SATURDAY, AUGUST 24, 1822.

AT the Court at Holyrood-House, the 17th of August 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Charles Hope, Lord President of the Court of Session, was, by His Majesty's command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of August 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and other places in America and the West Indies," it is enacted, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the schedule marked A, annexed to the said Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, that from and after the passing of this Order, all articles permitted by the said Act to be imported into and exported from the ports enumerated in schedule A annexed to the said Act, shall and may be in like manner imported into and exported from the port of Annotto Bay, in the island of Jamaica, on payment of the duties, and subject to the rules, regulations, penalties, and forfeitures enacted by the said Act: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of July 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should be suspended for the space of one year; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the date hereof, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia be suspended for the space of one year from the date of this Order.

Jas. Buller.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 18th of May 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the fourteenth of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited, by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High

Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Frederick Taylor, Esq. to be Captain. Dated 5th August 1822.

Commission in the Oxfordshire Regular Militia, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Oxford.

John James Ireland, Gent. to be Assistant-Surgeon. Dated 25th July 1822.

Whitehall, August 9, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that Stennett Jeffery, servant to Mr. William Warrender, of Martin, near Horncastle, in the county of Lincoln, Farmer, was on the morning of Sunday the 23d of June last, found, in a wood called Martin Wilderness, near Horncastle aforesaid, inhumanly murdered;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the outrage above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually murdered the said Stennett Jeffery), who shall discover his accomplices or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

LONDONDERRY.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Magistrates and inhabitants of the town and neighbourhood of Horncastle, to any person or persons (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction by the Clerk to the Magistrates of the division.

Whitehall, August 24, 1822.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First, Second, and Third, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any artificer in wool, iron, steel, brass, or other metal, clock-maker, watch-maker, or any other artificer of Great Britain, to go into foreign countries out of the King's dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon indictment or information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first offence, and shall be imprisoned three months, and till the fine be paid. And if any person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the discretion of the Court, and imprisoned twelve months, and till the fine be paid.

If any of the King's subjects, being such artificers, shall go into any country out of His Majesty's dominions, to exercise or teach the said trades to foreigners; and if any of the King's subjects in any such foreign country, exercising any of the said trades, shall not return into this realm within six months after warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the country where such artificers shall be, or by any person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this realm; such persons shall be incapable of taking any legacy, or of being an executor or administrator, or of taking any lands, &c. within this kingdom, by descent, devise, or purchase, and shall forfeit all lands, goods, &c. within this kingdom, to His Majesty's use, and shall be deemed alien, and out of His Majesty's protection.

Upon complaint made, upon oath, before any Justice of Peace, that any person is endeavouring to seduce any such artificer, or that any such artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's dominions, for the purposes aforesaid, such Justice may send his warrant to bring the person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the oath of one witness, or by confession, that he was guilty of any of the said offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such person shall refuse to give security, the Justice may commit him to gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due course of law. And if any such artificer shall be convicted, upon indictment, of any such promise, contract, or preparation to go beyond the seas, for the purpose aforesaid, he shall give such security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable; and shall be imprisoned till security given.

If any of the above offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary or the Circuits there.

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

IF any person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any artificer in wool, mohair, cotton, or silk, or in iron, steel, brass, or other metal, or any clock-maker, watch-maker, or any other artificer in any other of the manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this kingdom or Ireland into any foreign country not within the dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall be convicted, upon indictment or information, in the King's Bench at Westminster, or by indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery or the county, &c. wherein such offence shall be committed in England, or by indictment in the Court of Justiciary or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by indictment or information in the King's Bench at Dublin; if such offence be committed in Ireland; the person so convicted shall, for every artificer contracted with or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer imprisonment in the common gaol of the county or stewartry wherein such offender shall be convicted for twelve calendar months, and until forfeiture be paid: And in case of a subsequent offence of the same kind, the persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer imprisonment in the common gaol of the county or stewartry wherein such offender shall be convicted, for two years, and until such forfeiture be paid.

