Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1822.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 16th of September 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from Tuesday the eighth day of October next, to Tuesday the twenty-sixth day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of August 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and other places in America and the West Indies," it is enacted, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the schedule marked A, annexed to the said Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, that from and after the passing of this Order, all articles permitted by the said Act to be imported into and exported from the ports enumerated in schedule A annexed to the said Act, shall and may be in like manner imported into and exported from the port of Annotto Bay, in the island of Jamaica, on payment of the duties, and subject to the rules, regulations, penalties, and forfeitures enacted by the said Act: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of July 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should be suspended for the space of one year; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the date hereof, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia be suspended for the space of one year from the date of this Order.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 18th of May 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the fourteenth of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto the trustees named in the last will and testament of Robert Wilson, late of Chapel-place, Cavendish-square, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. deceased (formerly Superintendent-Surgeon in the service of the East India Company, on their Bengal Establishment), His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that Wilson Dobie, a minor, now a student at the University of Edinburgh (youngest son of James Dobie, late of Beith, in Ayrshire, North Britain, merchant, deceased, by Janet his wife, sister to the aforesaid Robert Wilson), and his issue may, out of grateful and affectionate respect to the memory, and in compliance with an injunction contained in the will of his said maternal uncle Robert Wilson, take and use the surname of Wilson, in addition to the surname of Dobie, and bear the arms of Wilson quarterly with the arms of Dobie, Wilson in the first quarter; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect.

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge has been pleased to appoint the Reverend William Thursby, M. A. of Oriel College, Oxford, to be one of His Royal Highness's Domestic Chaplains.

Whitehall, September 17, 1822.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that a fire was discovered in the night of the 6th of September, about the hour of eleven, in the teazle-house, contiguous to the woollen-mill, of Messrs. Heale and Co. at Quenmerford, in the parish of Calne, in the county of Wilts, which consumed the same and the property therein; and whereas there is strong reason to believe, that the same was wilfully and maliciously occasioned by some person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

BATHURST.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by Messrs. Heale and Co. to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, September 20, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about three o'clock in the morning of Tuesday the 17th instant, a barn (with about twenty-five sacks of wheat therein), situate at Christian Mulford, in the county of Wilts, the property of the Earl of Carnarvon, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire and destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said barn on fire), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

GEORGE CANNING.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid, on conviction, by the Reverend J. W. Beadon, Rector of Christian Mulford aforesaid.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such black or Dantzic beer should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such black or Dantzic beer should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such black or Dantzic beer, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers,

JOHN HEATHCOAT'S PATENT FOR BOBBIN LACE MACHINES.

NOTICE is hereby given, that John Heathcoat, late of Nottingham, but now of Tiverton, in the county of Devon, lace-manufacturer, intends to present a petition in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill for vesting in him, his executors, administrators, and assigns, for a term of years to be limited by such Act, the sole and exclusive right, benefit, and advantage of making, using, and vending a machine by him invented for the making and manufacturing of bobbin lace, or lace nearly resembling foreign lace, for the exclusive right to use, make, and vend which, he, the said John Heathcoat, obtained His late Majesty's letters patent, bearing date the 20th day of March, in the forty-ninth year of His said late Majesty's reign, for the term of fourteen years from the date of the said letters patent; and also for vesting in him, the said John Heathcoat, his executors, administrators, and assigns, the like sole and exclusive right, benefit, and advantage for a term of years to be limited by such Act, of making, using, and vending certain improvements on, and additions to his, the said John Heathcoat's, said machine, and for the exclusive right to make, use, and vend which improvements and additions he, the said John Heathcoat, obtained His Majesty's letters patent, bearing date the 29th day of March, in the fifty-third year of His said late Majesty's reign, for the term of fourteen years from the date of the said last-mentioned patents. (H. Ann. vol. 10.)

Philpot and Stone, Agents to the said John Heathcoat, Southampton street, Bloomsbury.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to obtain an Act for explaining, amending, altering, and enlarging the powers of two Acts of Parliament; passed in the thirtieth and thirty-sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, the one, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a navigable canal from Merthyr-Tydvil to and through a place called the Bank, near the town of Cardiff, in the county of Glamorgan," the other, "An Act to amend the said Act; and for extending the said canal to a place called the Lower Loyer, below the said town;" in which said intended Bill, amongst other things, provision is to be made for widening, deepening, and otherwise improving that part of the said canal called the Sea Lock Pond, situate in the parish of St. Mary, in the town and county aforesaid; and also to enable the Company of Proprietors of the said canal to raise a sum of money, not exceeding £6400, at 5 per cent interest, for the purpose of effecting the improvements aforesaid. Dated this 5th day of September 1822.

