MEMBER, returned to serve in this present

PARLIAMENT.

Shire of Ross.

Sir James Wemyss Mackenzie of Sealwell, Barr. in the room of Thomas Mackenzie, Esq. deceased.

Whitehall, December 30, 1822.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Samuel Haigh Ainley, of Delph in Saddleworth, in the county of York, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed John Crabb Stephens, of Maidstone, in the county of Kent, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 27, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Sunday the 15th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did pierce a number of augur holes in the bottom of the Brig Unity, then lying in the harbour of Dundee, loaded with a general cargo; His Majesty is therefore pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually pierced the said holes) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on application to the Director General of Customs at Dundee.

Whitehall, December 28, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on Sunday the 8th day of December instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did knowingly send a letter, without a name subscribed thereto, threatening to burn and destroy the out-houses and stacks of corn of Richard Burton, of Broadclist, in the county of Devon, yeoman, and of divers other persons in the said letter mentioned; and it hath been further humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Saturday the 14th day of December instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did wilfully and maliciously set fire to a rick, containing a considerable quantity of corn, the property of the said Richard Burton, situate near to the village of Broadclist aforesaid, whereby the said rick was burnt down and destroyed.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the above felonies, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the persons who actually sent the said letter or set the said rick on fire), who shall discover his or her accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said felonies, or either of them.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of

C A

ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the offender or offenders in the said last-mentioned felony, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Messrs. Jones and Carew, Solicitors, Exeter, on the conviction of the said offender or offenders.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

WHEREAS by His late Majesty's Royal Proclamation, bearing date the 1st day of January, 1801, and by divers Statutes now in force, His Majesty's subjects are prohibited from hoisting, carrying, or wearing in any of their ships or vessels, His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, or any pendants, or any such colours as are usually worn by His Majesty's ships, without particular warrant for their so doing from His Majesty, or His High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral for the time being:

And whereas it has been represented to us that the Union Jack hoisted at the top-mast head (or fore-top-mast head of vessels having more than one mast), is a general and well understood signal for a pilot, which it would be inexpedient at present to alter:

We do therefore, by virtue of the power and authority vested in us, hereby warrant and authorize all His Majesty's subjects to hoist the Union Jack at the top-mast-head of their ships or vessels where there is but one mast, or at the fore-top-mast-head where there are more than one mast, as a signal for a pilot; but strictly prohibiting the wearing or hoisting the said Jack for any other purpose whatsoever, or longer than is necessary for the procuring a pilot:

And whereas the proper flags, which by the said Proclamation the ships and vessels of His Majesty's subjects are authorized to wear, are not sufficient to enable them to make signals without the addition of some other colors;

We do further warrant and authorize all His Majesty's subjects to hoist on board their ships and vessels, by way of signal only, any colors (except pendants and the Union Jack), provided such colors shall not be hoisted in the place where similar colours are usually worn in His Majesty's ships and vessels:

And whereas it has been represented to us that certain signals have been heretofore established and agreed upon, and are now in use amongst His Majesty's subjects, wherein pendants and the Union Jack are employed, and that it would be inexpedient to prohibit the use of the said signals, until reasonable time for substituting some other description of colors in lieu of pendants and the Union Jack be allowed:

We do further warrant and authorize all His Majesty's subjects to hoist and use, for signals only, pendants and the Union Jack, until the 1st of January 1824, and no longer; upon and after which day no pendant is under any pretence whatsoever to be hoisted in the ships or vessels of any of His Majesty's subjects, nor the Union Jack, except only, as before provided, as the signal for a pilot.

Given under our hands and the seal of the Office of Admiralty, the 15th day of November 1822, MELVILLE.
WM. JOHNSTONE HOPE.

By command of their Lordships,
