TUESDAY, JUNE 11, 1822.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 29, 1822.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Wednesday the 12th of June next, at two o'clock.

Notice is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at Buckingham-Palace, on Thursday the 13th of June next, at two o'clock.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 18th of May 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the fourteenth of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port, or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Breville.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 28th of February 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary, notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part thereof, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Whitehall, June 10, 1822.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Robert Newbigging, Esq. Master of Arts in the University of Oxford, His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may take and use the surname, and bear the arms of Cairncross, from respect to the memory of his maternal ancestors of that name, who were seated for many generations in the counties of Mid Lothian and Roxburgh, and of which family his late mother was one of the representatives and coheirs; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

To the Commissioners of the Lottery.

Whitehall, June 8, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Sunday the 26th ultimo, between the hours of ten and eleven, the cottage of John Tyers, in the North Fen, in the parish of Peakirk, in the county of Northampton, was forcibly entered by four men, who stole therefrom a sum of money and several articles of wearing apparel, &c. and severely beat and wounded the said John Tyers;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually wounded the said John Tyers), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TEN POUNDS is hereby offered by the Parish Officers of Peakirk aforesaid, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

TAKE notice, that a writ of ad quod damnum has issued, directed to the Sheriff of Derbyshire, commanding him to enquire whether or no it will be to the damage or prejudice of our Sovereign Lord the King, or of any other, if our said Sovereign Lord the King should grant unto John Wright the elder, of Lenton, in the county of Nottingham, Esq. and William Jessop, of Butterley-Hall, in the parish of Pentrich, in the county of Derby, Esq. and to their heirs and assigns for ever, licence to have, hold, and enjoy an open and public market in every week, on Saturday, at or on a certain close or piece of ground, called the Ironvill Meadows, situate at or near a certain village or place called Ironvill, in the hamlet of Riddings, in the parish of Alfreton, in the said county of Derby, for buying and selling all and all manner of live cattle, flesh, fish, fowl, roots and herbs, and other provisions of victual for mankind, and for buying and selling corn, grain, and hay, and such like commodities, and also hardware and other goods, wares, and merchandises commonly bought and sold in markets, together with reasonable toll; and together also with stallage, piccage, and all liberties, privileges, remedies, emoluments, and incidents to the same market belonging; and also licence to have, hold, and enjoy an open and public fair twice in every year, that is to say, on the third Wednesday in April and on the last Wednesday in September, at or on the close or piece of land aforesaid, for buying and selling the several matters aforesaid, as well as all other matters commonly bought and sold in fairs, together with reasonable toll, and together also with stallage, piccage, and all liberties, privileges, remedies, emoluments, and incidents to the same fair belonging; and that an inquisition will be taken on such writs on Tuesday the 25th day of June instant, at the house of John Webster, commonly called or known by the name or sign of the King's Arms Tavern, situate in the borough town of Derby, in the said county of Derby, at the hour of eleven o'clock in the forenoon of the same day.—Dated this 3d day of June 1822.

John Jenkyns, Red Lion-square.

CATTANCO'S CREDITORS.

Birmingham, June 9, 1822.

Notice is hereby given, that the Trustees named and appointed in and by a certain Indenture of Assignment of the estate and effects of Evangelista Cattanco, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Optician, and bearing date the 18th day of March 1820, intend to make a final dividend of the said estate and effects amongst all and every of the Creditors of the said Evangelista Cattanco, who shall execute the said Assignment, on or before the 1st day of August next.

The Assignment now lies at my Office, in the Old Square, Birmingham, for the signatures of the several Creditors.

JOHN MEREDITH, Solicitor.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Edwards, by order of the major part of the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against Joseph Pearson, of Newcastle-under-Lyme, in the County of Stafford, Grocer, Dealer and Chapman, a Bankrupt, at the House of John Cork, called the Castle Hotel, in Newcastle-under-Lyme aforesaid, on Wednesday the 26th day of June instant, between the hours of Six and Nine o'Clock in the Evening, subject to such conditions as will then be produced, and either altogether or in lots as may be agreed on at the time of sale;

All that substantial brick and tile messuage, dwelling-house or tenement, situate in the Lower Street, in Newcastle-under-Lyme aforesaid, and now in the occupation of Joseph Lucas; and also all those four other brick and tile messuages or dwelling-houses lying behind the said first mentioned dwelling-house, and respectively occupied by the said Joseph Lucas, Richard Maddox, Robert Lawton, and Thomas Stonier, or their undertenants; and also the extensive candle-house and warehouse adjoining the before mentioned premises, and the garden or piece of land lying behind the same, and now or lately occupied by the said Joseph Pearson.

The above premises are well situated for carrying on business, are in a good state of repair, and altogether afford a fine opportunity for the investment of capital.

For further particulars apply to Mr. John Ferd Hjatt, Solicitor, in Newcastle-under-Lyme aforesaid.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Hunloke v. Gell, before James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Saturday the 29th day of June 1822, between the hours of One and Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, in two lots;

All that the manor or lordship of West Hallam, in the County of Derby, situate about equal distances from the Market Towns of Derby and Nottingham, together with the whole of the estates within the said Manor (save only about 50A. of glebe land), also a most valuable colliery in work upon the estate. The said manor, estates, and colliery, are in the occupation of upwards of thirty respectable tenants, exclusive of cottage tenants at very low rents, and contain in the whole near 1300A. of excellent farming land; also the perpetual advowson of the Rectory of West Hallam, worth near 400l. per annum, and the present incumbent is upwards of eighty years of age. The manor of West Hallam is an excellent lordship for game. The coal in the estate is a most valuable speculation in both present and future prospect, it is of good quality and from its advantageous local situation commands the best markets on the lines of the various canals with which it is connected.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings; at the Black's Head Inn, Nottingham; and King's Head Inn, Derby; and further information may be obtained of Mr. Thomas, Solicitor, No. 6, New Boswell-Court, Lincoln's-Inn, London; Mr. Edwards, No. 24, Great George-Street, Westminster; and of Mr. Thomas, Solicitor, Chesterfield, and where plans of the estate may be seen.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Graves against Graves, the Mortgagees, Incumbrancers, and Creditors of the Reverend Morgan Graves, late of Mickleton, in the County of Gloucester, Clerk, deceased (who died in the month of November 1819), are, on or before the 9th day of July 1822, to come in and prove their debts and claims before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Graves against Graves, the Mortgagees, Incumbrancers, Creditors, and Legatees of Walwyn Graves, late of Mickleton, in the County of Gloucester, and of King-Street, Portman-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Esq. deceased (who died on or about the 2d of November 1815), are, on or before the 9th of July 1822, to come in and prove their debts and claims before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
