

which said claims and demands, monies, funds, or share of residuary estate, are the subject of a certain suit now depending in the Court of Chancery, and intended by the said deed of arrangement and release to be compromised and put an end to, the draft of which said deed of arrangement and release will be produced, read, and explained at the said meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee becoming a party to such proposed arrangement on the basis and terms contained in the said draft so to be produced as aforesaid, and to authorise and empower the said Assignee to execute such deed of arrangement and release when the same shall be completed, and all such other deeds, assignments, assurances, and releases as shall be requisite as needful for carrying the same, or the purposes thereof, into full effect, or otherwise to authorise and empower the said Assignee to take and adopt such other measures, either by suit in equity or otherwise, as shall be deemed proper at such meeting, for disputing the claims of the several parties aforesaid, or for liquidating and arranging the same in such way or manner as the said meeting shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing any action or actions at law or suit in equity, to recover any part of the said insolvent's estate and effects, or to submit the same to arbitration; and on other special affairs.

Printed by ROBERT GEORGE CLARKE, Cannon-Row, Parliament-Street.

[ Price Two Shillings and Nine Pence. ]