SATURDAY, JANUARY 4, 1823.

By the KING.
A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the second day of January next; We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said second day of January next, to Tuesday the fourth day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said fourth day of February next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said fourth day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Brighton, the eleventh day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, and in the third year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 15th of November 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the eighteenth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant November; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant November), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such port or place on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Ja. Buller

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of August 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and other places in America and the West Indies," it is enacted, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the schedule marked A, annexed to the said Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, that from and after the passing of this Order, all articles permitted by the said Act to be imported into and exported from the ports enumerated in schedule A annexed to the said Act, shall and may be in like manner imported into and exported from the port of Annotto Bay, in the island of Jamaica, on payment of the duties, and subject to the rules, regulations, penalties, and forfeitures enacted by the said Act: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Downing-Street, November 27, 1822.

HIS Majesty having been pleased, by an Order in Council, bearing date the 25th day of July last, to direct, that there should be established within the Town of Castries, in the Island of Saint Lucia, an Office for the registration of all deeds and other instruments relating to any lands or other immoveable property situate within the said Colony, or to slaves resident within the same, to be called "The General Registry of Deeds for the Island of Saint Lucia;" public notification is hereby made, for the information of all non-resident proprietors, and others whom it may concern, of all matters and things required by and contained in the following clauses of the Order in Council before-mentioned:

CLAUSES.

"And it is hereby further ordered, that all deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, or other instruments in writing, hereafter to be made and executed, whereby any lands, houses, buildings, or other immoveable property, situate within the said Colony of Saint Lucia, or whereby any slaves resident and being within the said Colony, or whereby any right or interest in or to any such lands, houses, buildings, immoveable property, or slaves, shall be conveyed, transferred, alienated, sold, mortgaged, charged, or in any wise whatsoever affected, or which shall in any manner relate to or concern any such lands, houses, buildings, immoveable property, or slaves, shall be acknowledged before the said Registrar, and by him recorded at length in his Office, in manner and form hereinafter mentioned."

"And it is hereby further ordered, that all such deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, and other instruments as aforesaid, shall be acknowledged, in manner hereinafter mentioned, before the said Registrar, at his Office, at the Town of Castries aforesaid, within one calendar month from and after the day on which the same may respectively have been executed, in those cases in which all the parties or the party executing the same, were or was, at the time of the execution thereof, resident within the said Colony of Saint Lucia; and within six calendar months from and after the day on which the same may respectively have been executed, in those cases in which all or any of the parties, executing the same were or was, at the time of his, her, or their executing the same, resident within any other of His Majesty's Colonies in the West Indies or in South America; and within twelve calendar months from and after the day on which the same may respectively have been executed, in those cases in which all or any of the parties executing the same were or was, at the time of the execution thereof, resident in any other country or place."

"And it is hereby further ordered, that the said Registrar shall not record or accept for registration, any such deed, conveyance, transfer, written contract, or other instrument as aforesaid, unless all and every the persons executing the same shall, by themselves, or by their attorney or attorneys lawfully authorised in that behalf, in manner hereinafter mentioned, appear before him the said Registrar, and acknowledge such deed, conveyance, transfer, written contract, or other instrument, as and for his, her, or their act and deed."

"And it is hereby further ordered, that in case any such deed, conveyance, transfer, written contract, or other instrument, shall not be so acknowledged as aforesaid by all the parties thereto in person, but shall by such parties, or some of them, be acknowledged by their, his, or her attorney or attorney; the said Registrar shall not record any such document as aforesaid, or receive the same for registration, unless the person or persons acknowledging the same, as the attorney or attorneys of the parties thereto, or of any of them, shall be expressly authorised and empowered to make such acknowledgment on behalf of the persons for whom such acknowledgment is made, by some written power of attorney or authority contained in the body of such deed, conveyance, transfer, written contract, or other instrument, or indorsed thereupon or annexed thereto; and which written power of attorney or authority shall, by the said Registrar, be recorded as forming part of the document in which it is contained, or upon which it may be indorsed, or to which it may be annexed: provided also, that the acknowledgment of any absent person, by attorney, shall not be taken by the said Registrar, unless the execution by such absent person, of the said deed and power of attorney hath been duly proved, on oath, by a subscribing witness thereto, either before one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of Civil Justice in and for the said Colony, or before the Chief Magistrate of some city or corporate town or borough in Great Britain or Ireland, or before some resident Governor or Commander in Chief, for the time being, of some of His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations, or before some British Ambassador, Envoy, or Consul in some foreign state or country, and certified under the hand of the said Judge (if in the said Island of Saint Lucia), or under the corporate seal of the said city, town, or borough, or under the hand and seal of the said Governor or Commander in Chief, Ambassador, Envoy, or Consul."

