

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1822.

THE following Address, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Robert Peel, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the United Associate Synod of the Secession Church, in Synod assembled, beg leave to approach the Throne to express the high satisfaction which we felt, in common with all classes of our fellow subjects in this part of the United Kingdom, at your Majesty's late visit to Scotland.

To none did it afford more cordial gratification than to us, to have our country thus honoured by the presence of a King who protects all his subjects in the enjoyment of their civil and religious privileges. We cannot, and will not, forget the liberty which we, as a religious body, have long enjoyed under your Majesty's royal House.

We should have deemed ourselves happy in approaching the Throne, with the other classes of our countrymen, during your Majesty's visit to this part of the empire: but while from the want of sufficient time to assemble according to our constitutional forms, we were prevented from testifying our loyal attachment, we have now the additional satisfaction of expressing our gratitude to God for your Majesty's safe return to the capital of the United Kingdom.

We cannot suppress the pleasure which we feel in recollecting that our predecessors in the Ministry, and the people also among whom they and we have laboured, have ever been found strenuous asserters of the rightful claims of the illustrious House of Hanover. What our forefathers always were, we hope that we and our successors shall always be, faithful in preaching the pure Gospel, and in inculcating and exemplifying those loyal principles which are embodied in the standards of our Church, and according to which every one who enters into our communion is received.

May your Majesty continue to reign in the hearts of your subjects, and may He, "By whom Kings reign and Princes decree Justice," direct and bless all the acts of your Majesty's Government to the promoting of universal happiness and peace! And may your Majesty, after a long and happy life, be advanced, through the grace of God, and the mediation of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, to a Throne of Glory in the Kingdom of Heaven!

Signed, in our name, and by our appointment, at Edinburgh, this 13th day of September in the year of our Lord 1822.

John Brown, Moderator.

[Transmitted by Viscount Melville.]

Whitehall, October 16, 1822.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Denne Denne (heretofore Denne Hollingbery), of Elbridge-House, in the parish of Littleborne, in the county of Kent, Esq. His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he may continue to use the surname and bear the arms of Denne only, in compliance with the last will and testament of Henry Denne, late of Elbridge-House aforesaid, Gentleman, deceased: such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.