

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 18th of May 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the fourteenth of November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant May), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies; or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted); or in the West Indies; or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Commissions signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Lincoln.

Royal South Lincoln Militia.

Henry Dymoke, Esq. to be Major, vice King, resigned. Dated 2d November 1822.

Holland Yeomanry Cavalry.

Matthew Clark, Esq. to be Captain, vice Johnson, resigned. Dated 2d October 1822.

Whitehall, November 5, 1822.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Henry Fisher Sloane, of Rockbeare, in the county of Devon, Esq. only son and heir of William Sloane, late of the island of Tobago, Esq. deceased, by Ann his wife, who afterwards intermarried with Charles Bidgood, late of Rockbeare aforesaid, Esq. also deceased, His royal licence and authority, that he may (in compliance with a proviso contained in the last will and testament of the said Ann Bidgood, bearing date the 22d day of June 1819) assume and take upon himself the surname of Bidgood only, and also bear and use the arms of Bidgood; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect.

And His Majesty has been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, November 11, 1822.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Robert Weale, of Midhurst, in the county of Sussex, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, November 12, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of the 11th or morning of the 12th of October last, a house, possessed as an office by the Commercial Banking Company of Edinburgh, situated in the town of Dunkeld and county of Perth, was broke into, and upwards of £1800 in cash, and current bills amounting to about £3000, were carried off; His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED and FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Commercial Banking Company of Edinburgh, to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.
