SATURDAY, MARCH 15, 1823.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of February 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing date the fifteenth November last, to order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) should, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of November then instant), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such port or place on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council;" His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased hereby to revoke His said Order in Council; and His Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as before excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled " An Act to enable His Majesty to " restrain the exportation of naval stores, and " more effectually to prevent the exportation of " salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohib- " ited by Proclamation or Order in Council :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Com- missioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Com- missioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. *Jas. * * * The Index to the London Gazette, for the last six months of the year 1822, is now ready for delivery.

Whitehall, March 13, 1823.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about eight o'clock in the evening of the 26th of February last, the house and detached buildings of the house belong- ing to Mr. Abraham Flint, of Uttoxeter, in the county of Stafford, were maliciously set on fire and partly destroyed; and that a woman, named Elizabeth Dickenson (of whose guilt there is little doubt), stands committed for the offence of actually setting fire to the said house, &c. but that there is reason to suppose that the said Elizabeth Dickenson was counselled, advised, and instigated to com- mit the said offence by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in coun- selling, advising, and instigating the said Elizabeth Dickenson to commit the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except her the said Elizabeth Dickenson), who shall discover his ac- complice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THIRTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any per- son (except the said Elizabeth Dickenson) who shall discover any one or more of the persons con- cerned in so counselling, advising, and instigating the said Elizabeth Dickenson as aforesaid, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; to be paid by the said Abraham Flint.

SUSSEX LIEUTENANCY.

I, George Obrien, Earl of Egremont, Lieute- nant of the county of Sussex, appoint a General Meeting of Lieutenancy for the said county to be holden at the County-Hall, in Lewes, in the county aforesaid, on Thursday the 3d day of April next, at the hour of twelve at noon, for the pur- pose of taking into consideration the expediency of making a new apportionment amongst the several rapes of the said county of the number of militia- men apportioned to, and directed by the Act 42d Geo. III, c. 90, to be raised therein for the same; and for other purposes respecting the Lieutenancy.

Egremont.

Brightelmston, March 8, 1823.

DEMERARY and ESSEQUEBO.

THE undersigned, in capacity, as Deputy First Marshal of the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, advertises, by these presents, for the first, second, and third time, that he will, by virtue of certain sentences of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice of said United Colony, expose and sell, at public execution sale, the following plantations, with their cultivations, buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances, viz;

First.—In the month of November 1823, the sugar plantation Good Hope, situated in Mahayca Creek, the property of Alexander M'Lean.

Second.—In the said month of November 1823, the coffee plantation Westfield, situated on the Arabian coast, Essequibo, the property of estate of William Brereton, deceased.

Third.—In the month of December 1823, the undivided half or moiety of the cotton plantation New Orange Nassau, situated on the east sea coast, Demerary, the property of Anthony Crosby Martin and Elizabeth Alleyne Martin, his wife.

Fourth.—In the said month of December 1823, the sugar plantation Aberdeen, situated on the Arabian coast of Essequibo, the property of Ralph Cook.

Fifth.—In the said month of December 1823, the sugar plantation Farm, situated on the west side of Mahaicony Creek, the property of E. J. Henery.

Sixth.—In the month of January 1824, the cotton plantation Concord, situate in Mahayca, the property of J. G. Bollers.

Seventh.—In the said month of January 1824, the cotton plantation Now, or Never, situate on the west side of Mahaicony, the property of the heirs of Mathews.

Eighth.—In the month of February 1824, the coffee plantations Orangefield and De Riddersfaith, situate in Canal No. 1, the property of W. Thomas Worm.

Ninth.—In the month of February 1824, the sugar plantation Zeezigt, now called Caledonia, situate at Essequibo, on the Island Wakenaau, the property of the estate of N. Hasewood, deceased.

The judgment of præ et concurrentia on the net proceeds of the above sales will be held by the said Honourable Court of Justice, three months after the respective day of sale, for which reason all those who may pretend to have any right, title, or interest to the net proceeds of said plantations, are herewith by him the undersigned Deputy First Marshal of the said United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, summoned to appear in person, or by their Attornies, to lay their claims, in due form before the Honourable Court of Justice of said United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, at their respective Sessions, in the following months, viz.