If any person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on board any ship or boat, not bound directly to some port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such tools or utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the preparing, working up, or finishing of the woollen or silk manufactures, or any part of such tools, he shall, for every offence, forfeit all such tools, or parts thereof, put on board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no essoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's warehouses, all such tools or utensils prohibited to be exported, as such officer shall find on board any vessel not bound directly to some port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all tools so seized shall, after condemnation, be publicly sold to the best bidder; and one moiety of the produce shall be to the use of His Majesty, and the other moiety to the officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his vessel, he shall, for every such offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the penalties inflicted upon persons exporting the tools; and, if the vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his employment, and be incapable of any employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any entry outward; or sign any cocket or sufferance for the shipping or exporting of any of the said tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his office, and be incapable of any office under His Majesty.

One moiety of the forfeitures shall be applied to the use of His Majesty, and the other moiety to the use of the person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25, and 26 of George III.

BY these Statutes the like penalties and forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to persons packing or putting on board any vessel, not bound directly for some port in Great Britain or Ireland, any machine, engine, tool, press, paper, utensil, or implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the cotton, steel, or iron manufactures of this kingdom; or any part or parts of such machines or implements, or any models or plans thereof; and all Captains of ships and other persons receiving or being in possession of any such articles, with an intent to export the same to foreign parts, and all Custom-house Officers suffering an entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like penalties as are above-mentioned, in the case of tools and utensils used in the woollen and silk manufactures.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting

"certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of

Black or Dantzic Beer,

legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such black or Dantzic beer should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such black or Dantzic beer should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such black or Dantzic beer, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 15th day of June 1822,

TO PROPRIETORS OF STAGE COACHES,
CARAVANS, &c.

Stamp Office, London,
August 8, 1822.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by the Act of the 3d Geo. 4th, cap. 95, the following reduced rates and duties are made payable from and after the 1st day of September next, for and in respect of the carriages or vehicles hereafter mentioned, that is to say;

Any carriage or vehicle with two or more wheels, not being upon, or not having the aid or assistance of any spring or springs of any kind whatsoever, and which shall be kept, used, employed, or let out for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire to or from, or from and to, different places in Great Britain, and drawn by one horse only, for every mile that any such carriage or vehicle shall be licensed to travel	£. s. d.
-	0 0 1
Any such carriage or vehicle as above described, drawn by two horses only, for every mile, &c.	0 0 2
Any carriage or vehicle, drawn by one horse only, being upon or having the aid or assistance of any spring or springs of any kind whatsoever, for every mile, &c.	0 0 1½
Any carriage or vehicle drawn, by two horses only, being upon or having the aid or assistance of any spring or springs of any kind whatsoever, not distinguishing between inside and outside passengers, for every mile, &c.	0 0 3
And any such carriage or vehicle as last mentioned, drawn by three or more horses, for every mile, &c.	0 0 4½

The rates and duties upon stage coaches remain as heretofore.

And that by the same Act all licences for stage coaches, which would have expired on the 31st day of July last, are to remain in force until the 31st day of August instant, after which day, stage coaches, carriages, and vehicles liable to the payment of stage coach duties are required to have on each door a plate with a distinct number thereon, which plate is to be supplied by the Commissioners of Stamps at the expence of the parties applying for a license.

And that every carriage or vehicle used or employed for the conveyance of passengers for hire, where such passengers are charged or shall pay separate and distinct fares shall be deemed and taken to be a stage coach or carriage within the meaning of the said Act, or any former Act or Acts of Parliament relating to stage coaches.

And that the owners or proprietors of any carriage or vehicle carrying passengers for hire at separate and distinct fares, after the said 31st day of August, without having a licence, or without having a plate or plates as beforementioned affixed on each door or otherwise, as directed by the said Act, will be liable and subject to a penalty of 20l. for every day such carriage or vehicle shall be so used over and above the duties payable in respect thereof.

