Whitehall, April 26, 1823.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Henry Touchet, of Crickhowel, in the county of Brecon, Esq. His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may take and use the surname of Davies, in addition to and after that of Touchet, and that he and they may bear the arms of Davies, quarterly in the first quarter, and the crest of Davies, with his and their own family arms, in compliance with a proviso contained in the last will and testament of his cousin german, David Davies, late of Ystrad, in the parish of Llanfihangel-Ystrad, in the county of Cardigan, Esq. deceased, bearing date the 16th day of June 1806; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, otherwise His Majesty’s said royal licence to be void and of none effect :

And His Majesty has also been pleased to order, that this His royal concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.
