| To the person or persons who shall actually make the arrest. | } | Three fourth parts of the reward to be divided in equal proportions, if more than one person shall actually make the arrest. |
| To the officer or officers being present, of the party of men, to which the person or persons making the arrest shall belong. | } | One fourth part of the reward to be divided, if more than one officer of the party shall be so present, as follows. |
| | | To the officer commanding the party, two shares. |
| | | To each of the other officers, one share. |

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to cause His Majesty's pleasure, hereby signified, to be duly complied with.

Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, September 23, 1822.

The King has been pleased to grant unto the Honourable and Reverend George Fellow, Clerk, the place and dignity of a Canon or Prebendary of the Metropolitan Church of Canterbury, void by the death of the Reverend Doctor Coombe.

Whitehall, September 17, 1822.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that a fire was discovered in the night of the 6th of September, about the hour of eleven, in the teazle-house, contiguous to the woollen-mill, of Messrs. Heale and Co. at Quennerford, in the parish of Calne, in the county of Wilts, which consumed the same and the property therein; and whereas there is strong reason to believe, that the same was wilfully and maliciously occasioned by some person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

BATHURST.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by Messrs. Heale and Co. to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, September 20, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about three o'clock in the morning of Tuesday the 17th instant, a barn (with about twenty-five sacks of wheat therein), situate at Christian Mulford, in the county of Wilts, the property of the Earl of Carnarvon, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire and destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said barn on fire), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

GEORGE CANNING.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid, on conviction, by the Reverend J. W. Beadon, Rector of Christian Mulford aforesaid.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting
