SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1823.

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Tuesday, February 4, 1823.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded by His Majesty to inform you, that since He last met you in Parliament His Majesty's efforts have been unremittingly exerted to preserve the peace of Europe.

Faithful to the principles which His Majesty has promulgated to the world, as constituting the rule of His conduct, His Majesty declined being party to any proceedings at Verona, which could be deemed an interference in the internal concerns of Spain, on the part of Foreign Powers; and His Majesty has since used, and continues to use, His most anxious endeavours and good offices to allay the irritation unhappily subsisting between the French and Spanish Governments, and to avert, if possible, the calamity of war between France and Spain.

In the East of Europe, His Majesty flatters Himself that peace will be preserved; and His Majesty continues to receive from His Allies, and generally from other Powers, assurances of their unaltered disposition to cultivate with His Majesty those friendly relations which it is equally His Majesty's object on His part to maintain.

We are further commanded to apprise you, that discussions having long been pending with the Court of Madrid, respecting depredations committed on the commerce of His Majesty's subjects, in the West Indian Seas, and other grievances, of which

His Majesty had been under the necessity of complaining, those discussions have terminated in an admission by the Spanish Government of the justice of His Majesty's complaints, and in an engagement for satisfactory reparation.

We are commanded to assure you, that His Majesty has not been unmindful of the Addresses presented to Him by the two Houses of Parliament with respect to the Foreign Slave Trade. Propositions for the more effectual suppression of that evil were brought forward by His Majesty's Plenipotentiary in the Conferences at Verona; and were have been added to the Treaties upon this subject already concluded between His Majesty and the Governments of Spain and the Netherlands, articles which will extend the operation of those Treaties, and greatly facilitate their execution.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

His Majesty has directed the estimates of the current year to be laid before you. They have been framed with every attention to economy; and the total expenditure will be found to be materially below that of last year.

This diminution of charge, combined with the progressive improvement of the Revenue, has produced a surplus exceeding His Majesty's expectation; His Majesty trusts, therefore, that you will be able, after providing for the services of the year, and without affecting public credit, to make a further considerable reduction in the burthen of His people, even in the year 1823, etc.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

His Majesty has commanded us to state to you, that the manifestations of loyalty and attachment to His Person and Government, which His Majesty received in His late visit to Scotland, have made the deepest impression upon His heart.

The provision which you made in the last session of Parliament for the relief of the distresses in considerable districts in Ireland, has been productive of the happiest effects; and His Majesty recommends to your consideration, such measures of internal regulation as may be calculated to promote and secure the tranquillity of that country, and to improve the habits and condition of the people.

Deeply as His Majesty regrets the continued depression of the agricultural interest, the satisfaction with which His Majesty contemplates the increasing activity which pervades the manufacturing districts, and the flourishing condition of our commerce in most of its principal branches, is greatly enhanced by the confident persuasion that the progressive prosperity of so many of the interests of the country can not fail to contribute to the gradual improvement of that great interest, which is the most important of them all.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 15th of November 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the eighteenth of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant November; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant November), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammution, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such port or place on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition," and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Butler.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of August 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and other places in America and the West Indies," it is enacted, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the schedule marked A, annexed to the said Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, that from and after the passing of this Order, all articles permitted by the said Act to be imported into and exported from the ports enumerated in schedule A annexed to the said Act, shall and may be in like manner imported into and exported from the port of Annotto Bay, in the island of Jamaica, on payment of the duties, and subject to the rules, regulations, penalties, and forfeitures enacted by the said Act: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Court of King's-Bench, February 4, 1823.

THE following Warrant, under the King's Sign Manual, having been issued under the authority of the Statute 3 George IVth, cap. 102, was this day openly and publicly notified and declared in this Court, in pursuance of the said Statute, viz.

Warrant authorizing the Judges to hold a special Court at Carlton-House, Sitting.

GEORGE, R.

"Whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament Holden in the third year of Our reign, intituled "An Act to repeal an Act, of the first and second year of His present Majesty, for facilitating the dispatch of business in the Court of King's-Bench, and to make further provisions in lieu thereof," it is, among other things, enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for Us, Our heirs and successors, and We and They are thereby authorized from time to time as to Us or Them shall seem meet, by Warrant under Our or Their Sign Manual, directed to the Judges of Our said Court, to direct and require the Judges of Our said Court, or any two or more of them, to meet at Serjeants-Inn-Hall, Westminster-Hall, or some other convenient place to be by them appointed, on such and so many days in the vacation or interval between any Terms as to Us, Our heirs and successors, shall seem fit and proper, for the dispatch of such matters as at the end of the Term mentioned in such Warrant may be depending in Our said Court, whether on the Crown or Plea side thereof; and whereas We have been given to understand, that numerous matters are now depending in Our said Court, which can not be dispatched during this present Hilary Term, and which ought to be dispatched with all convenient speed; now, therefore, We do hereby, in pursuance of the said Act, direct and require you the Lord Chief Justice and other Judges of Our said Court before Us, or any two or more of you, to meet at Serjeants-Inn-Hall, Westminster-Hall, or some other convenient place to be by you appointed according to the said Act, on the day next after the end of this present Hilary Term, and from thence daily until the first day of March next, for the dispatch of such matters as may be depending in Our said Court at the end of this present Hilary Term, whether on the Crown or Plea side thereof.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the first day of February one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, in the fourth year of Our reign.

By His Majesty's command,

R. PEEL.

To the Lord Chief Justice and other the Judges of Our Court before Us.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

WHEREAS by His late Majesty's Royal Proclamation, bearing date the 1st day of January 1801, and by divers Statutes now in force, His Majesty's subjects are prohibited from hoisting, carrying, or wearing in any of their ships or vessels, His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, or any pendants, or any such colours as are usually worn by His Majesty's ships, without particular warrant for their so doing from His Majesty, or His High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral for the time being:

And whereas it has been represented to us that the Union Jack hoisted at the top-mast head (or fore-top-mast head of vessels having more than one mast), is a general and well understood signal for a pilot, which it would be inexpedient at present to alter:

We do therefore, by virtue of the power and authority vested in us, hereby warrant and authorize all His Majesty's subjects to hoist the Union Jack at the top-mast-head of their ships or vessels where there is but one mast, or at the fore-top-mast-head where there are more than one mast, as a signal for a pilot; but strictly prohibiting the wearing or hoisting the said Jack for any other purpose whatsoever, or longer than is necessary for the procuring a pilot:

And whereas the proper flags, which by the said Proclamation the ships and vessels of His Majesty's subjects are authorized to wear, are not sufficient to enable them to make signals without the addition of some other colors;

We do further warrant and authorize all His Majesty's subjects to hoist on board their ships and vessels, by way of signal only, any colors (except pendants and the Union Jack), provided such colors shall not be hoisted in the place where similar colours are usually worn in His Majesty's ships and vessels:

And whereas it has been represented to us that certain signals have been heretofore established and agreed upon, and are now in use amongst His Majesty's subjects, wherein pendants and the Union Jack are employed, and that it would be inexpedient to prohibit the use of the said signals, until reasonable time for substituting some other description of colors in lieu of pendants and the Union Jack be allowed;

We do further warrant and authorize all His Majesty's subjects to hoist and use, for signals only, pendants and the Union Jack, until the 1st of January 1824 and no longer; upon and after which day no pendant is under any pretence whatsoever to be hoisted in the ships or vessels of any of His Majesty's subjects, nor the Union Jack, except only, as before provided, as the signal for a pilot.

Given under our hands and the seal of the Office of Admiralty, the 15th day of November 1822,

MELVILLE

WM JOHNSTONE HOPE.

