TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1822.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 16th of September 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from Tuesday the eighth day of October next, to Tuesday the twenty-sixth day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of August 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and other places in America and the West Indies," it is enacted, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the schedule marked A, annexed to the said Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, that from and after the passing of this Order, all articles permitted by the said Act to be imported into and exported from the ports enumerated in schedule A annexed to the said Act, shall and may be in like manner imported into and exported from the port of Annotto Bay, in the island of Jamaica, on payment of the duties, and subject to the rules, regulations, penalties, and forfeitures enacted by the said Act: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville,

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of July 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should be suspended for the space of one year; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the date hereof, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia be suspended for the space of one year from the date of this Order.

Jas. Buller,

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 18th of May 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the fourteenth of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greyille.

Commission in the Norfolk Yeomanry Rangers, signed by His Majesty's Lieutenant of the County of Norfolk.

Lord James Nugent Boyle Bernardo Townshend to be Major-Commandant, vice Lord Charles Vere Townshend, resigned. Dated 21st September 1822.

Whitehall, October 12, 1822.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed George Hodgkinson, of Southwell, in the county of Nottingham, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, September 30, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night between the 29th and 30th of June last, the buildings on a farm called Rodmead, in the parish of Maiden Bradley, in the county of Wilts, the property of his Grace the Duke of Somerset, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire; and that, in the night of the 15th instant, the same premises were again set on fire, by which the only remaining barn, with a rick, containing a considerable quantity of wheat, were destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in either of the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon, to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said premises on fire), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

GEORGE CANNING.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid, on conviction, by his Grace the Duke of Somerset.

Whitehall, October 4, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Monday the 30th ultimo, or early on the following morning, some evil-disposed person or persons did wilfully and maliciously set fire to an outhouse or shed, and also to a rick of turze in a brick-field on an estate called Chellacotts, in the parish of Okehampton, in the county of Devon, the property of Albany Savile, Esq. whereby the same were burnt and destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them.

(except the person who actually set fire to the said building and rick), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

GEORGE CANNING.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Albany Savile, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, October 4, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Wednesday the 25th ultimo, some evil-disposed person or persons did wilfully and maliciously set fire to the field barn, in that part of Northwold, in the county of Norfolk, called the Wents, belonging to H. S. Partridge, Esq. in the occupation of Mr. Thomas Pooley, by which the whole of the corn and hay in the barn and yard was entirely consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said premises on fire); who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

GEORGE CANNING.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Thomas Pooley, and a further reward of FOUR HUNDRED POUNDS, raised by subscription in the neighbourhood, is also hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The first-mentioned reward of one hundred pounds, to be paid on conviction by the said Thomas Pooley; and the last-mentioned reward of four hundred pounds, to be paid by the Reverend George Waddington, of Northwold aforesaid.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws for the prevention of Smuggling," after reciting (among other things) that His late Majesty, by His Royal Proclamation, dated the first day of January 1801, was pleased, with the advice of His Privy Council, to order and appoint what ensign or colours should be borne at sea by merchant ships or vessels belonging to any of His Majesty's subjects, thereby charging and commanding all His Majesty's subjects whatsoever, that they should not presume to wear in any of their ships or vessels His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, nor any pendants nor any such colours as are usually worn by His Majesty's ships, without particular warrant for their so doing from His Majesty, or His High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral for the time being; it is enacted, that if any person or persons shall presume to hoist, carry, or wear, in or on board any ship or vessel, fishing-boat, or other vessel, or boat whatever, belonging to any of His Majesty's subjects, whether the same be merchant or otherwise, His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, or any pendant or colours such as are commonly worn by His Majesty's ships, or any Jack, flag, pendant or colours whatever made in imitation of or resembling those of His Majesty, or any kind of pendant whatever, without such warrant as aforesaid, or any other ensign or colours than the ensign or colours prescribed by the said Proclamation to be worn, the master or other person having charge of such ship, vessel or boat, or the owner or owners thereof being on board the same, and every other person so offending shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of £500, to be recovered with costs of suit as in the said Act is mentioned; and whereas His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, a Jack made in resemblance thereof, hath been the usual signal displayed and kept flying for pilots to come on board merchant ships and vessels on the coasts of this United Kingdom: we do therefore, by virtue of the power and authority so reposed in us, hereby warrant and empower every master or other person having the charge and command of any merchant ship or vessel to hoist and keep flying His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, or a Jack resembling the same, as a signal for a pilot whenever and so often as the same may be necessary.

Given under our hands this 16th day of September 1822.

J. OSBORN.

G. COCKBURN,

By command of their Lordships,
JOHN BARROW.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (B), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such black or Dantzic beer should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such black or Dantzic beer should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such black or Dantzic beer, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 15th day of June 1822,

N. VANSITTART.

NOTICE.

