AT the Court at Brighton, the 3d of April 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

C. C. Greyille.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of February 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing date the fifteenth November last, to order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) should, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of November then instant), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such port or place on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council;" His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased hereby to revoke His said Order in Council; and His Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as before excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 31st of January 1828,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third (chapter 1), intituled "An Act to continue and extend the provisions of an Act of the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty, for regulating the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope, until the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty; and also for regulating the trade of the Island of Mauritius" (which said Act has since been continued by an Act, passed in the first year of His present Majesty), His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and to make such regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from any islands, colonies, or places, and the territories and dependencies thereof, to His Majesty belonging or in His possession, in Africa, or Asia to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope, excepting only the possessions of the East India Company, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation;" or in an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for preventing frauds and regulating abuses in the plantation trade," or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force relating to His Majesty's colonies and plantations, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, law, usage, or custom to the contrary, in anywise notwithstanding; His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this present Order, British vessels arriving at any port of the Island of Ceylon, from any country in amity with His Majesty, laden with any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such country (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool of foreign manufacture,) shall be permitted to enter and land their cargoes, and dispose of the same in the said ports, subject to such duties as may be there payable thereon:

And it is further ordered, that British vessels arriving as aforesaid shall be permitted to export to any such foreign country in amity with His Majesty, cargoes consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the Island of Ceylon, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of such duties as may be payable thereon:

And it is hereby further ordered, that vessels belonging to the subjects of any foreign state in amity with His Majesty, which foreign state shall allow British vessels to carry on trade as aforesaid between the ports of such state and the Island of Ceylon, shall be permitted, in like manner, to import into the ports of the said Island, from any port of the state to which such vessel shall belong, any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of such foreign state (excepting all articles composed of cotton, iron, steel, or wool, of foreign manufacture), and to dispose of the same in the ports of the said Island, on payment of the same duties as shall be payable on the like articles when imported from such foreign state in British vessels:

Provided, however, that if higher duties are charged on such goods when exported from any such foreign state to the Island of Ceylon, in British vessels, than are charged thereon when exported to that Island in ships of such foreign state; or if higher tonnage duties are charged on British vessels exporting such articles from such foreign state to the Island of Ceylon, than are charged on the vessels of such state exporting similar articles to that Island; a countervailing duty shall be charged on the said articles on importation into the said Island, in vessels of such foreign state, over and above the duties payable on the like articles when imported from such state in British vessels; and also a countervailing duty on such foreign vessels importing such articles equal in amount to the difference of duty charged on British vessels exporting similar articles to the Island of Ceylon, from such foreign state as compared with the duty charged on vessels of such state exporting such articles to that island:

And it is hereby further ordered, that every such foreign vessel shall be permitted to export a cargo consisting of any articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the Island of Ceylon, or of any other articles which shall have been legally imported there, on payment of a duty of eight per cent. ad valorem, over and above the duties charged on the like goods when exported from the said Island to such foreign state in a British vessel; provided, however, that in cases where satisfactory proof shall be given, that the said articles, when imported into such foreign state from the Island of Ceylon, in British vessels, are charged with no higher duties than are charged on the like articles when imported in vessels of such foreign state, and that such articles, when imported in British vessels, are entitled to the same privileges and advantages with respect to warehousing and internal consumption, or otherwise, as when imported in vessels of such state, then and in such case no higher duties shall be charged on the export of such articles from the Island of Ceylon, in vessels of such foreign state than shall be charged on the export of the like articles in British vessels to such foreign state:

It is, however, hereby further ordered and declared, that no foreign vessel, allowed by the terms of this Order to export a cargo from the Island of Ceylon, shall be permitted to export such cargo to any of His Majesty's possessions, or to any other place than a port or place belonging to the state or power to which the vessel itself shall belong :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas Buller.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 31st of January 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of His Majesty's reign (chapter 104), intituled "An Act to continue, until the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, the bounty to vessels employed in the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights ; and to authorise His Majesty to alter the times for the sailing of the said vessels, and any of the limitations contained in the Acts for allowing the said bounty," His Majesty is authorised, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued for that purpose, to suspend, or vary, any or either of the limitations and restrictions contained in the several Acts granting bounties to vessels employed in the fisheries carried on in the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights, in such manner as may appear expedient, and as may be expressed and set forth in such Order or Orders in Council; And whereas by an Act, passed in the thirty-second year of His late Majesty King George the Third (chapter 22), it is enacted, "that every ship or vessel having on board one apprentice for every fifty tons burthen, every such apprentice not exceeding the age of twenty years, nor being under twelve years at the time he shall be indentured, shall be deemed properly fitted and qualified, with respect to the number and age of apprentices, to proceed on the said fishery to the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights, and to be entitled to the respective bounties granted by this Act;" And whereas it is expedient, that further provision should be made with respect to the number of apprentices to be taken on board ships proceeding to the said fisheries, His Majesty is pleased, by virtue of the authority vested in him by the Act first above recited, to order, and it is hereby ordered that from and after the date of this Order, British vessels employed in the fisheries in the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights, having on board one apprentice for every one hundred tons burthen of each vessel, every such apprentice not exceeding the age of twenty years, nor being under twelve years at the time he shall be indentured, shall be deemed properly fitted and qualified, with respect to the number and age of apprentices, to proceed on the said fisheries to the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights, and to be entitled to the respective bounties granted by law for the encouagement of the said fisheries; provided that all the other provisions of the laws for regulating the said fisheries be duly complied with: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Whitehall, May 23, 1823.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Sampson Mosman Smith, of the town of Nottingham, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, May 12, 1823.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to His Majesty, that, about twelve o'clock at noon on Tuesday the 6th day of May instant, some person or persons unknown did unlawfully and maliciously set fire to a certain plantation of fir trees, the property of James Lawrell, Esq. situate in the hamlet of Frimley, in the hundred of Godley, in the county of Surrey, whereby about four hundred acres of the said plantation were burnt, and the fir trees therein growing were destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better discovering, apprehending, and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said plantation), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall give such information to the said James Lawrell as shall lead to the conviction of any of the offenders; such reward to be paid by the said James Lawrell on such conviction.

