, for ready money or on credit, to any person or persons whom the Assignees may think fit; and also to the said Assignees paying the expenses occasioned in carrying on the estate, under the inspection of certain persons, appointed at a meeting of the Creditors held on the 26th day of March last, and also the expenses of carrying the resolutions passed at the said meeting into effect; and also to the said Assignees paying the expenses of putting in bail to and defending a certain action commenced by Jonas Bowker against the said Bankrupt and a certain person, to be named at the meeting; and also to the said Assignees commencing any suit at law or in equity, for the recovery of the title deeds of a dwelling-house belonging to the said Bankrupt, which are held and retained by a certain person, to be also named at the meeting, for a sum of money alleged to be due to him thereon; or to the said Assignees paying off the said sum, or otherwise compounding the matter as to them shall seem best; and also to the said Assignees employing any person or persons in getting in and collecting, settling, and adjusting the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; and to the said Assignees paying such person or persons for his or their trouble; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Smith, of Wangford, in the County of Suffolk, Warrener and Carrier, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 30th day of May instant, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Bell Inn, Mildenhall, in the said County, to take into consideration the propriety of occupying a certain farm in the tenure of the said Bankrupt, situate at Eriswell, in the said County, up to Michaelmas next, also to take into consideration, and to adopt such measures as may be thought most advantageous, relative to the warren farm in the occupation of the said Bankrupt, situate in Wangford aforesaid; and also to take into consideration the various securities affecting the real property of the said Bankrupt; and further to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, instituting, defending, referring to arbitration, or otherwise compounding or settling any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Brighton and Thomas Doughty Paine, late of Downham-Market, in the County of Norfolk, Dealers and Chapmen, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on the 5th day of June next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Crown Inn, in Downham-Market aforesaid, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said Assignees agreeing to certain proposals made to him by Elizabeth Dent, of Downham-Market aforesaid, Spinster, for the purchase of certain parts of the real estate of the said Bankrupt Thomas Brighton (subject to a mortgage thereof, made to John Thurlow Dering, Esq. and to a further mortgage of part thereof to the said Elizabeth Dent, and to other incumbrances affecting the same), for the nominal consideration of twenty shillings.

THE joint and separate Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Philip Hooper and Thomas Bedford, of Bartholomew-Place, Bartholomew-Close, in the City of London, Timber Merchants, Dealers in Mahogany, Copartners, Dealers and Chapmen, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, on Thursday the 30th day of May instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees permitting the said

Thomas Bedford to retain and keep possession of his furniture and effects taken under the said Commission, in lieu of the said Assignees making the said Thomas Bedford a remuneration in money for his labour and management for and on account of the said Assignees, in completing certain work which was unfinished at the time of his bankruptcy, under the separate estate of the said Thomas Bedford, and otherwise assisting the said Assignees in other matters connected with the joint and separate estate; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Barker, late of Welch Whittle, in the County of Lancaster, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 3d day of June next, at Seven of the Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Henry Gaskell, in Wigan, in the said County, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, by private contract, of all or any part of the Bankrupt's real and leasehold estates, household furniture, stock in trade, and other effects, at and for such price or prices, sum or sums of money, and taking such security or securities for the payment of the purchase-money thereof as the said Assignees may deem expedient and think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or taking such other means as the Assignees may deem expedient, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.
