Foreign-Office, June 3, 1823.

The King has been pleased to approve of Mr. Thomas W. Fox, as Consul at Plymouth for the United States of America.

The King has also been pleased to approve of Mr. Robert R. Hunter, as Consul at Cowes for the United States of America.

Whitehall, May 31, 1823.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Durell Stables, Esq. Comptroller of the Customs at Sydney, Cape Breton, in North America, His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may henceforth take and use the surname, and bear the arms of Durell only; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' College, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, May 23, 1823.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that anonymous letters have been addressed to "Mr. John Halley, Manufacturer, Baltic-street, Dundee," to "Messrs. William Baxter and Son, Mill-spinners, Dundee," and to "Mr. Charles Chalmers, Flax-merchant, Tay-street, Dundee," threatening their lives and property, if they reduce the wages of their workmen;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the offences above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the persons who actually wrote and sent the said letters), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences, viz. TWENTY-FIVE POUNDS on account of the county of Forfar, to be paid, on conviction, by the Sheriff Depute of the said county; and TWENTY-FIVE POUNDS on account of the burgh of Dundee, to be paid, on conviction, by the Provost of the said burgh.

Whitehall, May 23, 1823.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of the 8th, or morning of the 9th instant, the Minister's room, adjoining the Vestry of St. George's Chapel, Portsea, was burglariously entered, and several articles stolen therefrom, and that a secretary and book-case, in the same room, were broken open and set on fire;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who broke into the said room, and the person who actually set the said secretary and book-case on fire), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence; such reward to be paid, on conviction, by the Wardens of the said Chapel.

Whitehall, May 30, 1823.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that the house of Mr. Thomas Palmer, situate at Keynsham, in the county of
