TUESDAY, AUGUST 13, 1822.

Whitehall, August 10, 1822.

THIS afternoon, at twenty minutes past three, His Majesty embarked from Greenwich-Hospital on board His Yacht the Royal George, and immediately proceeded on His voyage to Scotland.

Admiralty-Office, August 12, 1822.

A DISPATCH has been received from Commodore Sir Charles Paget, reporting, that at three P. M. yesterday, the King, in His Majesty's Yacht the Royal George, passed through Yarmouth Roads with all sail set, and a fine breeze from the south south west.

His Majesty was in perfect health.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of August 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and other places in America and the West Indies," it is enacted, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the schedule marked A, annexed to the said Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, that from and after the passing of this Order, all articles permitted by the said Act to be imported into and exported from the ports enumerated in schedule A annexed to the said Act, shall and may be in like manner imported into and exported from the port of Annotto Bay, in the island of Jamaica, on payment of the duties, and subject to the rules, regulations, penalties, and forfeitures enacted by the said Act: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 18th of May 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the fourteenth of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months, (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar); or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or sports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greyille.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed Philip Longmore, of Hertford, in the county of Hertford, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, August 9, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that Stennett Jeffery, servant to Mr. William Warrender, of Martin, near Horncastle, in the county of Lincoln, Farmer, was on the morning of Sunday the 23d of June last, found, in a wood called Martin Wilderness, near Horncastle aforesaid, inhumanly murdered;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the outrage above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually murdered the said Stennett Jeffery), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

LONDONDERRY.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Magistrates and inhabitants of the town and neighbourhood of Horncastle, to any person or persons (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction by the Clerk to the Magistrates of the division.

TO PROPRIETORS OF STAGE COACHES, CARAVANS, &c.

Stamp-Office, London,
August 8, 1822.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by the Act of the 3d Geo. 4th, cap. 95, the following reduced rates and duties are made payable from and after the 1st day of September next, for and in respect of the carriages or vehicles hereafter mentioned, that is to say,

Any carriage or vehicle with two or more wheels, not being upon, or not having the aid or assistance of any spring or springs of any kind whatsoever, and which shall be kept, used, employed, or let out for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire to or from, or from and to, different places in Great Britain, and drawn by one horse only, for every mile that any such carriage or vehicle shall be licensed to travel	£. s. d. 0 0 1
Any such carriage or vehicle as above described, drawn by two horses only, for every mile, &c.	0 0 2
Any carriage or vehicle, drawn by one horse only, being upon or having the aid or assistance of any spring or springs of any kind whatsoever, for every mile, &c.	0 0 1½
Any carriage or vehicle drawn, by two horses only, being upon or having the aid or assistance of any spring or springs of any kind whatsoever, not distinguishing between inside and outside passengers, for every mile, &c.	0 0 3
And any such carriage or vehicle as last mentioned, drawn by three or more horses, for every mile, &c.	0 0 4½
The rates and duties upon stage coaches remain as heretofore.

And that by the same Act all licences for stage coaches, which would have expired on the 31st day of July last, are to remain in force until the 31st day of August instant, after which day, stage coaches, carriages, and vehicles liable to the payment of stage coach duties are required to have on each door a plate with a distinct number thereon, which plate is to be supplied by the Commissioners of Stamps at the expence of the parties applying for a license.

And that every carriage or vehicle used or employed for the conveyance of passengers for hire, where such passengers are charged or shall pay separate and distinct fares shall be deemed and taken to be a stage coach or carriage within the meaning of the said Act, or any former Act or Acts of Parliament relating to stage coaches.

And that the owners or proprietors of any carriage or vehicle carrying passengers for hire at separate and distinct fares, after the said 31st day of August, without having a licence, or without having a plate or plates as beforementioned affixed on each door or otherwise, as directed by the said Act, will be liable and subject to a penalty of 20l. for every day such carriage or vehicle shall be so used over and above the duties payable in respect thereof.

That applications for such licences and plates in respect of all carriages or vehicles liable to the Stage Coach duties going from or coming to London, Westminster, or the Borough of Southwark, shall be made at the Head Office of Stamps in Somerset-House; and in respect of all other carriages or vehicles liable to the Stage Coach duties to the Head Distributor of Stamps in the district from which such carriages or vehicles shall commence their respective journeys.

The said Commissioners further give notice, that the penalties imposed by the several Acts of Parliament relating to stage coaches will be strictly enforced against the proprietor or proprietors of all carriages or vehicles carrying passengers for hire at separate and distinct fares that may be discovered running without licences or plates, or running a greater number of journeys, or a greater number of miles, or to other places than are specified in such licences, or otherwise offending against any of the provision of the stage coach Acts.

By order of the Commissioners,
W. Kappen, Secretary.