In the month of February 1824, for plantations Good Hope, Westfield, the undivided half or moiety of New Orange Nassau, Aberdeen, and Farm; and in the month of April 1824, for plantation Concord and Now, or Never, Orangefield, and De Riddersfaith, and Zeezigt, now called Caledonia; under a penalty that against the non-appears will be proceeded as the law directs.

The inventory of the above stated plantations are daily to be seen at the Counting-House of Messrs. Hall, M'Garrel, and Co. No. 7, Austin-Friars, London; and P. J. Le Jolie, Esq. Amsterdam.

Demerary and Essequibo, the 24th January 1823.

J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.

IN pursuance of authority granted by his Honour the President of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice for the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, bearing date the 22d November 1822,

I, the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal of said United Colony, do hereby, in the name and behalf of Joseph Alleyne, sole acting deliberating Executor of the last will and testament of Richard Ryan, one of this Colony, Planter, deceased, for himself, and, de rato cavens, Henry Dey, summoned by edict, ad valas carnis, all known and unknown Creditors of the estate of said Richard Ryan, deceased, to appear in person, or by proxy, before the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice for the said United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, at their Session to be holden at the Court-House, in George-Town, on the 8th day of June 1823, and following days, in order to render their claims, properly attested, and in due form; whereas in default of which will be protested against the non-appears according to law.—Demerary, the 25th January 1823.

J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.

NORTHGATE, WAKEFIELD, YORKSHIRE.

Notice to the Creditors of David Farquharson, Merchant, in Dundee.

Edinburgh, March 6, 1823.

Notice is hereby given, that the said David Farquharson, with consent of the Trustee on his sequestrated estate, and of four-fifths of his Creditors in number and value, has applied to the Court of Session, for a discharge of all the debts contracted by him prior to the 9th day of March 1816, the date of his sequestration, and the Court, by interdictator, of this date, ordered the petition to be intimated in the usual form.

Edinburgh, March 11, 1823.

THE Trustee on the sequestrated estates of Tennant and Co. Merchants in Edinburgh, and of William M'Huchean, Merchant there, a Partner of that Company, requests a meeting of the whole Creditors, within the Royal Exchange Coffee-House, in Edinburgh, on Monday the 21st day of March current, at Three o'Clock Afternoon, to direct how the outstanding funds and effects are to be disposed of, and to instruct the Trustee as to the measures to be adopted for winding up the affairs.

Notice to the Creditors of James Moffat, Wright and Builder, in Glasgow.

Glasgow, March 10, 1823.

JAMES CHRISTIE, Merchant, in Glasgow, hereby intimates, that upon the 19th day of February last he was elected Trustee on the sequestrated estates of the said James Moffat, and that his election has been duly confirmed; that the Sheriff of Lanarkshire has fixed Monday the 24th day of March current, and Tuesday the 8th day of April next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon each day, within the Sheriff-Clerk's Office, in Glasgow, for the public examination of the Bankrupt and others connected with his affairs; and that meetings of his Creditors will be held within the Office of Lumsden and Shortridge, 5, South Hanover-Street, Glasgow, on the 9th and 23d days of April next, at Eleven o'Clock Forenoon each day, for the purposes mentioned in the Statute.

And the Trustee hereby requires the Creditors to produce in his hands their claims and vouchers, or grounds of debt, with their oaths on the verity thereof, at or previous to the said meeting to be held on the 9th day of April next, if the same are not already produced; intimating, that unless the said productions are made betwixt and the 28th day of November next, the party neglecting shall have no share in the first distribution of the Bankrupt's estate.

Notice to the Creditors of James Wilson, Grain-Merchant, in Renfrew.

Edinburgh, March 11, 1823.

THE said James Wilson has, with concurrence of William Jeffrey, Accountant, in Glasgow, Trustee on his sequestrated estate, and of the Statutory number of Creditors who have ranked thereon, applied to the Court of Session for approval of a composition, the exoneration of the said Trustee, and a discharge of all debts contracted by him prior to the 20th June last, being the date of the sequestration; the Court has this day appointed the petition to be intimated, for fourteen days in the Minute-Book, and on the Walls, and in the Edinburgh and London Gazettes, and remitted to the Lord Ordinary on the Bills to proceed during the vacation.