"And it is hereby further ordered, that all deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, and other instruments which may have been made and executed at any time previously to the 30th day of May 1814, whereby or by virtue whereof any person or persons hath or have, or claims or claim to have any mortgage, hypothecation, lien, charge, or incumbrance upon any lands, houses, buildings, or other immoveable property, situate within the said Island of Saint Lucia, or upon any slaves resident within or belonging to that island; and also all deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, or other instruments which may have been made, signed, or executed at any time since the 30th day of May 1814, whereby any lands, houses, buildings, or other immoveable property, situate within the said Colony of Saint Lucia, or whereby any slaves resident and being within the said Colony, or whereby any right or interest in or to any such lands, houses, buildings, immoveable property, or slaves, may have been conveyed, transferred, alienated, sold, mortgaged, charged, or in anywise whatsoever affected, or which in any manner relate to or concern any such lands, houses, buildings, immoveable property, or slaves, shall also be acknowledged before the said Registrar, and by him recorded at length."

"Provided always, and it is hereby further ordered, that it shall not be necessary to make an acknowledgment before the said Registrar, in the manner hereinbefore mentioned, of the execution of such deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, and other instruments, which may have been heretofore made and executed, and which are hereby required to be recorded as aforesaid; but such last mentioned deeds and covenants, transfers, and other instruments, shall be acknowledged before the said Registrar, in manner following, that is to say:—any public notary before whom the same may have been passed, if still living, and being within the said Island of Saint Lucia, shall, within the period of one month, from and after the publication of this order within the said Colony as hereinafter mentioned, appear before the said Registrar of Deeds, and acknowledge his notarial seal and signature subjoined or annexed to any such last mentioned deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, and other instruments; and the said Registrar shall thereupon accept such document for registration, and proceed to record the same; but in case any such notary public shall be dead or absent from the said Island of Saint Lucia, or in case any such last mentioned deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, or other instruments, shall not have been passed before a public notary, then and in every such case, the parties in possession of, or claiming any title to, or interest in any such last mentioned deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, or other instruments, shall, within twelve months from and after the publication of this order, deliver the same or cause the same to be delivered to the said Registrar, together with an affidavit or affidavits to be sworn and verified, in the manner hereinbefore particularly mentioned and described, stating, that the signature or signatures to any such deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, and other instruments set and subscribed, is or are of the proper hand writing of the person or persons purporting and appearing to be the party or parties thereto; and such affidavit and delivery of the said deeds, conveyances, transfers, written contracts, and other instruments to the said Registrar, shall, in that case, be deemed and taken to be equivalent to the acknowledgment thereof; and the said Registrar shall thereupon accept such documents for registration, and proceed to record the same accordingly."

IN pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts, made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorises the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament in the manner therein mentioned; and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes:"

I do hereby give notice, that the death of Hans Hamilton, Esq. late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the county of Dublin, hath been certified to me in writing, under the bands of two Members serving in this present Parliament; and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said county of Dublin, at the end of fourteen days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand, the 2d day of January 1823,

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.

Whitehall, December 27, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Sunday the 15th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did pierce a number of augur holes in the bottom of the brig Unity, then lying in the harbour of Dundee, loaded with a general cargo;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually pierced the said holes), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on application to the Procurator Fiscal of Dundee.

Whitehall, December 28, 1822.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on Sunday the 8th day of December instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did knowingly send a letter, without a name subscribed thereto, threatening to burn and destroy the out-houses and stacks of corn of Richard Burton, of Broadcliff, in the county of Devon, yeoman, and of divers other persons in the said letter mentioned; and it hath been further humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Saturday the 14th day of December instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did wilfully and maliciously set fire to a rick, containing a considerable quantity of corn, the property of the said Richard Burton, situate near to the village of Broadclist aforesaid, whereby the said rick was burnt down and destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the above felonies, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the persons who actually sent the said letter or set the said rick on fire), who shall discover his or her accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said felonies, or either of them.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the offender or offenders in the said last-mentioned felony, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Messrs. Jones and Carew, Solicitors, Exeter, on the conviction of the said offender or offenders.

