THE ceremony of the baptism of Princess Augusta-Caroline-Charlotte-Elizabeth-Mary-Sophia-Louisa, daughter of His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge, Governor-General of Hanover, and of Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Cambridge, Landgravine and Princess of Hesse, His wife, was performed this day, according to the rites of the Established Church of England, at the Palace of Montbrillant, near this City, by the Reverend Edward Curtis Kemp, M. A. Chaplain to the Right Honourable Sir George Rose, in the presence of their Royal Highnesses, and of their Serene Highnesses Caroline Landgravine of Hesse, Louisa Princess and Landgravine of Hesse, Frederick-William Prince and Landgrave of Hesse, and Louisa Princess of Nassau Usingen; and the Hanoverian Ministers of State.

The sponsors for the young Princess were His Royal Highness the Duke of York; Her Majesty the Queen of Wurtemberg; their Royal Highnesses the Princess Augusta, the reigning Landgravine of Hesse Hombourg; the Duchess of Gloucester; the Princess Sophia; the Electress of Hesse; the Grand Duchess of Mecklenburg Strelitz, and the Princess Charlotte-Louisa Landgravine of Hesse; and their Serene Highnesses the Landgravine Caroline of Hesse, the Princess Louisa Landgravine of Hesse, and the Princess Louisa of Nassau Usingen.

THE following Address, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented by him to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Common Councillors of the Corporation of Gravesend and Milton, cannot permit to pass even the slightest probability of any means afforded to us, by which we may tender our homage.

May your Majesty safely arrive at that portion of your dominions which it is your present object to visit; and at the termination of the several royal visits to the different branches of those dominions (sufficiently marking your Majesty's impartial and paternal care for the whole), may you have the consolation to find that your subjects in each part vie with the other, in feelings of loyalty and attachment to your Person and Government, and in the fervent desire to express them; thus realizing the anxious wish so lately and emphatically expressed by your Majesty, for the union of all classes of your subjects in brotherly love and affection.

Long may your Majesty reign in the hearts of a free and happy people.

Given under our Coporate seal this 10th day of August 1822.

Evans, Town Clerk.

likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any artificer in wool, iron, steel, brass, or other metal, clock-maker, watch-maker, or any other artificer of Great Britain, to go into foreign countries out of the King's dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon indictment or information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first offence, and shall be imprisoned three months, and till the fine be paid. And if any person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the discretion of the Court, and imprisoned twelve months, and till the fine be paid.

If any of the King's subjects, being such artificers, shall go into any country out of His Majesty's dominions, to exercise or teach the said trades to foreigners; and if any of the King's subjects in any such foreign country, exercising any of the said trades, shall not return into this realm within six months after warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the country where such artificers shall be, or by any person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this realm; such persons shall be incapable of taking any legacy, or of being an executor or administrator, or of taking any lands, &c. within this kingdom, by descent, devise, or purchase, and shall forfeit all lands, goods, &c. within this kingdom, to His Majesty's use, and shall be deemed alien, and out of His Majesty's protection.

And if any such artificer shall be convicted upon indictment, of any such promise, contract, or preparation to go beyond the seas, for the purpose aforesaid, he shall give such security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till security given.

If any of the above offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary or the Circuits there.

THOMAS BRUNTON'S PATENT FOR HIS INVENTION OF CERTAIN IMPROVEMENTS IN THE CONSTRUCTION OF MAKING OR MANUFACTURING OF SHIPS ANCHORS AND WINDLASSES, AND CHAIN CABLES OR MOORINGS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Thomas Brunton, of America-square, in the city of London, and of the Commercial-road, in the county of Middlesex, chain-cable-maker, intends to present a petition to Parliament, in the next ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill for confirming to him the said Thomas Brunton, his executors, administrators, and assigns, during the remainder of the term granted by certain letters patent herein-after mentioned, the sole and exclusive right of making, using, exercising, and vending, within England, Wales, and Berwick-upon-Tweed, of certain improved chain cables or moorings invented by him, in such and the same manner as if such letters patent had been granted for the sole and exclusive right to make, use, exercise, and vend such chain cables or moorings only, and had not embraced the ships anchors and windlasses therein mentioned, or either of them, which said letters patent were granted to the said Thomas Brunton under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing date on or about the 26th day of March 1813, for the term of fourteen years from the date of the said letters patent, for his invention of certain improvements in the construction of making or manufacturing of ships anchors and windlasses, and chain cables or moorings; and the following statement contains a distinct description of the said improved chain cables or moorings for which the said letters patent were obtained, that is to say, the said improved chain cables or moorings are composed of links somewhat of an oval or elliptical shape, not twisted but flat, so that any one of such links taken separately would lie between two parallel planes, whose distance from each other did not, but in a very trifling degree, exceed the diameter of the round iron bar of which the link was made; into each link of the said chain and across the middle thereof an iron stay or stretcher is introduced, so as to prevent the sides of the links from collapsing, or being drawn together by any tension, to which the cable might be exposed; both ends of the said stays are made broad and hollowed out so as to apply themselves to and embrace a considerable portion of the internal curved surfaces of the opposite sides of each link; the breadth of the middle part of the said stays (when measured in the direction of the length of the link) is such as to leave sufficient room on each side of the stay for the introduction of one link into another, and so as to admit every link to move or play freely in the other with which it is connected.