Thos. Reece, Clerk to the said Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session; for leave to bring in a Bill for providing additional means of guarding and protecting from thieves, robbers, and other evil-disposed persons, the lives and property of His Majesty's subjects within the parishes and places in the county of Surrey.—Dated this 7th day of September 1822.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session for leave to bring in a Bill to enlarge the powers and extend the jurisdiction of His Majesty's Justices and Commissioners of Sewers acting in and for the limits between Limehouse and Blackwall, in the several parishes of All Saints, Poplar, and Saint Anne, in the county of Middlesex, in which bill it is intended to extend, alter, and increase the existing rates or duties.—Dated this 10th day of September 1822.

Wm. Baker,
Clerk and Solicitor to the Commissioners.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills and obtain an Act or Acts for confirming a certain Charter or Letters Patent granted to the borough of Maldon, in the county of Essex, and the Burgesses of the same, on the eighth day of October, in the fiftieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, and the several customs, liberties, conservancies of waters, rights, jurisdictions and franchises therein, or in any former charters mentioned, granted, confirmed and restored; and for regulating the beaconage, anchorage and ballast; as well as the oyster and fishery in the rivers Chelmer and Blackwater, within the said borough.

Wm. Codd, Solicitor.
Maldon, September 10th, 1822.

Guildhall, London, August, 1822.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act for taking down the present bridge over the river Thames, leading from the parish of Saint Magnus the Martyr, in the city of London, to the Parish of Saint Olave, in the borough of Southwark, and county of Surrey, called London Bridge, and rebuilding the same on the present site thereof, or for building a new bridge instead thereof in some more convenient situation near or adjoining thereto, and for widening and improving the avenues to the said intended new bridge if built on the site of the present bridge, or for making proper and convenient avenues and approaches to such new bridge if built in another situation, which said proposed new bridge and the avenues and approaches to be made, widened and improved as before mentioned, are situate or are intended to be situated in the said parishes of Saint Magnus and Saint Olave, in the parishes of Saint Saviour and Saint Thomas, in the borough of Southwark aforesaid, and in the several parishes of Saint Olave, Saint Michael, Crooked Lane, Saint George, Botolph Lane, Saint Botolph, Billingsgate, and Saint Margaret, New Fish-Street, in the city of London, or in some of the said parishes; also for raising and making such other alterations in the banks of the said river as may become necessary or expedient, in consequence of the removal of the obstructions to the water-way at London Bridge; and to authorise the Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled, to levy tolls upon all foot passengers, horses, carriages and cattle passing over the said bridge, and upon all boats, barges, vessels, lighters or other craft passing under the said bridge, and to borrow money upon the credit of the said tolls, (in aid of the money to be raised on the bridge-house estates), for rebuilding the said bridge, for removing shoals in and excavating or filling up such parts of the said river as may be requisite for preserving or improving the navigation thereon, in preparation for and in consequence of the enlargement of the water-way at London Bridge, and effecting the several other purposes before mentioned; and to empower the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commons, in like aid to borrow money for all or any of the purposes aforesaid upon the credit of, and to be charged upon and repaid out of the fund commonly called the Orphans' Fund, granted and continued by several Acts made in the fifth and sixth years of King William and Queen Mary, the twenty-first year of King George the Second, and the seventh and forty-fourth years of His late Majesty King George the Third, or to borrow or raise such sum of money as shall be required (in aid as aforesaid) for all or any of either of those purposes upon or by all or any or either of the means before stated; also for an Act to authorise the Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled, to levy tolls upon all horses, carriages and cattle passing over Blackfriars Bridge, and to borrow money upon the credit of the said tolls for the repairing and maintaining Blackfriars Bridge aforesaid, or to empower the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commons to borrow a certain sum for those purposes upon the credit of, and to be charged upon and repaid out of the said fund commonly called the Orphans' Fund, granted and continued by several Acts made in the fifth and sixth years of King William and Queen Mary, the twenty-first year of King George the Second, and the seventh and forty-fourth years of His late Majesty King George the Third; and also to amend and enlarge the powers of an Act made in the twenty-ninth year of King George the Second, and another Act made in the seventh year of His late Majesty King George the Third, for building and completing Blackfriars Bridge aforesaid, and which said last mentioned bridge is situate in the parish of Saint Anne, Blackfriars, in the city of London, and abuts at the south end thereof on the parish of Christ Church, in the county of Surrey.

T. Tyrrell, City Remembrancer.
