TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1823.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 15th of November 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the eighteenth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant November; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant November), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such port or place on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy

Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jus. Buller.

The King has been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, granting to the Right Honourable Frederick John Robinson the offices of Chancellor and Under Treasurer of His Majesty's Exchequer.

The King has also been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the Great Seal of the said United Kingdom, granting to the Right Honourable William Huskisson the office of Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy.

Whitehall, February 4, 1823.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Henry Harrison, of Northallerton, in the county of York, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, January 21, 1823

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King, that, about eleven o'clock in the night of Sunday the 12th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did wilfully and maliciously discharge a gun or pistol, loaded with shot, into the parlour window of the house of the Reverend William Cobbold, Vicar of Selborne, in the county of Hants, with intent to do him some bodily harm;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the outrage above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun or pistol), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said William Cobbold, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, January 24, 1823.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that some evil-disposed person or persons did, on the night of Thursday the 26th, or early on the morning of Friday the 27th of December last, wilfully set on fire two rows of corn stacks, consisting of wheat and oats, the property of Joshua Houlden, situate in the West Fen, in the parish of Revesby, in the county of Lincoln;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said stacks on fire), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Joshua Houlden, and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED and SEVENTY-FIVE POUNDS by the inhabitants of Revesby and its neighbourhood, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c

WHEREAS by His late Majesty's Royal Proclamation, bearing date the 1st day of January 1801, and by divers Statutes now in force, His Majesty's subjects are prohibited from hoisting, carrying, or wearing in any of their ships or vessels, His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, or any pendants, or any such colours as are usually worn by His Majesty's ships, without particular warrant for their so doing from His Majesty, or His High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral for the time being;

And whereas it has been represented to us that the Union Jack hoisted at the top-mast head (or fore-top-mast head of vessels having more than one mast), is a general and well understood signal for a pilot, which it would be inexpedient at present to alter:

We do therefore, by virtue of the power and authority vested in us, hereby warrant and authorize all His Majesty's subjects to hoist the Union Jack at the top-mast-head of their ships or vessels where there is but one mast, or at the fore-top-mast-head where there are more than one mast, as a signal for a pilot; but strictly prohibiting the wearing or hoisting the said Jack for any other purpose whatsoever, or longer than is necessary for the procuring a pilot:

And whereas the proper flags, which by the said Proclamation the ships and vessels of His Majesty's subjects are authorized to wear, are not sufficient to enable them to make signals without the addition of some other colors;

We do further warrant and authorize all His Majesty's subjects to hoist on board their ships and vessels, by way of signal only, any colors (except pendants and the Union Jack), provided such colors shall not be hoisted in the place where similar colours are usually worn in His Majesty's ships and vessels:

And whereas it has been represented to us that certain signals have been heretofore established and agreed upon, and are now in use amongst His Majesty's subjects, wherein pendants and the Union Jack are employed, and that it would be inexpedient to prohibit the use of the said signals, until reasonable time for substituting some other description of colors in lieu of pendants and the Union Jack be allowed;

We do further warrant and authorize all His Majesty's subjects to hoist and use, for signals only, pendants and the Union Jack, until the 1st of January 1824 and no longer; upon and after which day no pendant is under any pretence whatsoever to be hoisted in the ships or vessels of any of His Majesty's subjects, nor the Union Jack, except only, as before provided, as the signal for a pilot.

Given under our hands and the seal of the Office of Admiralty, the 15th day of November 1822,

MELVILLE.

WM. JOHNSTONE HOPE.

By command of their Lordships,

J. W. CROKER.

HEYGATE, Mayor.

A Common Council holden in the Chamber of the Guildhall of the City of London, on Wednesday the 29th day of January 1823.

THE Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, do hereby, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the forty-seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, intituled "An Act for repealing the several Acts for regulating the vend and delivery of coals within the cities of London and Westminster, and liberties thereof, and in certain parts of the counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Kent, and Essex, and for making better provision for the same," give notice of their intention to pay off the several annuities granted in respect of the sum of £3000, part of £39,000, raised under and by virtue of a certain Act of Parliament, made in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, intituled "An Act for establishing a free market in the city of London for the sale of coals, and for preventing frauds and impositions in the vend and delivery of all coals brought into the port of London, within certain places therein mentioned," to the person or persons to whom the same may respectively belong, on the 29th day of July next; and that the person or persons entitled thereto may then receive the same, at the Office of the Chamberlain of the said City for the time being, in the Guildhall of the same City; at which time the annuity or annuities payable to such person or persons respectively shall cease and determine, viz.

Thirty bonds of £100 each, numbered 161 to 190, both inclusive. Woodthorpe.

CONTRACTS FOR BEECH PILES AND CANADA YELLOW PINE TIMBER.

Navy-Office, January 23, 1823.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 6th of February next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Yard at Sheerness with 4600 Beech Piles, from 25 to 30 feet in length, and from 11½ to 13 inches diameter in the middle.

650 loads of Canada Yellow Pine Timber, in lengths of 30, 40, and 46 feet each, and from 12 to 13 inches square.

One half of the above Piles and Timber to be delivered by 15th April next, and the remainder by 30th June next.

Forms of the tenders may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £1000, for the due performance of the contract for beech piles, and £200, for the performance of the contract for yellow pine timber. G. Smith.