Whitehall, May 23, 1823.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that anonymous letters have been addressed to "Mr. John Halley, Manufacturer, Baltic-street, Dundee," to "Messrs. William Baxter and Son, Mill-spinners, Dundee," and to "Mr. Charles Chalmers, Flax-merchant, Tay-street, Dundee," threatening their lives and property, if they reduce the wages of their workmen; His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the offences above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the persons who actually wrote and sent the said letters), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences, viz. TWENTY-FIVE POUNDS on account of the county of Forfar, to be paid, on conviction, by the Sheriff Depute of the said county; and TWENTY-FIVE POUNDS on account of the burgh of Dundee, to be paid, on conviction, by the Provost of the said burgh.

Whitehall, May 23, 1823.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of the 8th, or morning of the 9th instant, the Minister's room, adjoining the Vestry of St. George's Chapel, Portsea, was burglariously entered, and several articles stolen therefrom, and that a secretary and book-case, in the same room, were broken open and set on fire;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who broke into the said room, and the person who actually set the said secretary and book-case on fire), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence; such reward to be paid, on conviction, by the Wardens of the said Chapel.

NOTICE.

Edinburgh, May 20, 1823.

THE Court, of this date, sequestrated the whole real and personal estates of Colin Ross, Corn-Merchant, in Dundee; and appointed his Creditors to meet within Merchant's Hotel, in Dundee, on Tuesday the 27th day of May current, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, to name an Interim Factor; and, at the same place and hour, on Tuesday the 10th day of June next, for the purpose of choosing a Trustee on the sequestrated estate.—Of which notice is hereby given to all concerned.

Notice to the Creditors of George Brown and Thomas Buchanan, Merchants, in Glasgow, the Individual Partners of the Dalmarnock Dye-Work Company, and Greenhead Foundry Company.

Glasgow, May 15, 1823.

JAMES BOAZ, Accountant, in Glasgow, hereby intimates, that upon the 29th day of April last, he was elected Trustee on the sequestrated estates of the said George Brown and Thomas Buchanan, as Individuals, and that his election has been duly confirmed; that the Sheriff of Lanarkshire has fixed the 2d and 17th days of June next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon each day, within the Sheriff-Clerk's Office, in Glasgow, for the public examinations of the Bankrupts and others connected with their affairs; that a meeting of the Creditors is to be held within the Writing-Office of Lumsden and Shortridge, No. 5, South Hanover-Street, Glasgow, on the 18th day of June next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon; and that another meeting of the Creditors is to be held, at the place and hour last mentioned, upon the 2d day of July next, for the purposes mentioned in the Statute.

And the Trustee hereby requires the Creditors to produce in his hands their claims and vouchers or grounds of debt, with their oaths to the verity thereof, at or previous to the said first meeting, if not already produced; intimating, that unless the said productions are made betwixt and the 5th day of February next, the party neglecting shall have no share in the first distribution of the Bankrupt's estates, under the exceptions provided for by the Statute.

Notice to the Creditors of the Dalmarnock Dye-Work Company, and the Greenhead Foundry Company.

Glasgow, May 17, 1823.

JOHN COUPER, Merchant, in Glasgow, hereby intimates, that he has been elected and confirmed Trustee upon the sequestrated estate of the Dalmarnock Dye-Work Company, and Greenhead Foundry Company; and that the Sheriff of Lanarkshire has fixed the 30th day of May current and 13th day of June next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon each day, within the Sheriff-Clerk's Office, Glasgow, for the public examination of George Brown and Thomas Buchanan, as the individual Partners of the Company, and others connected with the Company's affairs; and that meetings of the Creditors will be held within the Black Bull Inn, Glasgow, upon Saturday the 14th and Saturday the 28th days of June next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon each day, for the purpose of choosing Commissioners and instructing the Trustee,—all in terms of the Statute.

The Trustee further requests the Creditors aforesaid, to lodge with him their grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereto, on or before the said days of meeting; certifying hereby, that all those who fail to do so between and the 5th day of February next (being ten months from the date of the sequestration), will be excluded from any share of the first dividend.

JOHN BRAND, Merchant, Dumfries, intimates, he has now been confirmed Trustee on the sequestrated estate of Robert Richardson, Merchant, Lochmaben; that the Sheriff of Dumfries has fixed Friday the 30th May current, and Saturday the 14th June next, at the Sheriff-Clerk's Office there, each day at Eleven o'Clock A. M., for the examination of the Bankrupt, &c.; and requests the Creditors to meet in Baird's Coffee-House, Dumfries, at Noon, on Monday the 16th and Saturday the 28th June next, to choose Commissioners, &c.—At or previous to which last meeting the Creditors are required to lodge with the Trustee their grounds of debt, and oaths of verity; certifying, that those failing to do so shall have no share in the first dividend; more than ten months have already elapsed since the first deliverance in the sequestration, owing to the delay occasioned by the opposition made to the confirmation of the Trustee, which prevented earlier notice hereof.

Notice to the Creditors of Andrew Kedslic, Corn-Chandler, at Cannoumills, near Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, May 17, 1823.
