SATURDAY, APRIL 5, 1823.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of February 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council was this day pleased to appoint the Right Honourable William Huskisson, President of the Committee of Council appointed for the consideration of all matters relating to trade and foreign plantations.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 3d of April 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council was this day pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Charles Grant, President of the Committee of Council appointed for the consideration of all matters relating to trade and foreign plantations, in the absence of the Right Honourable William Huskisson, or of the President of the said Committee for the time being.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 3d of April 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty

"to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewardry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 31st of January 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council;

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of His Majesty's reign (chapter 104), intituled "An Act to continue, until the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, the bounty to vessels employed in the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights; and to authorise His Majesty to alter the times for the sailing of the said vessels, and any of the limitations contained in the Acts for allowing the said bounty," His Majesty is authorised, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued for that purpose, to suspend, or vary, any or either of the limitations and restrictions contained in the several Acts granting bounties to vessels employed in the fisheries carried on in the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights, in such manner as may appear expedient, and as may be expressed and set forth in such Order or Orders in Council; And whereas by an Act, passed in the thirty-second year of His late Majesty King George the Third (chapter 22), it is enacted, "that every ship or vessel having on board one apprentice for every fifty tons burthen, every such apprentice not exceeding the age of twenty years, nor being under twelve years at the time he shall be indentured, shall be deemed properly fitted and qualified, with respect to the number and age of apprentices, to proceed on the said fishery to the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights, and to be entitled to the respective bounties granted by this Act;" And whereas it is expedient, that further provision should be made with respect to the number of apprentices to be taken on board ships proceeding to the said fisheries, His Majesty is pleased, by virtue of the authority vested in him by the Act first above recited, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, British vessels employed in the fisheries in the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights, having on board one apprentice for every one hundred tons burthen of each vessel, every such apprentice not exceeding the age of twenty years, nor being under twelve years at the time he shall be indentured, shall be deemed properly fitted and qualified, with respect to the number and age of apprentices, to proceed on the said fisheries to the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights, and to be entitled to the respective bounties granted by law for the encouragement of the said fisheries; provided that all the other provisions of the laws for regulating the said fisheries be duly complied with: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of February 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing date the fifteenth November last, to order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever

(except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) should, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of November then instant), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such port or place on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition," and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council;" His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased hereby to revoke His said Order in Council; and His Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as before excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre,

"gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.

War-Office, 29th March 1823.

In consequence of the distinguished part which the 2d Battalion of the 1st (or Royal) Regiment of Foot bore in the Malratta war, in the year 1817, His Majesty has been pleased to approve of that Regiment bearing on its colours and appointments, in addition to any other badges or devices which may have heretofore been granted to the Corps, the words

"Nagpore" and

in commemoration of the gallantry displayed by the Battalion Companies in the action at Nagpore, in the months of November and December 1817; and by the Flank Companies in the decisive victory of Maheidpoor, on 21st December 1817.

In the Affairs of the late Samuel Barnard, Esq. deceased, and of Messrs. William Robert Barnard and Co.

Boston, March 31, 1823.

THE Counsel concerned on both sides in the Chancery suit of Bowles and others v. York and others, viewing this Cause as likely to be protracted for several years, and as heavy expences would be thereby incurred, have recommended to the Creditors generally that the suit should be terminated by way of compromise, therefore the several Creditors of the said Samuel Barnard, deceased, and of the late firm of Samuel Barnard and Sons, and of Messrs. William and Robert Barnard, and Co. are hereby requested to attend a meeting to be holden at the White Hart Inn, in Boston, in the County of Lincoln, on Friday the 4th day of May 1823, at the hour of Eleven in the Forenoon precisely, when a statement of the affairs will be laid before the Creditors for their inspection, in order to their taking the said recommendation of Counsel into consideration, and to their adopting such measures as will conduce to an early distribution of the funds, WEEKLY RETURNS of the Quantities and Price of BRITISH CORN, WINCHESTER Measure, as received from the Inspectors in the following Cities and Towns in ENGLAND and WALES, from which the Prices that govern Importation are calculated, conformably to the Act of the 1st and 2d Geo. IV, cap. 87.

