AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of February 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council was this day pleased to appoint the Right Honourable William Huskisson, President of the Committee of Council appointed for the consideration of all matters relating to trade and foreign plantations.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 3d of April 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council was this day pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Charles Grant, President of the Committee of Council appointed for the consideration of all matters relating to trade and foreign plantations, in the absence of the Right Honourable William Huskisson, or of the President of the said Committee for the time being.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 3d of April 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty

" to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of " the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewardry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 31st of January 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council;
