In pursuance of authority received from His Honour the President of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice for the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, bearing date the 9th July 1822;

I, the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal of said United Colony, do hereby, in the name and behalf of Hugh McLeod, in his capacity as deliberating Executor to the last will and testament of Patrick MacIntyre, deceased, for himself and derato carens, for the other Executors, summon by writ, ad valias curie, all known and unknown creditors of the estate of said Patrick MacIntyre, deceased, to appear in person, or by proxy, before the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice for the said United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, at their Session, to be holden at the Court House, in George-Town, on the 9th day of December next and following days, in order to render their claims, properly attested and in due form; whereas in default of which, will be proceeded against the non-appearers according to law.—Demerary, the 23d July 1822.

J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.

Whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery in England, made in the matter of the Act to authorise the transferring stock upon which dividends shall remain unclaimed, for the space of at least ten years, at the Bank of England, and also all lottery prizes or benefits and balances of sums issued for paying the principals of stocks or annuities which shall not have been demanded for the same period, to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, it was referred to William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire who is or are beneficially entitled to the sum of 1650l. Three Pounds per Cent. Annuities Consolidated (now standing in the name of the Accountant-General of the said Court, in trust in the said matter), and the dividends thereon; and every part thereof, with direction that the said Master should cause such advertisements to be published in England and Scotland as he should think proper, for the annuitants and any other Creditors of the Governor and Company of Undertakers for raising Thames Water in York Buildings, to come in before him and prove their debts.

N. B. The said 1650l. Bank Three Pounds per Cent. Annuities were in the Year 1759 standing in the names of James Peachey, Alexander Bennett, and William Lock, in trust for, and to the use of, the annuitants for lives of the said York-Buildings Company, and to answer any expence which might be incurred by the Trustees in receiving the rents and profits of the Scotch forfeited estates, and paying the said annuities; and any persons beneficially entitled to the said 1650l. Bank Three Pounds per Cent. Annuities Consolidated, and the dividends thereon, or any part thereof, and any annuitants, or other creditors of the said Governor and Company of Undertakers for raising Thames Water in York-Buildings, are, in or before the 7th day of December 1822, to come in and make out their claims, and prove their debts, before the said Master Courtenay, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Osborne against Osborne, it is referred to James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire who is or are the Next of Kin of John Osborne, late of Melchet-Park, in the County of Wilts, Esq. deceased (who died on or about the 2d day of January 1821).—All persons claiming to be such next of kin are, on or before the 2d day of December 1822, to come in and prove such their kindred before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Whereas, by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 30th day of April 1822, made in two several causes, Cox against Tuckfield, and His Majesty's Attorney-General, and Cox against Lord de Dunstanville and His Majesty's Attorney General, it was referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state who was or were the heir or heirs at law of Thomas Atkins, named in a certain Indenture in the pleadings mentioned, bearing date the 15th day of February 1682, (and made soon after the marriage of the said Thomas Atkins with Catherine Green, the daughter of one John Green), such heir or heirs at law is or are forthwith to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out his, her, or their heirship, or in default thereof he, she, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 5th day of June 1822, made in a Cause wherein John Sudlow and others are plaintiffs, and Frances Thorold and others are defendants, the Creditors of the