Whitehall, January 3, 1823.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the morning of Sunday the 22d ultimo, an attempt was made, by some persons unknown, feloniously to break into the dwelling-house of Mr. James Smith, near Dartmouth-row, Blackheath, in the county of Kent; and that the said James Smith, upon opening a window adjoining his bed-room, was fired at and wounded by one of the said persons, of which wound the said James Smith died on the 29th ultimo;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the outrage above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually wounded the said James Smith), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz. ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the family of the deceased James Smith, ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the Blackheath Association, and ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the parish of Lewisham.

DANISH LOAN FOR £3,000,000.

THE first half-yearly redemption having, according to the terms of the general bond for the above Loan, signed by His Majesty the King of Denmark, become due on the 31st ult.; notice is hereby given, that, on the 30th ult. Mr. Clauswitz, Charge d'Affaires of His Majesty the King of Denmark to the Court of Great Britain, jointly with Messrs. B. A. Goldschmidt and Co. and in the presence of Mr. John Newton, Notary Public, cancelled and deposited in the Bank of England, according to the form prescribed in the said bond, 260 special bonds, amounting to 420,000 marks banco, or £30,000, the numbers of which are as follow, viz.

Army Pay-Office, Whitehall, January 1, 1823.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the under-mentioned services will be in course of payment on Wednesday the 15th instant, between the hours of eleven and two o'clock, viz.

- Unattached Pay of General Officers.
- Military Pensions to Wounded Officers.
- Widows' Pensions.
- Royal Bounty.
- Retired, Full, and Half-Pay*.
- Pay of Adjutants of Local Militia.

By order of the Paymaster-General,
Wm. Jones, Cashier.

* The new forms of affidavits for "Retired, Full, and Half-Pay," which will be required by His Majesty's Warrant, for periods subsequent to 24th March 1823, are now ready for delivery.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, pursuant to an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the 35th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for dividing and inclosing the open and common fields, meadows, lands, commons, and commonable places within the parish of Great Catworth, in the counties of Huntingdon and Northampton," I, the Reverend Thomas Evanson, Rector of the rectory and parish church of Great Catworth aforesaid, do intend to apply at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to be held in and for the county of Huntingdon, in the week succeeding the Feast of the Epiphany, which will be in the year of our Lord 1823, to have two persons named and appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third person, to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for ascertaining, by the means in the said Act mentioned, the average price of a Winchester bushel of wheat in the county of Huntingdon, for the term of twenty-one years last past, in order that the said arbitrators or referees, or the major part of them, shall, by their report, to be made and delivered to the Court of Quarter Sessions, to be held in the first week after the Translation of Saint Thomas the Martyr then next ensuing, set forth such average price as aforesaid, to the end that in case it shall, by such report, appear that such average price of a bushel of wheat is more than the average price thereof set forth in the award made under the said Act, by the value of three pence or upwards, then, and in such case, the yearly rent, payable to the said Rector, in lieu of tithes, may be increased in proportion, and that the exact amount of the yearly rent or sum, to which the same shall be so increased, shall be declared by order of the said Court, conformably with the directions of the said Act; and that I, the said Rector, will take all the necessary and proper steps in that behalf.—Dated this 31st day of December 1822. Thomas Evanson.

Navy-Office, December 30, 1822.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that, on Friday the 24th of January next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner Shield will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Yard at Plymouth, several lots of

Old Stores,

Consisting of old Rope, Shakings, Junk, Bolt-rope and Canvas, Wrought and Cast Iron, and sundry articles of Slop and Marine Clothing, all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Commissioner of the Yard for a note of admission for that purpose.

Catálogos and conditions of sale may be had here, and at the Yard. G. Smith.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, September 7, 1822.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give notice, that, on Saturday the 15th day of March next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undermentioned farm will be let on lease, for the term of nineteen years, to commence upon the 12th day of May next, that is to say, Scremerston Inland Pasture Farm, in the chapelry of Ancroft, in the parish of Holy Island and county palatine of Durham.

Such persons as may be desirous of taking the said farm, are requested to deliver or send their proposals, in writing, to Edward Hawke Locker, Esq. at Greenwich-Hospital, so as that the delivery thereof at that place shall not be later than on Friday the 14th day of March next; and all such proposals as shall be received after that day, will be returned as inadmissible.