TO be resold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Cann v. Cann, with the approbation of James Trower, Esq. one of the Master's of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, on Tuesday the 15th day of April 1823, between the hours of One and Two in the Afternoon; Lot 5. Part of the freehold estates of John Cann, late of Fudge-House, in the Parish of Spreyton, in the County of Devon, Esq.

Particulars of the said lot may be had at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Williams against Hughes, the Creditors of Thomas Williams, late of Swansea, in the County of Glamorgan, Surgeon, deceased (who died in or about the month of January 1813), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded from the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors of Ann Morgan, late of the Parish of Bedwelty, in the County of Monmouth, Innholder, Victualler, Dealer in Ale, Beer, Porter and Spirituous Liquors, Dealer and Chapwoman, who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt, which has been awarded and is now in prosecution against her, are requested to meet at the Office of Mr. Prothero, in the Town of Newport, in the County of Monmouth, on Thursday the 17th day of April instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, for the purpose of considering on the propriety of accepting an offer made by the said Bankrupt, to pay each of her Creditors a composition of 12s. in the pound on the amount of the respective debts proved by them; and on other special matters.—Dated the 3d April 1823.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Lyall, of North-Shields, in the County of Northumberland, Merchant, Brick and Tile-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 15th day of April instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Offices of Messrs. Lowrey and Stephens, Solicitors, Tyne-Street, North-Shields aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees releasing and conveying the equity of redemption in certain freehold premises, situate in Union-Lane, North-Shields aforesaid, to the mortgagees thereof, upon such terms and conditions as shall be agreed upon at such meeting.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Daniel Scott Norton, late of Uxbridge, in the County of Middlesex, Brewer, Auctioneer, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 9th day of April instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Office of Mr. Riches, Solicitor, in Uxbridge aforesaid, to consider the state of the accounts between the said Bankrupt and the County Fire-Office; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying, or undertaking to pay, out of the effects of the said Bankrupt, a sum, which will be mentioned at the said meeting, in discharge of an immediate extent issued at the instance of the said Office against the said Bankrupt and his effects, and levied upon such effects, or contesting the said extent in whole or in part; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees carrying into effect certain contracts already made for the sale of the Red Lion Public-House at Hillingdon, and a blacksmith's shop and premises adjoining; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making immediate sale of the household furniture and effects, farming stock, and other stock and personal property of the said Bankrupt, by public auction or private contract, and either for ready money or upon credit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees concurring with the mortgagees and other persons, claiming liens upon any part of the said Bankrupt's freehold, copyhold, or leasehold estates in the sales of such estates, by public auction or private contract, and in such lots or parcels as may be deemed expedient, and out of the proceeds paying off the mortgages, liens, and other incumbrances affecting the same respectively; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling, in like manner, the unincumbered estates of the said Bankrupt, if any such there be; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees relinquishing to the respective landlords any premises held by the said Bankrupt, either as yearly tenant, or for any short term; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding for any debt or debts due or owing to the said Bankrupt, or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating to the said Bankrupt's estate; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Evans, formerly of Wapping, in the County of Middlesex, Linen-Draper, Dealer and Chapman (carrying on trade under the firm of John and William Evans), are desired to meet together, on Monday the 14th day of April instant, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt accepting a sum of money, in satisfaction of a share in a sum of £4 per Cent. Annuities, to which the wife of the said Bankrupt was entitled at the time of the Bankruptcy, in reversion after the decease of her father and mother, who are since dead.