Whereas the Schooner Applecross, of Russels, in Scotland; Donald Carrigill, Master, on a voyage from Liverpool to Limerick, with a general cargo; was stranded near Dulas, in the County of Anglesey, in the month of March 18th, and was sold by auction by the Captain and Mr. James Harris, of Beaumaris, junior, as Agent for the Owners of the said Schooner, there being extreme necessity so to do; and whereas the late Owners thereof will not make a legal title to the said vessel, nor discharge the expences already incurred in saving the said wreck—therefore notice is hereby given to all those whom it may concern that unless the said wreck is redeemed, and all expences which the parties now in possession have been at in recovering and removing the said wreck to a place of safety, and all other fair and reasonable expences they have been put to paid, on or before the 1st day of November next, she will be taken to pieces and sold in lots to defray the same; and any person having any claim or demand upon the said vessel is requested to deliver the same to (if by letter, post paid) Mr. Robert Cayes, Solicitor, Gray's Inn, London, or Mr. George Bradley Rose, Solicitor, Millwall, Anglesey.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Hayton and Martin Douglas, of Sunderland near the Sea, in the County of Durham, Coal-Fitters, Dealers and Chapman and Copartners, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects on Wednesday the 28th day of October instant, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon, at the Bridge Inn, in Bishopwearmouth, in the said County of Durham; to finally determine as to allowing a claim made by certain persons to the household goods and furniture, plate, pictures, linen, books, and china of him the said Bankrupt William Hayton, or to the Assignees taking proper measures for the resisting such claim and proceeding to an immediate sale of the same household goods and furniture, plates, pictures, linen, books, and china; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Samuel Groom Hart, of Harwich, in the County of Essex, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Saturday the 19th day of October instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Three Cups Inn, at Harwich aforesaid, to examine the affairs of the said Bankrupt, and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling, by public auction or private contract, any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, and as to the employing all or any or either of the ships, vessels, and fishing smacks belonging to the said Bankrupt's estate and effects before the sale thereof, and as to indemnifying the Sheriff of Essex, in the event of his withdrawing the present execution on the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, against any action or proceeding that may be commenced against the said Sheriff by reason thereof, and to investigate the accounts of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Nicholson, of the Town of Kingston-upon-Hull, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 21st day of October instant, at Eleven in the Forenoon, at the Dock and Duck Tavern, in Seale Lane, in the Town of Kingston-upon-Hull, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting any action or suit at law or in equity against a person to be named at such meeting, for recovering a certain debt claimed to be due from such person to the estate of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding for or submitting such claim to arbitration; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Hedge, late of Star Court, Little Compton Street, Soho, in the County of Middlesex, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Thursday the 17th day of October instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said

Assignees selling, or completing, or employing such person or persons as they shall think proper to finish and complete a certain contract entered into by the said Bankrupt, for building a church at West Bromwich, in the County of Stafford, or abandoning such contract, or disposing of their interest therein, upon such terms and conditions and on such security as they may think advisable, or taking such other steps in regard to the same contract as they may deem best; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, by public auction or private contract and in such manner as they shall think best, all or any part of the freehold and leasehold estates and the stock in trade, household furniture, effects and other personal estate of the said Bankrupt, and giving such time and taking such security or securities for the purchase monies as the said Assignees may think proper; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees laying out and expending any sum or sums of money they may consider necessary for the purpose of finishing or completing any Buildings or work commenced and left incomplete by the said Bankrupt, and employing any person or persons they may think proper to complete the same, or to collect, get in, or dispose of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate, or to wind up and arrange or assist in winding up and arranging the said Bankrupt's affairs; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and discharging any salaries or wages due to the clerks, workmen or servants of the said Bankrupt, and making any allowance or compensation to any person or persons retained or employed in the affairs or concerns of the said Bankrupt's estate; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking any proceeding or proceedings for setting aside any execution or executions against the Bankrupt's effects; and commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or suit, actions or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery or defence of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing whatsoever relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

Whereas a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against William Clark, late of Maiden Lane, Covent-Garden (but now a prisoner in the King's Bench Prison), Soda-Water and Ginger-Beer-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt, is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major part of them, on the 19th instant, and on the 21 and 23rd days of November next, at Ten in the Forenoon on each day, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall Street, in the City of London, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and at the Second Sitting to choose Assignees, and at the last Sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his Examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his Certificate. All persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his Effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give notice to Messrs. Jones and Bland, Solicitors, Great Mary-le-Bone Street.

Whereas a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against Isaac Henley Handcomb, of Newport-Pagnell, in the County of Buckingham, Lace-Merchant, and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major part of them, on the 28th and 29th of October instant, and on the 26th of November next, at Eleven in the Forenoon on each day, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall Street, in the City of London, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and at the Second Sitting to choose Assignees, and at the last Sitting, the said Bankrupt is required to finish his Examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the Allowance of his Certificate. All persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his Effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give notice to Messrs. Jupp and Son, Solicitors, Carpenters-Hall, London-Wall, London.

Whereas a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against John Frost the elder, of Bridlington-Quay, in the County of York, Corn-Merchant, Dealer,