That applications for such licences and plates in respect of all carriages or vehicles liable to the Stage Coach duties going from or coming to London, Westminster, or the Borough of Southwark, shall be made at the Head Office of Stamps in Somerset-House; and in respect of all other carriages or vehicles liable to the Stage Coach duties to the Head Distributor of Stamps in the district from which such carriages or vehicles shall commence their respective journeys.

The said Commissioners further give notice, that the penalties imposed by the several Acts of Parliament relating to stage coaches will be strictly enforced against the proprietor or proprietors of all carriages or vehicles carrying passengers for hire at separate and distinct fares that may be discovered running without licences or plates, or running a greater number of journeys, or a greater number of miles, or to other places than are specified in such licences, or otherwise offending against any of the provision of the stage coach Acts.

By order of the Commissioners,

W. Kappen, Secretary.

Mold, August 19, 1822.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy of the county of Flint will be held at the Clerk of the Peace's Office, in Mold, on Tuesday the 10th day of September next, at twelve o'clock at noon, for the purpose of carrying the militia laws into execution.

H. Roberts, Clerk of the General Meetings.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for enlarging the terms and powers, and to amend, alter, repeal, or consolidate into one Act the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the twenty-second year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act for opening and making a new road from the east end of New-street, in the parish of Saint John, Southwark, to and through the several places therein mentioned, and for keeping the said road in repair for the future;" also of another Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enlarging the term and powers granted by an Act, passed in the twenty-second year of His late Majesty King George the Second, for opening and making a new road from the east end of New-street, in the parish of Saint John, Southwark, to and through the several places therein mentioned, and for keeping the said road in repair for the future; and for repairing several other roads adjoining thereto;" also of another Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-first year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enlarging the term, and for explaining, amending, and making more effectual the powers of two several Acts, passed in the twenty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, and the seventh year of His present Majesty, for making a new road from New-street, in the parish of Saint John, Southwark, to and through the several places therein mentioned, and for keeping the same and several other roads adjoining in repair;" also of another Act, passed in the thirty-eighth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making a new road or street from Free School-street, Southwark, to Dockhead, and from thence through Hickman's-court, otherwise Rose-court, to Lilliput-hall-bridge, in Bermondsey, and for enlarging, for the term of twenty-one years, and from thence to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the term and powers of three Acts, passed in the twenty-second year of His late Majesty King George the Second, and in the seventh and thirty-first years of His present Majesty, for making a new road from New-street, in Southwark, to and through the several places therein mentioned, and for repairing the same and other roads adjoining;" also of another Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enlarging and altering the term and powers of several Acts of Parliament, for making a road from New-street, Southwark, to the places therein mentioned, and from Free School-street, Southwark, to Dockhead and Lilliput-hall-bridge, in Bermondsey, and from the Stones-end, in Kent-street, Southwark, to Dartford, so far as respects the road leading from the Stones-end, in Bermondsey-street, towards Saint Thomas a Waterings, and also for repairing and maintaining a certain lane called Long-lane, in the parish of Bermondsey, in the county of Surrey;" also of another Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending and enlarging the powers of an Act of His present Majesty, for repairing the road from Southwark to Deptford, and other roads therein mentioned, and for lighting, watching, and cleansing certain parts thereof and other places in the parish of Bermondsey, in the county of Surrey;" so far as relates to the said turnpike road; which said several roads by the said several Acts directed to be made, repaired, and kept in repair, pass through the several parishes of Saint John, Southwark, Saint Mary Magdalen, Bermondsey, and Saint Mary, Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey; Saint Paul, Deptford, and Saint Nicholas, Deptford, in the county of Kent; also that so much and so many of the provisions and directions contained in the said several Acts of Parliament as relate to the repairs or management of the highways in the said parish of Bermondsey and for raising the composition money directed to be paid by the inhabitants of the said parish of Bermondsey, to the Trustees of the said roads, for the repairing and maintaining Long-lane, the paving and putting into good condition the foot-paths of the road leading from the Stones-end, in Bermondsey-street, to Saint Thomas a Waterings, and the passages leading to and from the same, and for the lighting, watching, and cleansing the Grange-road and other roads and places mentioned and described in the said Act of the fifty-fifth year of his said late Majesty King George the Third may be made perpetual, and that such powers and provisions may be placed under the management of Commissioners to be named for those purposes, and that (if necessary or expedient) one or more Bill or Bills may be brought in for these purposes or some of them; and that provision may be made for the paving, repairing, and cleansing any new or other streets, lanes, ways, passages, or thoroughfares, in the said parish of Bermondsey; and also for paving the foot paths of such part of the said turnpike road as is within the said parish not under the jurisdiction of any Commissioners; and that further powers may be given to enable such Commissioners to pave, repair, light, watch, and cleanse all and every the said streets, roads, and places; and in which Bill or Bills provision is intended to be made for altering or increasing the rates and duties by the said Acts authorised to be collected; and for making other rates for the purposes before mentioned.—Dated this 22d day of August 1822.