Mr. Nicholas Weatherly, of Belford, will shew the farm; and Messrs. Wailes and Brandling, upon being applied to at their Office in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, will give any further particulars which it may be necessary to require.

The late John Linnell's Creditors.

THE Creditors of Mr. John Linnell, late of Silston, near Towcester, in the County of Northampton, Victualler, deceased, are requested to meet the surviving Devisee and Executor named in his last will, at the Talbot Inn, in Towcester on Wednesday the 15th day of January instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, for the purpose of inspecting the Executors' accounts, which will then be laid before them, and directing what shall be done as to the purchasers of some parts of the real estate of the deceased who have not completed their purchase; and as to several claims made upon the estate which it has been thought proper not to allow; and also to assent to or dissent from the surviving Devisee and Executor commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, to compel the performance of the contract or contracts of such purchaser or purchasers; and for the recovery of any part of the said deceased's effects; or defending the same against such claim or claims; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors of Charles Seares, late of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Woollen Draper, (who hath lately departed this life intestate,) are requested to attend a general meeting of Creditors upon the estate of the said Charles Seares, at the Office of Messrs. Frodsham and Taylor, Solicitors, King-Street, within Liverpool aforesaid, on Thursday the 9th day of January instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, for the purpose of consulting upon and determining the measures most expedient to be adopted for securing to the Creditors generally a fair and equal distribution of the effects of the deceased; and also upon other matters connected with the interests of the Creditors.

VALUABLE PROPERTY, AT PORTSMOUTH.

TO be sold by public auction, by Mr. Garnett, at the Mitre Tavern, in the Town of Portsea, on Saturday the 11th day of January instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, by order of and before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against Joseph Holmes, now or late of Portsmouth, in the County of Southampton, Corn and Coal-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, subject to such conditions as will be then and there produced, the following freehold and leasehold property;

Lot 1. A moiety or half-part of and in a freehold public-house, known by the name or sign of the Vine, situate on the West side of Lombard-Street, in Portsmouth, now in the occupation of Mr. Elliott, tenant at will; also a moiety of and in a freehold storehouse or wine vault on the West side of Lombard-Street aforesaid, let on lease to His Majesty's Commissioners of Excise for a term of which nine months are unexpired from the 21st of December 1822, at a rent of 35l. per annum; and also a moiety of and in a large and capacious freehold storehouse and the yard thereunto belonging, situate on the West side of Lombard-Street aforesaid, at present untenanted.

Lot 2. One third part or share of and in the following leasehold property, a messuage or tenement and coal-yard, situate in East-Street, on the Point of Portsmouth aforesaid, in the occupation of James Chase; a large storehouse or warehouse adjoining, in the occupation of Daniel Woods; and a messuage or tenement also adjoining, in the occupation of Mark Morgan; together with a road or way of eight feet in width, leading from East-Street aforesaid, for horses, carts, and carriages to go into and from the said messuages and coal-yard and premises.

The property comprised in lot 2 is held under three leases granted by the Corporation of the Borough of Portsmouth, of which 835 years, 829 years, and 900 years respectively or thereabouts are unexpired, subject to the annual payment of an apportioned ground rent of 5s.

For other particulars apply to Mr. Samuel Greetham, Solicitor, Portsmouth, or Messrs. Osbaldeston and Murray, Solicitors, London-Street, London.

Freehold Estate, in the Wicker, in Sheffield,

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. T. N. Bardwell, at the Angel Inn, in Sheffield, in the County of York, on Monday the 13th day of January instant, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon (subject to conditions), pursuant to an order, dated the 24th day of December last, made by the major part of the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against John Curwen, of Great East Cheap, in the City of London, Tea-Broker, Dealer and Chapman (surviving Partner of Robert Webster, late of the same place, Tea-Broker, Dealer and Chapman),

Two substantial and commodious dwelling-houses, fronting the Wicker, in Sheffield, one of which is in the occupation of Mr. Thomas Wheatcroft, and the other (which was lately in the occupation of Mr. Thomas Fisher), is now untenanted, with the yard, stable, sheds, &c. belonging thereto, rendered very valuable by their contiguity to the Market for Cattle. The ground plot of the whole of which contains 573 superficial yards or thereabouts.

Further particulars may be had of the Auctioneer, and at the Offices of Messrs. Parker and Brown, and Mr. Wade, Solicitors, in Sheffield, and Messrs. Osbaldeston and Murray, Solicitors, London-Street, London.
