Vienna, January 3.

Most of the Electors having excused their meeting the Emperor at Ratisbonne in the present conjuncture of Affairs, there is now no more discourse of his Imperial Majesties going thither; but on the contrary, it is said, that he will continue here, lest his removal might give a discouragement to these parts; and at the same time all possible care is taken to provide for the safety of this City: The Suburbs instead of being demolished are to be fortified, with a Ditch and Pallisadoes; The Burgers fit for service are to be well instructed in the exercise of their Arms; and all unnecessary persons are to be put out of the place. We gave you an account in one of our last, that the Emperor had given out Commissions for five new Regiments; but the Levies are not yet begun, the Officers demanding more Moneys, and time for the raising the said Regiments, than are allowed them. Great Magazines are providing in several places on the Waag for the service of the Imperial Army, which it is designed shall encamp on that River; and Ingeniers have been sent to Raab, Comorra, Favarin, and Leopoldsdorf, to see that the Fortifications of those places are in the condition they ought to be. From Hungary they write, That the Turks have put a Garrison into Caschau, and that Count Teckelej had withdrawn the Troops he had there, from whence some would conjecture that there is no great confidence between the Turks and the Hungarians; The Letters add, That the Plague is broke out at Caschau and other places: and a report is spread abroad, that Count Teckelej is dead; but it needs a confirmation. The Turks have attempted three several times to make themselves Masters of the Island Schar, but have been as often repulsed; Several Regiments are on their march to reinforce the Imperial Troops there, and the Emperor has ordered several Forts to be built for their greater security. The Duke of Saxe-Eysenach is arrived here.

Fraucfort, January 11. From Ratisbonne we have an account, That the Electoral Colledge have written a Letter to the Emperor, wherein they earnestly desire, that a Treaty may be forthwith begun upon the French Proposals. The 8th Instant the Deputies of the Empire that remained here, met the last time, and took their leaves of one another in order to their return home. Prince Waldeck, and the Counts of Nassaw and of Solms are arrived here. From Vienna they write, That the King of Sueden has offered to assist the Emperor with 10000 Men against the Turks, upon condition the Emperor pay them.

Cologne, January 12. We had some days since a report here, that the French were making preparations in the Country of Eyffel to receive six thousand Men, which, it was said, they intended to lodge there; but it was a Report which had no foundation, for we have certain advice, that the French have quitted and demolished the Castle of Arenberg, and that they have removed the Artillery and Ammunition that was there, to Charlemont. The Elector of Cologne having written to the Chapter of St. Lambert at Liege, desiring them to send a Deputation hither, they accordingly deputed four of their Body, who arrived here some days since; and have been several times with his Electoral Highness, he being desirous to consult with them concerning an accommodation with the City of Lieges. The Deputies of that City had yesterday a Conference with the Bishop of Strasbourg, the Deputies of the Chapter of St. Lambert being present; and things seem at present in a better disposition to an accommodation, than they lately were.

Liege, January 4. Monsieur de la Raudiere, the French Resident here, being come back from Cologne, whither he went to Confer with that Elector concerning the Affairs of this City, did on the 26 past acquaint these Magistrates, That his Electoral Highness did positively insist to be restored to all the Rights and Prerogatives he formerly enjoyed, and that he had prayed the most Christian King, in case this City continued obstinate, to cause the Cittadel (which the French sometime since demolished) to be rebuilt; and that the King his Master had commanded him (the said Resident) to let them know, That though he desires they should give his Electoral Highness all the satisfaction that is due to him, yet that he will dispose his Electoral Highness to yield to such a Temperament as may restore Peace and Tranquillity to their City, provided they do on their part make such reasonable offers as may be an inducement to his most Christian Majesty to persuade his Electoral Highness to content himself therewith; but, that if they shall refuse to make the Submissions and Reparations to his Electoral Highness that becomes them, they will have reason to fear, that his said most Christian Majesty will have other thoughts concerning them, which may not be so much to their advantage. The Magistrates hereupon thought fit to Assemble the 32 Trades or Companies, to acquaint them with what the said Resident had communicated to them, that they might take a Resolution therein; And the said Companies met accordingly, and with the Concurrence of the Magistrates, declared, That they thought this Proposition of the French Resident contained several points very prejudicial and dangerous to their Priviledges, and ordered, that their Deputies at Cologne should be made acquainted therewith; and that they should impart the same to his Electoral Highness and his Ministers, and gain what light they could could concerning his Electoral Highnesses Resolutions in relation to this City.

