SATURDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1822.

Downing-Street, November 27, 1822.

HIS Majesty having been pleased, by an Order in Council, bearing date the 25th day of July last, to direct, that there should be established within the Town of Castries, in the Island of Saint Lucia, an Office for the registration of all deeds and other instruments relating to any lands or other immoveable property situate within the said Colony, or to slaves resident within the same, to be called "The General Registry of Deeds for the Island of Saint Lucia;" public notification is hereby made, for the information of all non-resident proprietors, and others whom it may concern, of all matters and things required by and contained in the following clauses of the Order in Council before mentioned:

CLAUSES.

"And it is hereby further ordered, that all deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, or other instruments in writing, hereafter to be made and executed, whereby any lands, houses, buildings, or other immoveable property, situate within the said Colony of Saint Lucia, or whereby any slaves resident and being within the said Colony, or whereby any right or interest in or to any such lands, houses, buildings, immoveable property, or slaves, shall be conveyed, transferred, alienated, sold, mortgaged, charged, or in any wise whatsoever affected, or which shall in any manner relate to or concern any such lands, houses, buildings, immoveable property, or slaves, shall be acknowledged before the said Registrar, and by him recorded at length in his Office, in manner and form hereinafter mentioned."

"And it is hereby further ordered, that all such deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, and other instruments as aforesaid, shall be acknowledged, in manner hereinafter mentioned, before the said Registrar, at his Office, at the Town of Castries aforesaid, within one calendar month from and after the day on which the same may respectively have been executed, in those cases in which all the parties or the party executing the same, were or was, at the time of the execution thereof, resident within the said Colony of Saint Lucia; and within six calendar months from and after the day on which the same may respectively have been executed, in those cases in which all or any of the parties executing the same were or was, at the time of his, her, or their executing the same, resident within any other of His Majesty's Colonies in the West Indies or in South America; and within twelve calendar months from and after the day on which the same may respectively have been executed, in those cases in which all or any of the parties executing the same were or was, at the time of the execution thereof, resident in any other country or place."

"And it is hereby further ordered, that the said Registrar shall not record or accept for registration, any such deed, conveyance, transfer, written contract, or other instrument as aforesaid, unless all and every the persons executing the same shall, by themselves, or by their attorney or attorneys lawfully authorised in that behalf, in manner hereinafter mentioned, appear before him the said Registrar, and acknowledge such deed, conveyance, transfer, written contract, or other instrument, as and for his, her, or their act and deed."

"And it is hereby further ordered, that in case any such deed, conveyance, transfer, written contract, or other instrument, shall not be so acknowledged as aforesaid by all the parties thereto, in person, but shall by such parties, or some of them, be acknowledged by their, his, or her attorneys or attorney; the said Registrar shall not record any such document as aforesaid, or receive the same for registration, unless the person or persons acknowledging the same, as the attorney or attorneys of the parties thereto, or of any of them, shall be expressly authorised and empowered to make such acknowledgment on behalf of the persons for whom such acknowledgment is made, by some written power of attorney or authority contained in the body of such deed, conveyance, transfer, written contract, or other instrument, or indorsed thereupon or annexed thereto; and which written power of attorney or authority shall, by the said Registrar, be recorded as forming part of the document in which it is contained, or upon which it may be indorsed, or to which it may be annexed: provided also, that the acknowledgment of any absent person, by attorney, shall not be taken by the said Registrar, unless the execution by such absent person, of the said deed and power of attorney hath been duly proved, on oath, by a subscribing witness thereto, either before one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of Civil Justice in and for the said Colony, or before the Chief Magistrate of some city or corporate town or borough in Great Britain or Ireland, or before some resident Governor or Commander in Chief, for the time being, of some of His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations, or before some British Ambassador, Envoy, or Consul in some foreign state or country, and certified under the hand of the said Judge (if in the said Island of Saint Lucia), or under the corporate seal of the said city, town, or borough, or under the hand and seal of the said Governor or Commander in Chief, Ambassador, Envoy, or Consul."

"And it is hereby further ordered, that all deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, and other instruments which may have been made and executed at any time previously to the 30th day of May 1814, whereby or by virtue whereof any person or persons hath or have, or claims or claim to have any mortgage, hypothecation, lien, charge, or incumbrance upon any lands, houses, buildings, or other immoveable property, situate within the said Island of Saint Lucia, or upon any slaves resident within or belonging to that island; and also all deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, or other instruments which may have been made, signed, or executed at any time since the 30th day of May 1814, whereby any lands, houses, buildings, or other immoveable property, situate within the said Colony of Saint Lucia, or whereby any slaves resident and being within the said Colony, or whereby any right or interest in or to any such lands, houses, buildings, immoveable property, or slaves, may have been conveyed, transferred, alienated, sold, mortgaged, charged, or in anywise whatsoever affected, or which in any manner relate to or concern any such lands, houses, buildings, immoveable property, or slaves, shall also be acknowledged before the said Registrar, and by him recorded at length."

