SATURDAY, MAY 3, 1823.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 3d of April 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of February 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing date the fifteenth November last, to command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) should, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of November then instant), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such port or place on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition," and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition; and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation

“ of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council;” His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased hereby to revoke His said Order in Council; and His Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty’s Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as before excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled “ An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;” and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty’s reign, cap. 2, intituled “ An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty’s Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, April 26, 1823.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Henry Touchet, of Crickhowel, in the county of Brecon, Esq. His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may take and use the surname of Davies, in addition to and after that of Touchet, and that he and they may bear the arms of Davies, quarterly in the first quarter, and the crest of Davies, with his and their own family arms, in compliance with a proviso contained in the last will and testament of his cousin german, David Davies, late of Ystrad, in the parish of Llanfihangel-Ystrad, in the county of Cardigan, Esq. deceased, bearing date the 16th day of June 1806; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, otherwise His Majesty’s said royal licence to be void and of none effect :

And His Majesty has also been pleased to order, that this His royal concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, May 3, 1823.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of the 28th, or early in the morning of the 29th ultimo, four sheep, the property of Mr. Tanner, of Urchfont Farm, in the parish of Urchfont, in the county of Wilts, were feloniously and maliciously killed; and their carcasses left in the fold; and that at the same time, a large plantation of trees, belonging to the said Mr. Tanner, situate on Urchfont Down, and a plough, also the property of Mr. Tanner, were maliciously cut and destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually killed the said sheep, and the person who actually cut the said trees), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS, to be paid on application to Mr. W. W. Salmon, Devizes, and a further reward of TEN GUINEAS by the Devizes Prosecution Society, are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences.

Admiralty-Office, April 28, 1823.

REFERRING to the notice from this Office, dated the 25th of June 1821, relative to the reception of chronometers in a depôt opened at the Royal Observatory at Greenwich, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby make known that, after a consideration of the rates of the chronometers which have been compared for twelve months at the Royal Observatory (including the time that several of them were sent to the Island of Madeira), their Lordships have, with the advice of the Board of Longitude, ordered the chronometer of Mr. Barraud, number 957, to be purchased at the first premium price of £300; and the chronometer of Mr. Pennington, number 154, to be purchased at the second premium price of £200.

And their Lordships further make known, that the following rules and regulations will, during the present year, and until further notice, be observed in comparing the rates of the chronometers deposited upon trial at the Royal Observatory, and in assigning the premiums for the chronometers which shall have kept the best and the second best time, viz.

“The mean of the daily rates for each month in the year shall be separately computed, and the difference between the greatest and least of these mean rates being taken, for each chronometer, this difference shall be doubled, and added to the mean monthly variation, that is to the mean difference of the greatest and least daily rates in each month; and the excellence of the chronometer shall be determined by the smallness of this sum; but no chronometer shall have a claim to the first prize if it exceed six seconds, nor to the second if it exceed ten.”

Admiralty-Office, May 1, 1823.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Widows of Commissioned and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, receiving pensions from the Charity established for their relief, will be paid their pensions due the 31st of March last, at No. 10, New-Square, Lincoln's-Inn, by Edward Finch Hatton, Esq. the Paymaster of the Charity, viz.

The Widows of Flag-Officers, Superannuated Rear-Admirals, Captains, Commanders, Lieutenants, and Masters, on Saturday the 10th instant;

The Widows of Surgeons, Pursers, and Boat-swains, on Monday the 12th instant;

And the Widows of Gunners and Carpenters, on Tuesday the 13th instant; and on every succeeding Thursday, between the hours of ten and twelve.

And notice is hereby further given, that remittance bills will be sent on the 10th instant, to those Widows resident in the country, who have requested to be paid their pensions near their respective residences.

J. W. Croker.

Navy-Office, April 25, 1823.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st of January to the 31st of March 1823, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 5th, 6th, and 7th of May, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 8th, 10th, 12th, 13th, and 14th of May, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 15th and 17th of May, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, the said Attornies are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 31st of March 1823, will commence paying on the 5th of May 1823; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

G. Smith.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

AVERAGE PRICE OF BROWN OR MUSCOVADO SUGAR,

Computed from the RETURNS made in the Week ending the 30th day of April 1823,

Is Thirty-three Shillings and Seven Pence Three Farthings per Hundred Weight,

Exclusive of the Duties of Customs paid or payable thereon on the IMPORTATION thereof into GREAT BRITAIN.

Grocers' Hall,
May 3, 1823.

By Authority of Parliament,

THOMAS NETTLESHIP, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

East India-House, April 30, 1823.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That a special General Court of the said Company will be held at their House, in Leadenhall-Street, on Wednesday the 14th May next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of laying before the Proprietors for their approbation, a resolution of the Court of Directors of the 9th instant, granting the sum of (£60,000) sixty thousand pounds per annum to His Majesty's Government, with a view of relieving the finances of the country from the charge incurred for retiring pay, pensions, &c. on account of that part of His Majesty's forces which is maintained in the East Indies, from the 30th April 1822, to be paid out of the territorial revenues of India on account of all retiring pay, pensions, &c. granted, or that may be hereafter granted, in respect of His Majesty's forces serving in the East Indies.

Copy of the said resolution now lies open at this House for the perusal of the Proprietors.

The Court of Directors do also give notice, that the said General Court is further made special, for the purpose of submitting for confirmation, the resolution of the General Court of the 19th March, approving the resolution of the Court of Directors of the 13th December last, granting to Major James Rivett Carnac, of the Madras Establishment, the sum of (Rs. 30,000) thirty thousand Bomba rupees, at the rate of 2s. 3d. per rupee, upon the grounds therein stated.

The report required by the bye-law, cap. 6, sec. 20, together with the documents upon which the said resolution has been formed, are open for the inspection of the Proprietors at this House.

Joseph Dart, Secretary.

East India-House, April 30, 1823.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That the Court will be ready to receive proposals in writing, at any time on or before Wednesday the 25th of June next, from any person or persons who may be willing to build, either in the River Thames or at an outport in England or Wales, a ship or ships of about 1300 tons burthen, to be let on freight for the said Company's service for six voyages certain, specifying, in one item, a permanent peace freight for each of the said six voyages.

The tenders, with the words "Ship Tender" on the cover, to be severally sealed up and left with the Secretary, at this House, at or before twelve o'clock at noon on the said 25th of June next, beyond which hour no tender will be received.

Joseph Dart, Secretary.

The particulars of the principal dimensions and scantlings of the ships, an inventory of the principal stores, the copy of the charter party for each voyage, as an outline, together with the other terms and conditions upon which the ships are to be tendered, built, and employed in the Company's service, may be had upon application at the Office of the Clerk to the Committee of Shipping, on or after Thursday the 15th day of May next.

No. 10, Lyon's-Inn, Strand,
May 3, 1823.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an account of sales of the Esperanza, the Centra, and the Regla, seized by His Majesty's ship Morgiana, C. B. Strong, Esq. Commander, between the 10th August and 10th December 1819, will be deposited in the Registry of the Admiralty Court, on or before the 13th instant.

J. Woodhead, Agent.

London, April 29, 1823.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an account of the head-money granted for destruction of the Pike, American privateer, by His Majesty's sloop Primrose, C. G. R. Phillott, Esq.
