THE ceremony of the baptism of Princess Augusta-Caroline-Charlotte-Elizabeth-Mary-Sophia-Louisa, daughter of His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge, Governor-General of Hanover, and of Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Cambridge, Landgravine and Princess of Hesse, His wife, was performed this day, according to the rites of the Established Church of England, at the Palace of Montbrillant, near this City, by the Reverend Edward Curtis Kemp, M. THE following Address, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented by him to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Common Councillors of the Corporation of Gravesend and Milton, cannot permit to pass even the slightest probability of any means afforded to us, by which we may tender our homage.

May your Majesty safely arrive at that portion of your dominions which it is your present object to visit; and at the termination of the several royal visits to the different branches of those dominions (sufficiently marking your Majesty's impartial and paternal care for the whole), may you have the consolation to find that your subjects in each part vie with the other, in feelings of loyalty and attachment to your Person and Government, and in the fervent desire to express them; thus realizing the anxious wish so lately and emphatically expressed by your Majesty, for the union of all classes of your subjects in brotherly love and affection.

Long may your Majesty reign in the hearts of a free and happy people.

Given under our Coporate seal this 10th day of August 1822.

Evans, Town Clerk.