In the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Creditors mentioned in the schedules of George Fitch and Robert Cort, late of No. 45, Cow-Cross-Street, West Smithfield, in the County of Middlesex, Curriers and Leather-Cutters, who were discharged from the custody of the Warden of the Fleet Prison, pursuant to an order of the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, on the 25th day of October 1821, to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Insolvents, on Tuesday the 11th day of March next, at the hour of Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the sign of the Lamb, Leadenhall-Market, London, in order to make a further dividend of the estate and effects of the said George Fitch and Robert Cort; and also for the purpose of assenting or dissenting from the said Assignees compromising with the said George Fitch a certain legacy or bequest of 500*l.* bequeathed to him by the will of his late grandfather, deceased, for the sum of 150*l.* or otherwise; and to assent or dissent from the said Assignees giving a general release to the said Robert Cort, on payment of a certain sum of money to be named at such meeting; and to assent or dissent from giving the said George Fitch a like release; and to assent or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Insolvents' estate and effects; or to the compromising, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto, and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors of Hutchinson Hothersall Browne, formerly of the Old Kent Road, Surrey, afterwards of Saint James's-Street, and late of Wenlock Cottages, Shepherd and Shepherdess-Fields, City-Road, in the County of Middlesex, late a Clerk in His Majesty's Customs, an Insolvent Debtor, who was lately discharged from the Fleet Prison, are requested to meet at the Chambers of Mr. Jones, Temple-Chambers, Fleet-Street, London, on the 19th day of February instant, at Twelve at Noon, for the purpose of choosing an Assignee or Assignees of the said Insolvent's estate and effects.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Assignee of the estate and effects of Robert Cowling, late of Heckmondwike, in the West Riding of the County of York, Blanket-Maker, an Insolvent Debtor, who was lately discharged from His Majesty's Gaol the Castle of York, in the County of York, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the first year of the reign of His present Majesty, for the relief of Insolvent Debtors in England, will on Saturday the 15th day of March next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, attend at the Warehouse of Messrs. Whitehead and Sons, in Duncan-Street, in the Town of Leeds, in the County of York aforesaid, to make a dividend out of the balance of money in his hands amongst the Creditors of the said Insolvent, whose debts are expressed in the schedule delivered by the said Insolvent; when and where the said Creditors of the said Insolvent are to come prepared to prove their respective debts, and if the said Insolvent or any of his Creditors intend to object to any debts stated admitted in the said schedule, such objections are at the said time and place to be made.

THE Creditors of Samuel Sidebotham, late of Stockport, in the County of Chester, Joiner, an Insolvent Debtor, lately discharged from the King's-Bench Prison, are desired to meet on Friday the 7th day of March next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Angel Inn, in the Market-Place, in Stockport aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the Assignee of the said Insolvent's estate and effects making an application to the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, for an order for the said Assignee to put the real estate of the said Insolvent into tenable repair, and to let the same from year to year or otherwise, at or for such rent or rents that can or may be obtained for the same for and during a certain number of years at such meeting to be fixed and agreed upon, and to apply such rents in and towards discharging the interest of the debt owing on mortgage of the said real estate, and in discharging other incumbrances affecting the same, and to apply the residue of such rent for the general benefit of the said Insolvent's estate, instead of immediately selling such real estate; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee employing a proper person to collect and receive the said rents if such order should be obtained, and to him making a fair and reasonable remuneration to such person for collecting such rents; and if it shall be agreed at the said meeting that such application shall not be made to the said Court, but that the said real estate shall be immediately sold, then the Creditors are desired at such meeting to determine and approve where, and in what manner, and at what time and place, such real estate shall be offered for sale by public auction; or to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing of the same or any part thereof by private contract, and at such price or prices as shall and may be then and there agreed upon; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee allowing, compounding, or resisting certain arrears of an annuity stated in the said Insolvent's schedule to be due from the said real estate, and paying or compounding such annuity in future or resisting the payment thereof, in consequence of the Annuitant having released the same for better securing the mortgage debt owing on the said real estate, and applying such annuity in discharge of the said mortgage debt and interest; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Insolvent's estate and effects; or to compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.
