SATURDAY, JULY 12, 1823.

THE following Address, having been transmitted to Mr. Secretary Peel by Major-General Alexander Robertson, has been presented by Mr. Peel to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal Address of the Chief and Clansmen of the ancient Clann Donachaidh.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chief and Clansmen of the ancient race of Clann Donachaidh, or Robertsons, beg leave to approach your Majesty's sacred Person with sentiments of the most sincere loyalty and attachment. In common with our fellow subjects in this ancient kingdom, we hailed the happy day when your Majesty honoured Scotland with your royal presence, an event, the remembrance of which will never be effaced from the memory of your loyal Scottish subjects. We had fondly cherished the hope of joining the other clans on that auspicious occasion; but being deprived of our proper Leader by the advanced age and declining state of health of our late lamented, loyal, and gallant Chief, Colonel Alexander Robertson, of Strowan, we did not then presume to present ourselves to your sacred Majesty. The Clan, however, eagerly embrace the first opportunity afforded them of meeting under their present Chief to express to your Majesty their loyalty and attachment to their King and country.

That your Majesty may long be preserved to reign over a free, loyal, and happy people; is the earnest prayer of the Chief and Clansmen of Clann Donachaidh.

A. Robertson, of Strowan, Chief.

An Act to allow further time for the completion of the docks and other works belonging to the London Dock Company,

And two private Acts.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 6th of June 1823.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and other places in America and the West Indies," it is enacted, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the schedule marked A, annexed to the said Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, that from and after the passing of this Order, all articles permitted by the said Act to be imported into and exported from the ports enumerated in schedule A annexed to the said Act, shall and may be in like manner imported into and exported from the port of Old Harbour, in the island of Jamaica, on payment of the duties, and subject to the rules, regulations, penalties, and forfeitures enacted by the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c.

WHEREAS by our Warrant, dated the 15th of November 1822, we, by virtue of the power and authority vested in us, authorised all His Majesty's subjects to hoist the Union Jack at the top-mast-head of their ships or vessels, where there is but one mast, or at the fore-top-mast-head where there are more than one mast, as a signal for a pilot, but strictly prohibited the wearing or hoisting the said Jack for any purpose whatsoever, or longer than is necessary for the procuring a pilot, excepting for signals only, under the circumstances therein mentioned, until the 1st January 1824:

And whereas it has been proposed to us, to abolish the use of His Majesty's Union Jack in merchant ships for any purpose whatsoever, and that the Signal Jack to be hereafter worn by merchant ships should have an entire white border, such border being one-fifth of the breadth of the Jack itself, exclusive of such border; and that such Jack so altered should also be in future used on board merchant vessels as a signal for a pilot, instead of the Union Jack at present used for that purpose, under the authority of our before mentioned Warrant of the 15th of November 1822:

And we having approved of the said proposal, do hereby authorise all His Majesty's subjects to hoist and use, on and after this date, on board their ships and vessels, for signals, as well for a pilot as otherwise, the above mentioned Signal Jack with an entire white border, such border being one-fifth of the breadth of the Jack itself, exclusive of the border; but in order to prevent any inconvenience to persons whose ships may be absent on foreign voyages, and who may not be apprized of this new arrangement, we do hereby authorise the wearing of His Majesty's Jack, as a signal for a pilot, until the 1st day of July 1824, and no longer; and we do continue the permission to use His Majesty's Jack for signals only, agreeably with our said Warrant of the 15th of November 1822, until the 1st of January 1824, and no longer.

Given under our hands and the seal of the Office of Admiralty, the 7th of July 1823,

MELVILLE.
WM. JOHNSTONE HOPE.

By command of their Lordships,
J. W. CROKER.
