

Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville

Commissions signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Somerset.

North Somerset Yeomanry.

Richard Strachey, Esq. to be Captain. Dated 7th October 1822.

West Somerset Yeomanry.

Charles John Kemys-Tynte, Gent. to be Lieutenant. Dated 12th October 1822.

John Payne, Gent. to be Cornet. Dated as above.

Whitehall, October 21, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King, that, about ten o'clock on the night of Friday the 27th ultimo, a fire broke out at Hawkins-Hall, the property of Samuel Heathcote Unwin Heathcote, Esq. in the parish of Datchworth, in the county of Hertford, which entirely consumed the barns, stables, and out-buildings, together with sundry stacks, &c. and that there is every reason to believe that the same was wilfully and maliciously set on fire;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said premises on fire), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

GEORGE CANNING.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Unwin Heathcote, and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the Norwich Fire-Office is also hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The first-mentioned reward to be paid by U. Heathcote, Esq. of Shephalbury; and the last-mentioned reward to be paid by Mr. L. Franks, Agent to the Norwich Fire-Office.

Whitehall, November 1, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King, that, on the night of Thursday the 26th September last, some person or persons unknown did wilfully and maliciously set fire to and destroy three barns and a lin-hay, with a quantity of corn and implements of husbandry, on Brightley Farm, and two barns and a pound-house, with a quantity of cyder, &c. on Winson Farm, both in the parish of Chittlehampton, in the county of Devon, belonging to the Right Honourable Lord Rolle and his tenants;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by Lord Rolle, to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the article of

Black or Dantzic Beer, legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of
