TUESDAY, JULY 22, 1823.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 16th of July 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should be suspended for the space of one year; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the date hereof, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia be suspended for the space of one year from the date of this Order.

Jas. Buller

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 17th of July 1823,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for making further provision for the effectual performance of quarantine," it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or any three or more of them, to make such Order as they shall see necessary and expedient upon any unforeseen emergency, or in any particular case or cases, with respect to any ship or ships, vessel or vessels arriving and having any infectious disease or distemper on board, or on board of which any infectious disease or distemper may have appeared in the course of the voyage, or arriving under any other alarming or suspicious circumstances as to infection, although such ship or ships, vessel or vessels shall not have come from any place or places from which His Majesty, His heirs, or successors, by and with the advice of His or their Privy Council, may have adjudged and declared it probable that the plague, or any such infectious disease or distemper, may be brought; and also with respect to the persons, goods, wares, and merchandises on board the same; and all such Orders so made by the Lords or others of the Privy Council, or any three or more of them as aforesaid, shall be as good, valid, and effectual to all intents and purposes (as well with respect to the commander, master, or other person having the charge of any such ship or vessel, and all other persons on board the same, as with respect to any other persons having any intercourse or communication with them, and to the penalties, forfeitures, and punishments to which they may respectively become liable), as any Order or Orders made by His Majesty, His heirs, or successors, by and with the advice of His or their Privy Council concerning quarantine, and the prevention of infection as aforesaid, and notified by Proclamation, or published in the London Gazette:

And whereas, advices have been received that a malignant yellow fever is prevalent at Sierra Leone, and also at the Island of Ascension, and that it is reported to have proved very fatal to a vessel recently arrived from Sierra Leone; it is hereby ordered in Council, that all ships and vessels coming from, or having touched at, any port or place on the western coast of Africa, or at the Island of Ascension, or having received any person or persons, goods, wares, or merchandise, packets, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or any other articles whatever from out of any such ship or vessel, shall, on their arrival on the coasts of this kingdom, or of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark and Man, come to anchor at such place or places as have been or shall be appointed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, within or without the port to which such ships or vessels shall be bound, in order that the state of health of the crew and persons on board may be duly examined into and ascertained, prior to such ships and vessels being permitted to enter the port of their destination, and that, in the meantime, no intercourse with any other ship or vessel, or boat, or with the shore, shall be permitted, nor any of the crew or persons on board such ships or vessels be suffered to come or be brought on shore:

And it is hereby further ordered, that in case, upon such examination, it shall appear to the Superintendent or other principal Officer of the Customs, employed in the quarantine service, that such ships or vessels have the said contagious fever actually on board, or that any of the crew or persons on board have been ill, or have died of such contagious fever within the space of forty days, prior to the arrival of such ships or vessels on the coasts of this kingdom, or of the Islands aforesaid, or that in the event of any death, occasioned by such contagious fever, having taken place on board at an earlier period of the voyage than forty days prior to their arrival on the coasts of this kingdom, or of the Islands aforesaid, the cloathes and bedding and all personal effects, susceptible of infection, worn by or belonging to the persons so deceased, were not thrown overboard and sunk immediately upon such decease, or as soon after as possible; or in case it shall appear that such ships had, within the space of forty days prior to arrival on the coasts of this kingdom, or of the Islands aforesaid, received any person or persons, or any of the articles hereinbefore mentioned, from out of any ship, vessel, or boat coming from any port or place on the western coast of Africa, or from the Island of Ascension, then and in such case every such ship and vessel, with their cargoes and persons on board, shall perform a quarantine of fifteen days (or of such further time as may be afterwards directed by any Order or Orders of three or more of the Lords or others of His Majesty's Privy Council), at the several places appointed for the performance of quarantine by ships subject and liable thereto, and bound to the said several ports respectively:

