SATURDAY, MAY 10, 1823.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 3d of April 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of February 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing date the fifteenth November last, to order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) should, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of November then instant), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such port or place on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation

“ of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council;” His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased hereby to revoke His said Order in Council; and His Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty’s Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as before excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled “ An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;” and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty’s reign, cap. 2, intituled “ An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty’s Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 31st of January 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of His Majesty’s reign (chapter 104), intituled “ An Act to continue, until the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, the bounty to vessels employed in the Greenland Seas and Davis’s Streights; and to authorise His Majesty to alter the times for the sailing of the said vessels, and any of the limitations contained in the Acts for allowing the said bounty,” His Majesty is authorised, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued for that purpose, to suspend, or vary, any or either of the limitations and restrictions contained in the several Acts granting bounties to vessels employed in the fisheries carried on in the Greenland Seas and Davis’s Streights, in such manner as may appear expedient, and as may be expressed and set forth in such Order or Orders in Council; And whereas by an Act, passed in the thirty-second year of His late Majesty King George the Third (chapter 22), it is enacted, “ that every ship or vessel having on board one apprentice for every fifty tons burthen, every such apprentice not exceeding the age of twenty years, nor being under twelve years at the time he shall be indentured, shall be deemed properly fitted and qualified, with respect to the number and age of apprentices, to proceed on the said fishery to the Greenland Seas and Davis’s Streights, and to be entitled to the respective bounties granted by this Act;” And whereas it is expedient, that further provision should be made with respect to the number of apprentices to be taken on board ships proceeding to the said fisheries, His Majesty is pleased, by virtue of the authority vested in him by the Act first above recited, to order, and it is hereby ordered that from and after the date of this Order, British vessels employed in the fisheries in the Greenland Seas and Davis’s Streights, having on board one apprentice for every one hundred tons burthen of each vessel, every such apprentice not exceeding the age of twenty years, nor being under twelve years at the time he shall be indentured, shall be deemed properly fitted and qualified, with respect to the number and age of apprentices, to proceed on the said fisheries to the Greenland Seas and Davis’s Streights, and to be entitled to the respective bounties granted by law for the encouragement of the said fisheries; provided that all the other provisions of the laws for regulating the said fisheries be duly complied with: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

The King has been pleased to present the Reverend John Paul to the church and parish of Maybole, in the presbytery and county of Ayr, vacant by the death of the Reverend Mr. Logan, late Minister there.

The King has also been pleased to present the Reverend Robert Paton to the church and parish of Straiton, in the presbytery and county of Ayr, vacant by the transportation of the Reverend John Paul to the church and parish of Maybole.

Whitehall, May 6, 1823.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Thomas Dicas, of the city of Chester, attorney at law, eldest son and heir of William Dicas, also of the said city, attorney at law, who was the eldest son and heir of William Dicas, also of the said city, Gentleman, deceased, His Royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may take the surname of Leacroft only, out of affectionate regard to the memory of his late wife Mary, only daughter and heir of Samuel Leacroft, of the parish of St. John the Evangelist, in the city of Westminster, deceased, by Mary his wife, who was the only daughter of his said grandfather, William Dicas, Gentleman, deceased:

And also to order, that this His Majesty's royal licence and permission be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, May 8, 1823.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Robert-John Wilmot, of Montagu-square, in the county of Middlesex, and of Catton, in the county of Derby, Esq. eldest son and heir apparent of Sir Robert Wilmot, of Osmaston, in the said county of Derby, Bart. and one of the Representatives in Parliament for the borough of Newcastle-under-Line, and also Under Secretary of State for the Colonial Department, and unto Anne-Beatrix, his wife, eldest daughter and coheir of Eusebius Horton, late of Catton aforesaid, Esq. deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority that they may, in compliance with a proviso contained in the last will and testament of the said Eusebius Horton, bearing date the 22d day of August 1820, and in testimony of their affectionate respect for his memory, take and use the surname of Horton, in addition to and after that of Wilmot; that the said Robert-John Wilmot may bear the arms of Horton quarterly in the first quarter with those of Wilmot; and that the said surname of Horton and the arms of Horton may, in like manner, be taken, used, and borne by the issue of their marriage respectively; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And His Majesty has also been pleased to order, that this His concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, May 3, 1823.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of the 28th, or early in the morning of the 29th ultimo, four sheep, the property of Mr. Tanner, of Urchfont Farm, in the parish of Urchfont, in the county of Wilts, were feloniously and maliciously killed, and their carcases left in the fold; and that at the same time, a large plantation of trees, belonging to the said Mr. Tanner, situate on Urchfont Down, and a plough, also the property of Mr. Tanner, were maliciously cut and destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually killed the said sheep, and the person who actually cut the said trees), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS, to be paid on application to Mr. W. W. Salmon, Devizes, and a further reward of TEN GUINEAS by the Devizes Prosecution Society, are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences.

Whitehall, May 10, 1823.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Tuesday the 29th ultimo, a barn, called "the Worsteds Barn," in the parish of East Grinstead, in the county of Sussex, the property of Edward Cranston, Esq. of East Court, in the said parish, together with part of a hay-stack standing near thereto, were maliciously set on fire and destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said barn or hay on fire), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by the said Edward Cranston, of East Court aforesaid.
