Edinburgh, August 15, 1822.

THIS day, between twelve and one, His Majesty made his entry into this city, amid the acclamations of an immense concourse of people, having in the morning landed at Leith from his royal yacht, and proceeded from thence in his carriage in procession to Holyrood-House. On the King's entering the city, His Majesty was met by the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council, who tendered to His Majesty the keys of the city, which His Majesty was graciously pleased to return to them.

His Majesty was received at the Palace by His Grace the Duke of Hamilton, the Hereditary Keeper, the Great Officers of State, and the Officers of the Household. The regalia of Scotland were presented to His Majesty. And His Majesty, on the throne, received a loyal address from the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of Edinburgh, and returned a most gracious answer thereto.

The King, soon after three this afternoon, left Holyrood-House, and proceeded to Dalkeith-House, which had been fitted up for His Majesty's reception.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of August 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and other places in America and the West Indies," it is enacted, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the schedule marked A, annexed to the said Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, that from and after the passing of this Order, all articles permitted by the said Act to be imported into and exported from the ports enumerated in schedule A annexed to the said Act, shall and may be in like manner imported into and exported from the port of Annotto Bay, in the island of Jamaica, on payment of the duties, and subject to the rules, regulations, penalties, and forfeitures enacted by the said Act: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Oreville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of July 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any