"Provided always, and it is hereby further ordered, that it shall not be necessary to make an acknowledgment before the said Registrar, in the manner hereinbefore mentioned, of the execution of such deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, and other instruments, which may have been heretofore made and executed, and which are hereby required to be recorded as aforesaid; but such last mentioned deeds and covenants, transfers, written contracts, and other instruments, shall be acknowledged before the said Registrar, in manner following, that is to say:—any public notary before whom the same may have been passed, if still living, and being within the said Island of Saint Lucia, shall, within the period of one month, from and after the publication of this order within the said Colony as hereinafter mentioned, appear before the said Registrar of Deeds, and acknowledge his notarial seal and signature subjoined or annexed to any such last mentioned deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, and other instruments; and the said Registrar shall thereupon accept such document for registration, and proceed to record the same; but in case any such notary public shall be dead or absent from the said Island of Saint Lucia, or in case any such last mentioned deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, or other instruments, shall not have been passed before a public notary, then and in every such case, the parties in possession of, or claiming any title to, or interest in any such last mentioned deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, or other instruments, shall, within twelve months from and after the publication of this order, deliver the same or cause the same to be delivered to the said Registrar, together with an affidavit or affidavits to be sworn and verified, in the manner hereinbefore particularly mentioned and described, stating, that the signature or signatures to any such deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, and other instruments set and subscribed, is or are of the proper hand and writing of the person or persons purporting and appearing to be the party or parties thereto; and such affidavit and delivery of the said deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, and other instruments to the said Registrar, shall, in that case, be deemed and taken to be equivalent to the acknowledgment thereof; and the said Registrar shall thereupon accept such documents for registration, and proceed to record the same accordingly."

AT the Court at Brighton, the 14th of November 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from Tuesday the twenty-sixth day of this instant November to Thursday the second day of January next.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 15th of November 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the eighteenth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gum-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant November; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant November), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such port or place on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to their may respectively ascertain.

Jas. Buller

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of August 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and other places in America and the West Indies," it is enacted, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the schedule marked A, annexed to the said Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, that from and after the passing of this Order, all articles permitted by the said Act to be imported into and exported from the ports enumerated in schedule A annexed to the said Act, shall and may be in like manner imported into and exported from the port of Annotto Bay, in the island of Jamaica, on payment of the duties, and subject to the rules, regulations, penalties, and forfeitures enacted by the said Act: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Whitehall, November 26, 1822

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the morning of Monday the 30th September last, Joseph Coulson, servant to Mr. Turner, of Newbald Wold, in the east riding of the county of York, was violently assaulted and beaten by three men, in the parish of Rowley, in the said county, and repeatedly stabbed with a knife, and robbed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually stabbed the said Joseph Coulson), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Mr. Turner, of Newbald Wold aforesaid, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences.

Whitehall, November 29, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Saturday the 2d instant, William Toomer, the Under-keeper of Broomy-Walk, in the New Forest, and his man, when in the discharge of their duty, were violently attacked by four men, armed with poles, and severely beaten;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the outrage above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplices therein, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. Thomas White, the Lord Warden's Steward, at the King's House, Lyndhurst.

Royal Harbour of Ramsgate, December 4, 1822.

AT a General Meeting of the Trustees for carrying into execution the several Acts of Parliament, respectively made in the thirty-second, thirty-seventh, and fifty-fifth years of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, relating to the Harbour of Ramsgate, held this day, in pursuance of a notice in the London Gazette, dated the 16th day of November now last past, for the purpose of taking into consideration the expediency of altering and varying the several rates or duties directed and authorised to be raised and levied by the said several Acts of Parliament, in respect to every ship, vessel, or crayer, British as well as foreign, whether the same be laden or in ballast, passing to or by Ramsgate, whether on the east or west side of the Goodwin Sands, or otherwise passing to or by the said Harbour of Ramsgate; at which Meeting fifteen or more of the said Trustees were present, and the Report from the Select Committee of the House of Commons on the Foreign Trade of the Country, made on the 23d day of July last, having, so far as the same relates to the Royal Harbour of Ramsgate, been read and taken into due consideration, and it having been fully considered how far the suggestions of the said Committee, with respect to the said Harbour, can, with due regard to the safety and maintenance of the said Harbour in a proper state and condition, and with regard also to the provisions of the several Acts of Parliament above referred to, be complied with;

It was resolved unanimously,

That the several rates and duties now existing and payable under or by virtue of the said Acts of Parliament, of the thirty-second and fifty-fifth years of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, shall be varied and altered; and that the following rates and duties shall be imposed and be payable by virtue of the said Acts (that is to say); two pence per ton to be paid by the masters or owners, for every ship, vessel, or crayer, British as well as foreign, of the burthen of 20 tons or upwards, and not exceeding the burthen of 300 tons; and for every ship, vessel, or crayer, British as well as foreign, which shall exceed the burthen of 300 tons, a rate or duty of one halfpenny for each ton of such ship, vessel, or crayer (except ships laden with coals, grindstones, Purbeck, Portland, or other stones); and for every chaldron of coals or ton of grindstones, Purbeck, Portland, or other stones, the rate of one penny; and that the said rates and duties shall be paid to the same persons, and in like manner, as the duties heretofore existing and payable under the same Acts of Parliament:

That the above resolutions take effect, and that the said rates and duties be diminished accordingly, and the reduced rates and duties be paid and payable, as to all British vessels, from and after the 1st day of January 1823, and as to all foreign vessels, from and after the same day, or as soon after the said 1st day of January 1823, as the countries or nations to which such foreign vessels shall belong, shall admit British vessels into their ports upon the same terms, with respect to port and harbour dues and rates, as their own vessels.

John Kirkpatrick, Secretary.
