

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1822.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 16th of September 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from Tuesday the eighth day of October next, to Tuesday the twenty-sixth day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 16th of September 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable George Canning to be one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, he was this day, by His Majesty's command, sworn one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State accordingly.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint Thomas Asheton Smith, Esq. to be Lieutenant of the county of Carnarvon, he this day took the oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of August 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and other places in America and the West Indies," it is enacted, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the schedule marked A, annexed to the said Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, that from and after the passing of this Order, all articles permitted by the said Act to be imported into and exported from the ports enumerated in schedule A annexed to the said Act, shall and may be in like manner imported into and exported from the port of Annotto Bay, in the island of Jamaica, on payment of the duties, and subject to the rules, regulations, penalties, and forfeitures enacted by the said Act: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of July 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should be suspended for the space of one year; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the date hereof; but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia be suspended for the space of one year from the date of this Order.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 18th of May 1822.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the fourteenth of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain; or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition," and also to empower His Majesty to restrain "the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. C. C. Greville, Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Monmouth.

Henry Pocock, Esq. to be Deputy Lieutenant. Dated 17th August 1822.

Commission in the North Somerset Yeomanry Cavalry, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Somerset.

George Swayne, Gent. to be Cornet. Dated 15th August 1822.

Whitehall, September 17, 1822.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that a fire was discovered in the night of the 6th of September, about the hour of eleven, in the teazle-house, contiguous to the woollen-mill, of Messrs Heale and Co. at Quemnerford, in the parish of Calne, in the county of Wilts, which consumed the same and the property therein; and whereas there is strong reason to believe, that the same was wilfully and maliciously occasioned by some person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

BATHURST.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by Messrs. Heale and Co. to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws for the prevention of Smuggling," after reciting (among other things) that His late Majesty, by His Royal Proclamation, dated the first day of January 1801, was pleased, with the advice of His Privy Council, to order and appoint what ensign or colours should be borne at sea by merchant ships or vessels belonging to any of His Majesty's subjects, thereby charging and commanding all His Majesty's subjects whatsoever; that they should not presume to wear in any of their ships or vessels His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, nor any pendants nor any such colours as are usually worn by His Majesty's ships, without particular warrant for their so doing from His Majesty, or His High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral for the time being; it is enacted, that if any person or persons shall presume to hoist, carry, or wear, in or on board any ship or vessel, fishing-boat, or other vessel, or boat whatever, belonging to any of His Majesty's subjects, whether the same be merchant or otherwise, His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, or any pendant or colours such as are commonly worn by His Majesty's ships, or any Jack, flag, pendant or colours whatever made in imitation of or resembling those of His Majesty, or any kind of pendant whatever, without such warrant as aforesaid, or any other ensign or colours than the ensign or colours prescribed by the said Proclamation to be worn, the master or other person having charge of such ship, vessel or boat, or the owner or owners thereof being on board the same, and every other person so offending shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of £500. to be recovered with costs of suit as in the said Act is mentioned; and whereas His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, a Jack made in resemblance thereof, hath been the usual signal displayed and kept flying for pilots to come on board merchant ships and vessels on the coasts of this United Kingdom: we do therefore, by virtue of the power and authority so reposed in us, hereby warrant and empower every master or other person having the charge and command of any merchant ship or vessel to hoist and keep flying His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, or a Jack resembling the same, as a signal for a pilot whenever and so often as the same may be necessary.

Given under our hands this 16th day of September 1822.

J. OSBORN.
G. COCKBURN.

By command of their Lordships,
JOHN BARRÖW.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting

" certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such black or Dantzic beer should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such black or Dantzic beer should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such black or Dantzic beer, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 15th day of June 1822,