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Joseph Holden Sampson, of Sealecoates, in the County of York, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman (carrying on business at the Town of Kingston-upon-Hull, under the firm of George Holden, Son, and Company), are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 12th day of April instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Dog and Duck Tavern, in Seale-Lane, in the Town of Kingston-upon-Hull aforesaid, to take into consideration certain propositions which have been submitted to the said Assignees by a person, who will be then named, touching certain goods, wares, and merchandise, in which the said person and the said Bankrupt were jointly interested at the time of the date and suing forth of the said Commission; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees acceding to the said propositions, or rejecting the same, or to their entering into such contracts or agreements for the sale of the said Bankrupt's share and interest in the said goods, wares, and merchandise, for ready money or on credit, or for the purchase of the share and interest of any other person or persons therein as they may deem expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees completing or relinquishing certain contracts or agreements entered into by the said Bankrupt with divers persons, which will be then laid before them, for the purchase of other goods, wares, and merchandise; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying or allowing all or any of the clerks and servants of the said Bankrupt his, her, or their salaries and wages, in part or in full as they shall think proper; also to the said Assignees employing an accountant to examine and make up the said Bankrupt's books and accounts, and to collect the debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate, and to their paying or allowing to such accountant such remuneration for the same as they may think proper; also to the said Assignees giving up to and allowing the said Bankrupt to retain and keep all or any part of his household furniture, without paying for the same, or on payment of such sum of money as they shall think advisable; and also to the said Assignees prosecuting, defending, discontinuing, or referring to arbitration any actions, suits, or proceedings at law or in equity, touching the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or compounding, submitting to arbitration, or releasing any debt or debts claimed by or from the said Assignees, or due to or from the said Bankrupt's estate, or making such arrangements in respect thereof as they shall think advisable.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Charles Mayor, late of Somerset-Street, Portman-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, on Monday the 14th day of April instant, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon precisely, to receive the report of the Committee to whom Mr. Bowden's claim of lien was referred by the resolution of Creditors of the 5th February last, and to assent to or dissent from the payment of Mr. Bowden, of the expences attending the former Commission against the Bankrupt, and the superseding thereof, or to come to such other resolutions thereon as shall be deemed expedient; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Douglas, David Russel and William Russel, (carrying on trade at No. 90, Fleet-Street, in the City of London, and at Leigh-Street, Burton Crescent, in the County of Middlesex, and at No. 53, Long-Acre, in the same County, as Drapers and Mercers, Dealers, Chapmen and Copartners, under the firms of Todd and Co. and Douglas and Russel), and which said William Russel also carried on trade in his own name and on his separate account as a Warehouseman, in Bow Church-Yard, in the said City), are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Thursday the 10th day of April instant, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to authorise and empower the said Assignees to compromise and adjust the several petitions and other proceedings now pending in regard to the said Commission, and to pay the law and other charges attending the same, if they shall deem it right so to do, or to take such steps in regard to the same in the further prosecuting and resisting such petitions, or otherwise as they shall deem to be expedient; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying the wages of the servants of the said Bankrupts in full if they shall determine so to do; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Richard Ealand, of Stourbridge, in the County of Worcester, Hatter, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 9th of April instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Talbot Inn, in Stourbridge, in the said County, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the stock in trade and other effects of the said Bankrupt, by private contract; and on other special business relating thereto.

Notice to the Creditors of John Anderson, late Grocer, Clerk-Street, Edinburgh.

April 1, 1823.

A Meeting of the Creditors of the said John Anderson was held within John's Coffee-House, Edinburgh, on the 31st of March last, in consequence of his having left Edinburgh, and sent the keys of his shop to his brother, who voluntarily delivered them up to one of the Creditors. The meeting appointed three of their number as a committee, with power to wind up the estate as quickly as possible, and to act in all matters as they see best for the general interest, and recommended to the absent Creditors to accede to the measure.

The Creditors are therefore requested to lodge their claims, with affidavits, in the hands of Messrs. Thomson, McKean, and Co. 87, Quality-Street, Leith, with the least possible delay; and such of them as were not present at the meeting, are requested also to authorise mandatories to concur in the general measures adopted by the other Creditors.
