The Lord Chancellor has appointed Henry Jackson, of Mountsorrel, in the county of Leicester, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, June 25, 1823.

HEREAS it bath been humbly represented to the King, that the parish church of Portsmouth, called St. Thomas, and the chapels of ease of Portsea, called St. John's and St. George's, have recently been sacrilegiously broken into and robbed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THIRTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the church and chapel wardens of Portsmonth and Portsea, to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences.

FTER our hearty commendations-We do hereby approve, until further orders, of all such ports and warehouses as have been already approved by us, and are now in use for the reception of such articles as are allowed to be warehoused under the Act 43 Geo. 3, cap. 132, with the exception of such articles as are included in the schedule A, annexed to the Act 4 Geo. 4, cap. 24; and we do hereby authorise and direct you to give the necessary orders accordingly, for which this shall be your warrant.
