or His High Admiral of Great Britain; or the Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral for the time being; it is enacted, that if any person or persons shall presume to hoist, carry, or wear, in or on board any ship or vessel, fishing-boat, or other vessel, or boat whatever, belonging to any of His Majesty's subjects, whether the same be merchant or otherwise, His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, or any pendant or colours such as are commonly worn by His Majesty's ships, or any Jack, flag, pendant or colours whatever made in imitation of or resembling those of His Majesty, or any kind of pendant whatever, without such warrant as aforesaid, or any other ensign or colours than the ensign or colours prescribed by the said Proclamation to be worn, the master or other person having charge of such ship, vessel or boat, or the owner or owners thereof being on board the same, and every other person so offending shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of £500. to be recovered with costs of suit as in the said Act is mentioned; and whereas His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, a Jack made in resemblance thereof, hath been the usual signal displayed and kept flying for pilots to come on board merchant ships and vessels on the coasts of this United Kingdom: we do therefore, by virtue of the power and authority so reposed in us, hereby warrant and empower every master or other person having the charge and command of any merchant ship or vessel to hoist and keep flying His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, or a Jack resembling the same, as a signal for a pilot whenever and so often as the same may be necessary.
