

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of August 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and other places in America and the West Indies," it is enacted, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the schedule marked A, annexed to the said Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, that from and after the passing of this Order, all articles permitted by the said Act to be imported into and exported from the ports enumerated in schedule A annexed to the said Act, shall and may be in like manner imported into and exported from the port of Annotto Bay, in the island of Jamaica, on payment of the duties, and subject to the rules, regulations, penalties, and forfeitures enacted by the said Act: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greyille.

Whitehall, December 9, 1822.

The King has been pleased to appoint the Reverend Archibald M'Airsh to the church and parish of Kildalton, in the presbytery of Kintyre and island of Islay, in the room of the Reverend Malcolm Gillies, deceased.

The King has also been pleased to appoint the Reverend Patrick Barty to the church and parish of Rathven, in the presbytery of Meigle and county of Forfar, in the room of the Reverend Patrick M'Laren, deceased.

Commission in the Shrewsbury Regiment of Yeomanry Cavalry, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Salop.

Philip Charlton, Gent. to be Cornet, vice Eaton, promoted. Dated 30th October 1822.

Whitehall, November 26, 1822

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the morning of Monday the 30th September last, Joseph Coulson, servant to Mr. Turner, of Newbald Wold, in the east riding of the county of York, was violently assaulted and beaten by three men, in the parish of Rowley, in the said county, and repeatedly stabbed with a knife, and robbed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually stabbed the said Joseph Coulson), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Mr. Turner, of Newbald Wold aforesaid, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences.

Whitehall, November 29, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Saturday the 2d instant, William Toomer, the Under-keeper of Broomy-Walk, in the New Forest, and his man, when in the discharge of their duty, were violently attacked by four men, armed with poles, and severely beaten;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the outrage above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplices therein, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the said offenders, so that they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence — The said reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. Thomas White, the Lord Warden's Steward, at the King's House, Lyndhurst.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

WHEREAS by His late Majesty's Royal Proclamation, bearing date the 1st day of January 1801, and by divers Statutes now in force, His Majesty's subjects are prohibited from hoisting, carrying, or wearing in any of their ships or vessels, His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, or any pendants, or any such colours as are usually worn by His Majesty's ships, without particular warrant for their so doing from His Majesty, or His High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral for the time being:
