WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Tuesday the 29th ultimo, a barn, called "the Worsteds Barn," in the parish of East Grinstead, in the county of Sussex, the property of Edward Cranston, Esq. of East Court, in the said parish, together with part of a hay-stack standing near thereto, were maliciously set on fire and destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said barn or hay on fire), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by the said Edward Cranston, of East Court aforesaid.
