

"the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewardry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year, it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part thereof, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Jas. Buller.

Commission in the Renfrewshire Regiment of Militia, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Renfrew.

Archibald Campbell, Esq. M.P. to be Colonel, vice Dunlop, deceased. Dated 8th April 1822.

Whitehall, June 14, 1822.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Robert-Stuart Hurst, of Stamford, in the county of Lincoln, Esq. His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of his late maternal great uncle, the Reverend William Whitworth, Clerk, Rector of Stilton, in the county of Huntingdon, and Archdeacon of Sarum, deceased, take and use the surname of Whitworth, in addition to and after that of Hurst, and also bear the arms of Whitworth, quarterly with those of Hurst, Whitworth in the first quarter; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that His Majesty's said royal concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, June 8, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Sunday the 26th ultimo, between the hours of ten and eleven, the cottage of John Tyers, in the North Fen, in the parish of Peakirk, in the county of Northampton, was forcibly entered by four men, who stole therefrom a sum of money and several articles of wearing apparel, &c. and severely beat and wounded the said John Tyers;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned; is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually wounded the said John Tyers), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TEN POUNDS is hereby offered by the Parish Officers of Peakirk aforesaid, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (B), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such black or Dantzic beer should be added