By order of the Trustees,

B. and G. Drew, Solicitors.

Bermondsey-street.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing sessions, for an Act for raising a further sum of money for carrying into execution the purposes of an Act of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for rebuilding the church, and improving the church-yard of the parish of Saint Paul, Shadwell, in the county of Middlesex, and for altering, amending, enlarging, and extending the powers of the said Act."—August 22, 1822.

Jno. West, Solicitor, Red Lion-street, Wapping.

Parish of Saint Saviour, in the Borough of Southwark, in the County of Surrey.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, by the Churchwardens, Overseers, and inhabitants of the parish of Saint Saviour, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, acting under an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth George the Second, intituled "An Act to enable the Churchwardens, Overseers, and inhabitants of the parish of Saint Saviour, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, to hold a market within the said parish, not interfering with the High-street, in the said borough," and an Act, passed in the thirtieth George the Second, intituled "An Act to explain, amend, and render more effectual an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to enable the Churchwardens, Overseers, and inhabitants of the parish of Saint Saviour, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, to hold a market within the said parish, not interfering with the High-street, in the said borough," for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of the said Acts, in which Bill provision will be made for applying certain funds and surplus monies arisen, or which shall arise from the tolls and dues authorised to be taken by the said Acts; and the rents of certain houses, warehouses, and premises belonging to the said market, in aid of the poor's rate, and the rates and expenses incurred in the repair of the church of the said parish.—Dated the 23d day of August 1822.

Geo. Collingwood, Solicitor to the said parish of Saint Saviour.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the twenty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the improvement of Portman-square, within the parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, in the county of Middlesex."—Dated the 13th day of August 1822.

Thos. Wilson.

Payment of Prizes drawn on the 13th Day of August instant, being the last Day of Drawing the third Lottery for the Year 1821.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
August 24, 1822.

THE Commissioners appointed for managing the Lotteries do hereby give notice, that numbers of tickets and shares thereof in all preceding lotteries may be examined at this Office every day (Sundays excepted), with their registers of benefits and blanks.

And the Commissioners appointed to take in the benefit tickets of the third lottery for the year 1821, do hereby give notice, that they will attend at their Office in Somerset-Place, on Saturday the 31st instant, from ten o'clock in the forenoon to two o'clock in the afternoon, to take in and enter the benefit tickets drawn on Tuesday the 13th day of this instant August, being the last day of drawing the same lottery, to be exchanged for certificates, pursuant to the Act of Parliament in that behalf.

And for further dispatch thereof, the said Commissioners will take in and enter the tickets of class A at one seat, and the tickets of class B at another seat; and the persons possessed thereof are directed to bring with their tickets separate lists thereof, marked A and B, distinguishing stock from money prizes, formed in numerical order, adapted to each of the said seats, and at the bottom of each list to write the name and proper additions of the person entitled to the value of the said tickets.

And the said Commissioners also give further notice, that certificates for the value of the said tickets will be delivered out on Wednesday the 4th day of September next, at twelve o'clock at noon; after which the said Commissioners will take in and enter tickets in their usual monthly entry; and all persons are desired to observe, they must bring duplicates of their lists when they come for their certificates.

