

county, Doctor of Divinity, Vicar of Selburn, in the said county, deceased, by Mary his wife, eldest daughter of Charles, and sister of Charles Lisle, both of Moyles Court aforesaid, Esqrs. also deceased, His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may take and use the surname of Lisle, in lieu of that of Taylor, and that he and they may bear the arms of Lisle, quarterly in the first quarter, with his and their own family arms; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of no effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, September 30, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night between the 29th and 30th of June last, the buildings on a farm called Rodmead, in the parish of Maiden Bradley, in the county of Wilts, the property of his Grace the Duke of Somerset, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire; and that in the night of the 15th instant, the same premises were again set on fire, by which the only remaining barn, with a rick, containing a considerable quantity of wheat, were destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in either of the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said premises on fire), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

GEORGE CANNING.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid, on conviction, by his Grace the Duke of Somerset.

Whitehall, October 4, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Monday the 30th ultimo, or early on the following morning, some evil-disposed person or persons did wilfully and maliciously set fire to an outhouse or shed, and also to a rick of furze in a brick-field on an estate called Chellacotts, in the parish of Okehampton, in the county of Devon, the property of Albany Savile, Esq. whereby the same were burnt and destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them

(except the person who actually set fire to the said building and rick), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

GEORGE CANNING.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Albany Savile, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, October 4, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Wednesday the 25th ultimo, some evil-disposed person or persons did wilfully and maliciously set fire to the field barn, in that part of Northwold, in the county of Norfolk, called the Wents, belonging to H. S. Partridge, Esq. in the occupation of Mr. Thomas Pooley, by which the whole of the corn and hay in the barn and yard was entirely consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said premises on fire), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

GEORGE CANNING.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Thomas Pooley, and a further reward of FOUR HUNDRED POUNDS, raised by subscription in the neighbourhood, is also hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The first-mentioned reward of one hundred pounds, to be paid on conviction by the said Thomas Pooley; and the last-mentioned reward of four hundred pounds, to be paid by the Reverend George Waddington, of Northwold aforesaid.

Whitehall, October 5, 1822.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First, Second, and Third, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing
