VICE-CHANCELLOR.—Monday the 16th day of December, in the third year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, 1823, between Dyer Stead, Plaintiff; Thomas Legg and Joanna Lydia, his Wife, and Richard Harrison, Defendants.

Inasmuch as this Court was this present day informed, by Mr. Simpkinson, of Counsel for the plaintiff, that the plaintiff, on the 6th day of May last, exhibited his bill in this Court against the defendants, as by the Six Clerks' certificate now produced and read appears, and took out process of subpoena, requiring them to appear to and answer the same, but the defendant, Richard Harrison, hath not yet appeared to the said bill; that upon inquiry at the said defendant's usual place of abode he is not to be found, so as to be served with such process, and is going out of the realm, or hath absconded to avoid being served therewith, as by the affidavit of the plaintiff now read appears; and it also appears by the said affidavit, that the defendant, Richard Harrison has been in England within two years next before the issuing of the said subpoena. It is, thereupon, ordered, that the defendant,

Richard Harrison do appear to the plaintiff's bill on or before the 23d day of January next.