The Commissioners also give further notice, that a bond of indemnity must be entered into by two respectable housekeepers (to be approved by the said Commissioners), together with the person entitled to the value of any ticket or tickets which may have been lost, or to any ticket or tickets the checks of which may have been torn or destroyed, before the Commissioners can grant certificates for the same; and that in case of a lost ticket, an affidavit must also be made of the circumstances attending the loss of the same, before a Baron of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer.

In the several Counties of North and South Wales,

And in the several Counties in North Britain;

That the deliveries are to commence on and for the 25th day of September next; that proposals in writing, sealed up and marked "Tender for Army Supplies," will be received at this Office on or before Tuesday the 3d day of September next; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day.

Proposals must be made separately for each county.

and island, the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Alderney excepted, all of which must be included in one tender; likewise for the counties comprising North and South Wales, as must also the several counties in North Britain; and each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed tender, and the prices expressed in words at length; and should it so happen that during the continuance of the contract no troops should be supplied by virtue of the same, the amount of the stamps on the contract and bond, paid in the first instance by the contractor, will be refunded to him.

Particulars of the contracts may be had upon application at this Office, between the hours of ten and four; and of the Barrack-Masters at Guernsey, Jersey, and the Isle of Man.

N. B. As considerable alterations have been made in the tenders for the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Alderney, persons tendering for those islands are requested to attend to the same.

Navy-Office, August 8, 1822.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 4th of September next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner Sir Robert Barlow, K. C. B. will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Yard at Chatham, several lots of

Old Stores,

Consisting of old rope, shakings, junk, canvas, mooring chain, mooring blocks, bushel iron, cast and wrought iron articles, firehearth, marine clothing, slops, toppets, &c. &c. &c.

all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Commissioner of the Yard for a note of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, and at the Yard. G. Smith.

CONTRACT FOR RIGA AND DANTZIC OR MEMEL FIR TIMBER, AND CANADA RED PINE TIMBER.

Navy-Office, August 12, 1822.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 28th of August instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Yard at Chatham with all or any of the following quantities of Fir Timber, viz.

1000 Loads of Riga Fir Timber.

2000 Loads of Dantzic or Memel Fir Timber.

4000 Loads of Canada Red Pine Timber.

The whole of the said Timber either to be imported or supplied from the market at home.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £3000, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.

Navy-Office, August 15, 1822.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 28th of this month, at twelve o'clock at noon, Commissioner Cunningham will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Yard at Deptford, several lots of

Old Stores,

Consisting of canvas in rags, buntin, rope in paper-stuff, steering compasses, iron tanks and ballast, firehearth, beds and bedding, &c. &c. &c.

all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Commissioner of the Yard for a note of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, and at the Yard. G. Smith.

Navy-Office, August 15, 1822.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 12th of September next, at twelve o'clock at noon, Commissioner Cunningham will be ready, at his Office in His Majesty's Yard at Woolwich, to receive tenders from such persons as may be willing to hire for a certain sum,

The privilege of selling Ale, Beer, Porter, Bread, Cheese, and small articles, in the Tap-Room in His Majesty's said Yard at Woolwich; subject to the regulations and conditions which may be known by applying at the Commissioner's Office, in the said Yard.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock on the said 12th of September next; nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

G. Smith.

East India-House, August 21, 1822.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That the present interest of four (£4) per Cent. per annum on the Company's bonds, shall cease and determine on the 31st day of March 1823:

That from and after the said 31st day of March, they shall carry only an interest of three pounds ten shillings (£3 10s.) per Cent. per annum:

That the Proprietors of bonds be allowed to bring them in to be marked, for continuation, at the said interest of £3 10s. per Cent. per annum, until the 28th day of February 1823; and that such bonds as shall not be marked for continuation, as aforesaid, on or before the 28th day of February 1823, shall be liable to be paid off on the said 31st day of March 1823, with the interest due thereon, from which date the unmarked bonds shall not carry any interest.
