Philip Charlton, Gent. to be Cornet, vice Eaton, promoted. Dated 30th October 1822.

Whitehall, November 26, 1822

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the morning of Monday the 30th September last, Joseph Coulson, servant to Mr. Turner, of Newbald Wold, in the east riding of the county of York, was violently assaulted and beaten by three men, in the parish of Rowley, in the said county, and repeatedly stabbed with a knife, and robbed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually stabbed the said Joseph Coulson), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Mr. Turner, of Newbald Wold aforesaid, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences.

Whitehall, November 29, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Saturday the 2d instant, William Toomer, the Under-keeper of Broomy-Walk, in the New Forest, and his man, when in the discharge of their duty, were violently attacked by four men, armed with poles, and severely beaten;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the outrage above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplices therein, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence — The said reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. Thomas White, the Lord Warden's Steward, at the King's House, Lyndhurst.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

WHEREAS by His late Majesty's Royal Proclamation, bearing date the 1st day of January 1801, and by divers Statutes now in force, His Majesty's subjects are prohibited from hoisting, carrying, or wearing in any of their ships or vessels, His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, or any pendants, or any such colours as are usually worn by His Majesty's ships, without particular warrant for their so doing from His Majesty, or His High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral for the time being:

And whereas it has been represented to us that the Union Jack hoisted at the top-mast head (or fore-top-mast head of vessels having more than one mast), is a general and well understood signal for a pilot, which it would be inexpedient at present to alter;

We do therefore, by virtue of the power and authority vested in us, hereby warrant and authorize all His Majesty's subjects to hoist the Union Jack at the top-mast-head of their ships or vessels where there is but one mast, or at the fore-top-mast-head where there are more than one mast, as a signal for a pilot; but strictly prohibiting the wearing or hoisting the said Jack for any other purpose whatsoever; or longer than is necessary for the procuring a pilot:

And whereas the proper flags, which by the said Proclamation the ships and vessels of His Majesty's subjects are authorized to wear, are not sufficient to enable them to make signals without the addition of some other colors;

We do further warrant and authorize all His Majesty's subjects to hoist on board their ships and vessels, by way of signal only; any colors (except pendants and the Union Jack); provided such colors shall not be hoisted in the place where similar colours are usually worn in His Majesty's ships and vessels:

And whereas it has been represented to us that certain signals have been heretofore established and agreed upon, and are now in use amongst His Majesty's subjects, wherein pendants and the Union Jack are employed; and that it would be inexpedient to prohibit the use of the said signals, until reasonable time for substituting some other description of colors in lieu of pendants and the Union Jack be allowed;

We do further warrant and authorize all His Majesty's subjects to hoist and use, for signals only, pendants and the Union Jack, until the 1st of January 1824 and no longer; upon and after which day no pendant is under any pretence whatsoever to be hoisted in the ships or vessels of any of His Majesty's subjects, nor the Union Jack, except only, as before provided, as the signal for a pilot.

Given under our hands and the seal of the Office of Admiralty, the 15th day of November 1822, MELVILLE.

That the above resolutions take effect, and that the said rates and duties be diminished accordingly, and the reduced rates and duties be paid and payable, as to all British vessels, from and after the 1st day of January 1823, and as to all foreign vessels, from and after the same day, or as soon after the said 1st day of January 1823, as the countries or nations to which such foreign vessels shall belong, shall admit British vessels into their ports upon the same terms, with respect to port and harbour dues and rates, as their own vessels.
