TUESDAY, JUNE 4, 1822.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 29, 1822.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Wednesday the 12th of June next, at two o'clock.

Notice is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at Buckingham-Palace, on Thursday the 13th of June next, at two o'clock.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 18th of May 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the fourteenth of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 28th of February 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part thereof, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Whitehall, June 1, 1822.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Edmund Harrison, of Preston, in the county of Lancaster, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, May 18, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about ten o'clock in the night of Thursday the 28th of March last, a fire was discovered in a close adjoining the dwelling-house of Mr. Stephen Searle, of Folkington, in the county of Sussex, which consumed one stack of wheat, one stack of beans, and one stack of oats, the property of the said Stephen Searle, and also a barn and other out-buildings, with the corn, &c. therein; and that there is strong reason to suppose, that the same was caused by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Afriston Society for prosecuting felons, thieves, &c. to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, May 28, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about ten o'clock in the night of Tuesday the 4th of January last, John Hall, of Lanton, in the parish of Kirknewton, in the county of Northumberland, Steward to John Davison, Esq. of Lanton aforesaid, while employed with other persons in the preservation of game, on the estate of the said John Davison, discovered four poachers, one of whom, on being pursued, discharged his gun at, and wounded the said John Hall;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid, on conviction, by the said John Hall.

Exchequer Bill-Office, June 3, 1822.

THE Exchequer Bills dated in the months of August and September 1821, viz. 58 Geo. 3, cap. 45, for building additional churches; 1 Geo. 4, cap. 60, for carrying on public works and fisheries; 2 Geo. 4, £29,000,000, anno 1821, with the interest due thereon, will be paid off on the 26th day of June instant, when the interest will cease. Such bills will be received daily (holidays excepted), from ten o'clock till one, until and including the 19th day of June instant, at this Office, where lists are to be obtained, containing instructions for arranging the bills. The bearers must endorse each bill with their usual signatures, and write their names and residences at the bottom of each list; and where the names of holders are inserted in bills, the bearers, not being such holders, must previously obtain their endorsements. The bearers must attend to give receipts for the payment.

Payment may be obtained, if required, previous to the said 26th day of June, upon leaving the bills for examination one day prior to that on which such payment is desired.

New bills, bearing an interest of two pence by the day upon every one hundred pounds, and dated the said 26th day of June, may be obtained in whole or in part payment of principal, upon stating the required amount on the lists, delivered on or before the said 19th day of June, which new bills, with the interest on the bills exchanged, will be issued on the 27th day of June instant.

N. B. All Exchequer Bills, dated prior to August 1821, have been advertised to be paid off.

Navy-Office, May 30, 1822.

CHRIST'S HOSPITAL.

MR. John Stock having devised to the President, Treasurer, and Governors of Christ's Hospital, London, a sum of money for the maintenance and education of two boys, the sons of Lieutenants in the Navy, under the following description, to be presented by the Comptroller of His Majesty's Navy, having been first chosen by a full Board of the Commissioners of the Navy, or at least five of them, viz. "the boys to be between the age of seven and ten years, the sons of Lieutenants who have been killed by the public enemy or in the service, who had been at least four years in that situation, of approved courage and of good private character, to be born in wedlock of honest and respectable parents, to be free from lameness or disorders, and their mother a widow then in low circumstances;"

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy hereby give notice, that there is now a vacancy in the said school on their presentation, and that they are ready to receive applications from the parents or friends of boys entitled under this description, and desirous of the benefit of this bequest, that they may be enabled to present a proper object for it, agreeably to Mr. Stock's will.

The applications must be accompanied by a statement of the services of the father of the boy, a certificate of the marriage of the parents, and of the register of the baptism of the boy, and also a certificate of the good conduct of the father, if they can be procured.

G. Smith.

TAKE notice, that a writ of ad quod damnum has issued, directed to the Sheriff of Derbyshire, commanding him to enquire whether or no it will be to the damage or prejudice of our Sovereign Lord the King, or of any other, if our said Sovereign Lord the King should grant unto John Wright the elder, of Lenton, in the county of Nottingham, Esq. and William Jessop, of Butterley-Hall, in the parish of Pentrich, in the county of Derby, Esq. and to their heirs and assigns for ever, licence to have, hold, and enjoy an open and public market in every week, on Saturday, at or on a certain close or piece of ground, called the Ironvill Meadows, situate at or near a certain village or place called Ironvill, in the hamlet of Riddings, in the parish of Alfreton, in the said county of Derby, for buying and selling all and all manner of live cattle, flesh, fish, fowl, roots and herbs, and other provisions of victual for mankind, and for buying and selling corn, grain, and hay, and such like commodities, and also hardware and other goods, wares, and merchandises commonly bought and sold in markets, together with reasonable toll, and together also with stallage, piccage, and all liberties, privileges, remedies, emoluments, and incidents to the same market belonging; and also licence to have, hold, and enjoy an open and public fair twice in every year, that is to say, on the third Wednesday in April and on the last Wednesday in September, at or on the close or piece of land aforesaid, for buying and selling the several matters aforesaid, as well as all other matters commonly bought and sold in fairs, together with reasonable toll, and together also with stallage, piccage, and all liberties, privileges, remedies, emoluments, and incidents to the same fair belonging; and that an inquisition will be taken on such writs on Tuesday the 25th day of June instant, at the house of John Webster, commonly called or known by the name or sign of the King's Arms Tavern, situate in the borough town of Derby, in the said county of Derby, at the hour of eleven o'clock in the forenoon of the same day.—Dated this 3d day of June 1822.

John Jenkyns, Red Lion-square.

CONTRACT FOR CORNISH OR DARTMOOR GRANITE STONE.

Navy-Office, May 20, 1822.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 5th of June next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Yard at Sheerness with Cornish or Dartmoor Granite Stone, for paving the Mast-House Slips in the said Yard.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £400, for the due performance of the contract.

G. Smith.

Office of Ordnance, May 20, 1822.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before the 10th of June next, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the performance of the required for service of this Department in the London Division, also at Woolwich, Enfield, and Waltham Abbey, for a period of three years, terminable at any time after the expiration of one year, upon three months notice being given by either party.

Carpenter's Work,

For the terms and conditions of the contract apply at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall; between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where such persons as intend to make a tender for the contract will receive a schedule of the work to be performed.

The proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for the performance of Carpenter's Work;" but no proposal can be admitted after the 10th day of June next, at twelve o'clock at noon; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.
