

by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of August 1822.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and other places in America and the West Indies," it is enacted, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the schedule marked A, annexed to the said Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; His Majesty is therefore pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, that from and after the passing of this Order, all articles permitted by the said Act to be imported into and exported from the ports enumerated in schedule A annexed to the said Act, shall and may be in like manner imported into and exported from the port of Amstov-Bay, in the Island of Jamaica, on payment of the duties, and subject to the rules, regulations, penalties, and forfeitures enacted by the said Act: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

Crown-Office, December 31st 1822.

MEMBER, returned to serve in this present

PARLIAMENT.

Shire of Ross.

Sir James Wemyss Mackenzie of Sealwell, Bart. in the room of Thomas Mackenzie, Esq. deceased.

Whitehall, December 30, 1822.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Samuel Haigh Ainley, of Delph in Saddleworth, in the county of York, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed John Crabb Stephens, of Maidstone, in the county of Kent, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 27, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Sunday the 15th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did pierce a number of augur holes in the bottom of the Brig Unity, then lying in the harbour of Dundee, loaded with a general cargo; His Majesty is therefore pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually pierced the said holes) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on application to the Director General of the Customs at Dundee.

Whitehall, December 28, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on Sunday the 8th day of December instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did knowingly send a letter, without a name subscribed thereto, threatening to burn and destroy the out-houses and stacks of corn of Richard Burton, of Broadclist, in the county of Devon, yeoman, and of divers other persons in the said letter mentioned; and it hath been further humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Saturday the 14th day of December instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did wilfully and maliciously set fire to a rick, containing a considerable quantity of corn, the property of the said Richard Burton, situate near to the village of Broadclist aforesaid, whereby the said rick was burnt down and destroyed.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the above felonies, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the persons who actually sent the said letter or set the said rick on fire), who shall discover his or her accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said felonies, or either of them.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of
