TUESDAY, JANUARY 28, 1823.

By the KING.
A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the second day of January next; We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said second day of January next, to Tuesday the fourth day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said fourth day of February next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said fourth day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Brighton, the eleventh day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, and in the third year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 15th of November 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the eighteenth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant November; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant November), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such port or place on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of August 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and other places in America and the West Indies," it is enacted, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the schedule marked A, annexed to the said Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, that from and after the passing of this Order, all articles permitted by the said Act to be imported into and exported from the ports enumerated in schedule A annexed to the said Act, shall and may be in like manner imported into and exported from the port of Annotto Bay, in the island of Jamaica, on payment of the duties, and subject to the rules, regulations, penalties, and forfeitures enacted by the said Act: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, January 21, 1823.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King, that, about eleven o'clock in the night of Sunday the 12th instant; some evil-disposed person or persons did wilfully and maliciously discharge a gun or pistol, loaded with shot, into the parlour window of the house of the Reverend William Cobbold, Vicar of Selborne, in the county of Hants, with intent to do him some bodily harm;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the outrage above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun or pistol), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said William Cobbold, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, January 24, 1823.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that some evil-disposed person or persons did, on the night of Thursday the 26th, or early on the morning of Friday the 27th of December last, wilfully set on fire two rows of open stacks, consisting of wheat and oats, the property of Joshua Houlden, situate in the West Fen, in the parish of Revesby, in the county of Lincoln;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said stacks on fire), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Joshua Houlden, and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED and SEVENTY-FIVE POUNDS by the inhabitants of Revesby and its neighbourhood, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 21st day of January 1823, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for completing a bridge across the River Thames, from Blackfriars, in the City of London, to the opposite side, in the County of Surrey; and for other purposes therein mentioned; and of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-second year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the Fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars Bridge," I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and two o'clock in the afternoon, on the 21st day of July next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 21st day of July next ensuing, upon the undermentioned bonds, being part of the sum of £156,000, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Act of 7 Geo. 3, under the common seal of this City, and made payable to William Montague, his executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same; and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine. And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 21st day of July, and will severally declare such their intention, in writing under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, ten days previously to the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same (the usual holidays of the said Office excepted), I will, on the day expressed in such declaration, at my said Office, pay to the several persons the principal sums respectively due to them in discharge of the said bonds, together with all interest as shall on the day specified in such declaration for the payment thereof have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine, viz.

Fifty-seven bonds, of one hundred pounds each, numbered 1462 to 1518, both inclusive.

Richard Clark, Chamberlain.