Brussels, January 15. Notwithstanding the Term given by the French King is expired, the Prince de Chimay Governor of Luxemburg, and several other Governors and Principal Commanders have leave to continue here; and we do not hear of the motion of any French Troops. The Count of Mansfelt, the Emperors Ambassador to the King of Spain, will continue here till two Couriers which have been sent to Madrid and Vienna return, and in the mean time he has frequent Conferences with his Excellency concerning the present Affairs. It is said that his Excellency has resolved not to raise any new Troops, but to recruit those that are already on foot; and that he has made an agreement with some Persons who have undertaken to furnish 2500 Horses; which is a thing very necessary, above a third part of our Cavalry and Dragoons being dismounted, and some whole Regiments.

Brussels, January 19. On Sunday last was kept the Feast of St. Anthony, his Excellency the Marquis de Grans, who had taken upon him the Quality of Prevost, having the day before received into the Fraternity Don Antonio d'Agurio, Maître de Camp General of these Provinces, the Prince de Vaudemont General of the Horse, the Marquis de Bedmar General of the Artillery, the Prince Barbancon Governor of the Province of Namur, the Prince of Chimay Governor of Luxemburg, and several others of the first Quality. His Excellency, as Prevost, gave the Entertainment, which was very splendid, and the Prince de Vaudemont was chosen Prevost for the next year. His Excellency and Count Mansfelt intended to have gone, as this day, for Antwerp, but the Count having received advis by an Express from Paris, that his Secretary is released out of the Bastille, he intends to part from hence to-morrow or the day following on his Journey for Spain, which he will take through France.

Hague, January 15. Some days since arrived here the Heer Hunnicke, Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Saxony; and the Heer d'Amerongen late Envoy from this State at the Courts of Saxony and Brandenburg, is on his return, and every day expected here: The States, upon the Report of the Deputies of the Admiralties, have considerably lessened the Charge of the intended Equipage, ordering the Ships to be of lower Rates than was at first designed; Eight are to carry from 70 to 80 Guns, eight from 60 to 70, and eight from 30 to 45; which, it's said, are to be fitted out at the charge of the Admiralties, the States giving some assistance thereunto; and this Squadron is reported to be designed for the assistance of the Swedes. The Heer Heinsius, Ambassador Extraordinary from this State to the most Christian King, is upon his departure.

Paris, January 16. The 14 Instant Don Carlos del Castillo, whom the King of Spain sent to perform his Compliments at this Court upon the Birth of the Duke of Burgundy, had his Audiences of Leave of the King, Queen, &c. having been Treated, during the time he was at Versailles, by the Kings Officers. We have Advice, That the Archbishop of Gnesna, Primate of Poland, having called his Clergy together, had condemned the Propositions of the Clergy of this Kingdom in their last Assembly, and that he had therein followed the example of the Archbishop of Gran, Primate of Hungary, who had in like manner condemned the said Propositions; and we are told that the Pope has desired other Princes to call their Clergy to meet for the same purpose. It is said, that a Marriage is proposed between the Duke of Savoy, and Mademoiselle, Daughter to the Duke of Orleans, and Sister to the Queen of Spain.

Plymouth, January 9. The 6th Instant arrived here his Majesties Ship the Mary-Rose, Captain Ashby Commander, from the Streights; and yesterday the Swallow, Captain Carver, with several Merchant Ships under his Convoy, bound for the Streights: They both sailed again this day; The first to the Eastward, and the latter to the Southward.

Whereas there is a Report spread abroad of the Death of William Penn Esq; Proprietary of Pennsylvania, to the great prejudice of his Affairs; These are to give Notice, That there is no manner of ground for it, the last Ship that came from thence having brought Letters from him, which left him in perfect health, as any Person may be further satisfied by Mr. Philip Ford in Bow-Lane, London.
