As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First, Second, and Third, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any artificer in wool, iron, steel, brass, or other metal, clock-maker, watch-maker, or any other artificer of Great Britain, to go into foreign countries out of the King's dominions; and shall be convicted thereof, upon indictment or information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first offence, and shall be imprisoned three months, and till the fine be paid. And if any person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the discretion of the Court, and imprisoned twelve months, and till the fine be paid.

If any of the King's subjects, being such artificers, shall go into any country out of His Majesty's dominions, to exercise or teach the said trades to foreigners; and if any of the King's subjects in any such foreign country, exercising any of the said trades, shall not return into this realm within six months after warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the country where such artificers shall be, or by any person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this realm; such persons shall be incapable of taking any legacy, or of being an executor or administrator, or of taking any lands, &c. within this kingdom, by descent, devise, or purchase, and shall forfeit all lands, goods, &c. within this kingdom, to His Majesty's use, and shall be deemed alien, and out of His Majesty's protection.

Upon complaint made, upon oath, before any Justice of Peace, that any person is endeavouring to seduce any such artificer, or that any such artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's dominions, for the purposes aforesaid, such Justice may send his warrant to bring the person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the oath of one witness, or by confession, that he was guilty of any of the said offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such person shall refuse to give security, the Justice may commit him to gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions and until he shall be delivered by due course of law. And if any such artificer shall be convicted upon indictment, of any such promise, contract or preparation to go beyond the seas, for the purpose aforesaid, he shall give such security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till security given.

If any of the above offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary or the Circuits there.

If any person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on board any ship or boat, not bound directly to some port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such tools or utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the preparing, working up, or finishing of the woollen or silk manufactures, or any part of such tools, he shall, for every offence, forfeit all such tools, or parts thereof, put on board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no essoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's warehouses, all such tools or utensils prohibited to be exported, as such officer shall find on board any vessel not bound directly to some port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all tools so seized shall, after condemnation, be publicly sold to the best bidder; and one moiety of the produce shall be to the use of His Majesty, and the other moiety to the officer who shall seize and secure the same.

One moiety of the forfeitures shall be applied to the use of His Majesty, and the other moiety to the use of the person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25, and 26 of George III.

BY these Statutes the like penalties and forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to persons packing or putting on board any vessel, not bound directly for some port in Great Britain or Ireland, any machine, engine, tool, press, paper, utensil, or implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the cotton, steel, or iron manufactures of this kingdom; or any part or parts of such machines or implements, or any models or plans thereof; and all Captains of ships and other persons receiving or being in possession of any such articles, with an intent to export the same to foreign parts, and all Custom-house Officers suffering an entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like penalties as are above-mentioned, in the case of tools and utensils used in the woollen and silk manufactures.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to obtain an Act for explaining, amending, altering, and enlarging the powers of two Acts of Parliament, passed in the thirtieth and thirty-sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, the one, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a navigable canal from Merthyr Tydvil to and through a place called the Bank, near the town of Cardiff, in the county of Glamorgan," the other, "An Act to amend the said Act, and for extending the said canal to a place called the Lower Loyer, below the said town;" in which said intended Bill, amongst other things, provision is to be made for widening, deepening, and otherwise improving that part of the said canal called the Sea Lock Pond, situate in the parish of St. Mary, in the town and county aforesaid; and also to enable the Company of Proprietors of the said canal to raise a sum of money, not exceeding £6400, at 5 per cent interest, for the purpose of effecting the improvements aforesaid. Dated this 5th day of September 1822.

Thos. Reece, Clerk to the said Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for providing additional means of guarding and protecting from thieves, robbers, and other evil-disposed persons, the lives and property of His Majesty's subjects within the parishes and places in the county of Surrey.—Dated this 7th day of September 1822.

THOMAS BRUNTON'S PATENT FOR HIS INVENTION OF CERTAIN IMPROVEMENTS IN THE CONSTRUCTION OF MAKING OR MANUFACTURING OF SHIPS ANCHORS AND WINDLASSES, AND CHAIN CABLES OR MOORINGS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Thomas Brunton, of America-square, in the city of London, and of the Commercial-road, in the county of Middlesex, chain-cable-maker, intends to present a petition to Parliament, in the next ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill for confirming to him the said Thomas Brunton, his executors, administrators, and assigns, during the remainder of the term granted by certain letters patent hereinafter mentioned, the sole and exclusive right of making, using, exercising, and vending, within England, Wales, and Berwick-upon-Tweed, of certain improved chain cables or moorings invented by him, in such and the same manner as if such letters patent had been granted for the sole and exclusive right to make, use, exercise, and vend such chain cables or moorings only, and had not embraced the ships anchors and windlasses therein mentioned, or either of them, which said letters patent were granted to the said Thomas Brunton under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing date on or about the 26th day of March 1813, for the term of fourteen years from the date of the said letters patent, for his invention of certain improvements in the construction of making or manufacturing of ships anchors and windlasses, and chain cables or moorings; and the following statement contains a distinct description of the said improved chain cables or moorings for which the said letters patent were obtained, that is to say, the said improved chain cables or moorings are composed of links somewhat of an oval or elliptical shape, not twisted but flat, so that any one of such links taken separately would lie between two parallel planes, whose distance from each other did not, but in a very trifling degree, exceed the diameter of the round iron bar of which the link was made; into each link of the said chain and across the middle thereof an iron stay or stretcher is introduced, so as to prevent the sides of the links from collapsing, or being drawn together by any tention, to which the cable might be exposed; both ends of the said stays are made broad and hollowed out so as to apply themselves to and embrace a considerable portion of the internal curved surfaces of the opposite sides of each link; the breadth of the middle part of the said stays (when measured in the direction of the length of the link) is such as to leave sufficient room on each side of the stay for the introduction of one link into another, and so as to admit every link to move or play freely in the other with which it is connected.

F. Abbott, Rolls-yard, Chancery-lane, Solicitor for the Petitioner.

Notice is hereby given, that it is the intention of the Government of Ceylon to allow the general export from the Island, of Cinnamon in any vessel, and to any place whatsoever, provided the same shall have been purchased from the Government stores; and it is intended to hold public sales of that article by auction, on the first Monday of every month, at the Export Warehouse, (or any more convenient place, of which due notice will be given) at Colombo.

The first monthly sale will be held on the first Monday in December next, and the quantity which will be exposed for sale at each sale will probably be about fifty thousand pounds.

The Cinnamon will be assorted into three sorts, first, second, and third, and embalmed in bales of one hundred pounds, and the lots put up will be of five bales in a lot.

The article is to be paid for in ready money in the currency of the Island, or in specie which will be received at the current exchange of the day at Colombo.

The purchaser of each lot will be furnished with a licence in duplicate, stating the quantity and quality of the Cinnamon, and certifying it was purchased from Government, and entitling the holder to export the spice free of all duty.

These licences will be transferable, and when the article is to be shipped the licences are to be produced in duplicate to the Commissioner of Revenue to be endorsed by him with the name of the ship and port to which it is to be shipped from Colombo, which will be the only port of the Island whence shipments will be allowed.

The exporter will deposit the duplicate of the licence in the Custom-House, retaining the original to be produced, if required, at the Custom-House in England.

Any Cinnamon exported, or attempted to be exported, without licence will be confiscated, and the person exporting, or attempting to export it, will be liable to a fine of three hundred rix dollars for each pound.

The retail of the Cinnamon in the Island will continue under the restrictions already enacted, as do all penalties against the sale in possession of the same, by persons not licenced.