And it is hereby further ordered, that notwithstanding the ships and vessels arriving or to arrive from any port or place on the western coast of Africa, or from the Island of Ascension, may not be found liable to the performance of quarantine as above directed, no goods, wares, or merchandise enumerated in the first class of His Majesty's said Order in Council, bearing date the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, concerning quarantine, which may be imported in any of the said ships from any port or place on the western coast of Africa, or from the Island of Ascension, nor any packages of good, which packages may consist wholly or in part of any of the said articles so enumerated, be suffered to be landed or brought on shore, but shall be taken out of the ships and vessels importing the same, and sent to the usual place appointed for the performance of quarantine, and be there opened and aired for the space of fifteen days, as directed by His Majesty's said Order in Council of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, see. 13, with respect to goods, wares, and merchandises coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary, on the Atlantic Ocean:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General, and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors and Commanders in Chief, for the time being, of the said Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton House, the 6th of June 1823.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and other places in America and the West Indies," it is enacted, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the schedule marked A, annexed to the said Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, that from and after the passing of this Order, all articles permitted by the said Act to be imported into and exported from the ports enumerated in schedule A annexed to the said Act, shall and may be in like manner imported into and exported from the port of Old Harbour, in the island of Jamaica, on payment of the duties, and subject to the rules, regulations, penalties, and forfeitures enacted by the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Saturday, July 19, 1823.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded by His Majesty, in releasing you from your attendance in Parliament, to express to you His Majesty's acknowledgment for the zeal and assiduity, wherewith you have applied yourselves to the several objects, which His Majesty recommended to your attention at the opening of the Session.

His Majesty entertains a confident expectation, that the provisions of internal regulation which you have adopted with respect to Ireland will, when carried into effect, tend to remove some of the evils which have so long afflicted that part of the United Kingdom.

We are commanded to assure you, that you may depend upon the firm and temperate exercise of those powers which you have intrusted to His Majesty for the suppression of violence and outrage in that country, and for the protection of the lives and properties of His Majesty's loyal subjects.

It is with the greatest satisfaction that His Majesty is enabled to contemplate the flourishing condition of all branches of our commerce and manufactures, and the gradual abatement of those difficulties under which the agricultural interest has so long and so severely suffered.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

We have it in command from His Majesty to thank you for the supplies which you have granted for the service of the year, and to assure you that He has derived the sincerest pleasure from the relief which you have been enabled to afford to His people by a large reduction of taxes.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

His Majesty has commanded us to inform you, that He continues to receive from all Foreign Powers the strongest assurances of their friendly disposition towards this country.

Deeply as His Majesty still regrets the failure of His earnest endeavours to prevent the interruption of the peace of Europe, it affords Him the greatest consolation that the principles upon which He has acted, and the policy which he has determined to pursue, have been marked with your warm and cordial concurrence, as consonant with the interests, and satisfactory to the feelings of His people.

Then a commission for proroguing the Parliament was read.

After which the Lord Chancellor said;

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

By virtue of His Majesty's commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in His Majesty's name, and in obedience to His commands, prorogue this Parliament to Tuesday the 30th day of September next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the 30th day of September next.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
April 26, 1823.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give notice, that, on Saturday the 1st day of November next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the under-mentioned farms, mill, and tithes, in the county of Northumberland, will be let on leases, to commence upon the 12th day of May 1824, and for the term of years hereinafter respectively mentioned, that is to say,

Middleton Hall Farm, in the parishes of Ilderton and Kirkneuton; Fourstones West Farm, and Fourstones East Farm, in the parish of Warden; for the term of twenty-one years: Whittle Mill and Ground, in the parish of Ovingham; and Throckley South Farm, in the parish of Newburn; for the term of eighteen years: and the tithes of corn and grain arising on the estate of Lorbottle, in the parish of Whittingham, for the term of twenty-one years.

Such persons as may be desirous to take any of the said farms, mill, and tithes, are requested to deliver or send their proposals, in writing, to Edward Hawke Locker, Esq at Greenwich-Hospital, so as that the delivery thereof at that place shall not be later than on Thursday the 30th day of October next; and all such proposals as shall be received after that day, will be returned as inadmissible.

The tenants in their proposals are requested to specify such additional buildings as they may think essentially necessary, in order that they may be taken into consideration by the Directors of Greenwich-Hospital, previous to the letting. In all cases the tenants will be required to bear the whole expence of leading all materials; also to pay one moiety of the expence of the leases.

Mr. Nicholas Weatherly, of Belford, will shew

Middleton Hall Farm; Mr. William Coates, of Haydon Bridge, the farms in the parish of Warden; Mr. George Wailles, of Bearl, the mill and farms in the parishes of Ovingham and Newburn; and Mr. Edward Bell, of Newcastle, will shew Larbottle corn tithes.

Messrs. Wailles and Brandling, upon being applied to, at their Office in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, will give any further particulars which may be required.
