SATURDAY, AUGUST 3, 1822.

PROROGATION OF PARLIAMENT.

*Great Chamberlain's-Office,
August 3, 1822.*

ALL Peersesses, on giving notice before twelve o'clock at noon on the 6th day of August, will have places reserved for them in the House of Peers.

The standing order of the House "To prevent disorder when His Majesty is present," having been departed from by Peers giving orders for the admission of persons to the House of Lords, to avoid any disappointment at the Prorogation, those orders will be admitted, but on no future occasion.

No Lady can be admitted in the body of the House except in full dress.

The doors will not be opened before twelve o'clock.

GWYDYR.

Westminster, July 29, 1822.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act to provide for the charge of the addition to the public funded debt of Great Britain for the service of the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-two.

An Act to amend the laws relating to the land and assessed taxes, and to regulate the appointment of Receivers-General in England and Wales.

An Act to revive and continue, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, certain additional bounties on the exportation of certain silk manufactures of Great Britain and Ireland.

An Act for regulating the mode of accounting for the common good and revenues of the Royal Burghs of Scotland.

An Act to explain an Act of the fifty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, respecting the enrolment of memorials of grants of annuities.

An Act for further continuing, altering, and amending several Acts for the better regulation of lastage and ballastage in the River Thames, and for enabling the Corporation of Trinity-House of Deptford Strond to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish dues payable to the said Corporation, and for other purposes connected therewith.

An Act for more effectually amending certain roads in the several parishes of Lambeth, Newington, St. George, Southwark, Bermondsey, and Christ Church, in the county of Surrey; and for watching, lighting, and otherwise improving the said roads.

And two private Acts.

Westminster, July 30, 1822.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act for carrying into execution an agreement between His Majesty and the East India Company

An Act to provide for the collection and payment of the countervailing duties and drawbacks granted by an Act of this present session, on malt and other articles imported and exported between Great Britain and Ireland.

An Act to reduce the rate of duties payable in respect of certain carriages used and employed for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire, and to make regulations and provisions relating to stage coaches and the duties thereon.

An Act to continue, until the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty, relating to imposing and levying duties in New South Wales, to authorise the imposing and levying other duties on goods imported into the said colony, and to suspend, for ten years, the payment of duty on the importation of certain goods, the produce of New South Wales.

An Act to continue, for two years, an Act of the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty, for establishing regulations respecting aliens arriving in or resident in this kingdom, in certain cases.

An Act for enabling His Majesty to grant pensions to the servants of Her late Majesty Queen Caroline.

An Act to continue, until the fifth day of January one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, the duties of Customs payable on British salt imported into Ireland, to repeal the duties on foreign salt imported into Ireland, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof.

An Act to incorporate the contributors for the erection of a national monument in Scotland, to commemorate the naval and military victories obtained during the late war.

Westminster, July 31, 1822.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act for granting to His Majesty a sum of money to be raised by lotteries.

An Act to repeal an Act of the first and second year of His present Majesty, for facilitating the dispatch of business in the Court of King's Bench, and to make further provisions in lieu thereof.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of July 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intitled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, anything in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should be suspended for the space of one year; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the date hereof, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia be suspended for the space of one year from the date of this Order.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 18th of May 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the fourteenth of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Whitehall, July 23, 1822.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Sir Charles Broke, of Henley-Hall, in the county of Suffolk, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, Lieutenant-Colonel and Permanent Assistant-Quarter-master-General of His Majesty's Forces, His royal licence and authority that he and his issue may, in compliance with the last will and testament of John Vere, late of Thorp, next Norwich, in the county of Norfolk, Esq. deceased, take and use the surname of Vere, in addition to and after that of Broke, and also bear the arms of Vere, quarterly with those of Broke, Vere in the first quarter: such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such black or Dantzic beer should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such black or Dantzic beer should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such black or Dantzic beer, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 15th day of June 1822;

N. VANSITTART.

B. PAGET

GL. H. SOMERSET.

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 30th day of July 1822, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for completing a bridge across the River Thames, from Blackfriars, in the City of London, to the opposite side, in the County of Surrey, and for other purposes therein mentioned;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament made and passed in the fifty-second year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the Fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars' Bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and two of the clock in the afternoon, on the 30th day of January next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 30th day of January next ensuing, upon the undermentioned bonds, being part of the sum of £156,000, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Act of 7 Geo. 3, under the common seal of this City, and made payable to William Montague, his executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same; and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine. And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 30th of January, and will severally declare such their intention, and the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same, in writing, under their hands, and deliver such declarations at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, I will, at the expiration of ten days from the delivery of such declaration in writing, at my said Office, pay to the several persons the principal sums respectively due to them in discharge of the said bonds, together with all interest as shall on the day specified in such declaration for the payment thereof have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine; viz.

Two hundred and three bonds, of one hundred pounds each, Nos. 1052 to 1254, both inclusive.

Richard Clark, Chamberlain.

Guildhall, 31st July 1822.
