Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 9, 1823.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of July 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the subjects of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller,

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of July 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and other places in America and the West Indies," certain articles enumerated in the schedule B annexed to the said Act, are permitted to be imported into certain ports in His Majesty's said dominions; and whereas some of the said articles are subject, on importation into the said ports, to the payment of certain duties, according to the rates set forth in schedule C annexed to the said Act; and whereas by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, whenever it shall be deemed expedient, to levy and charge any additional duty or duties of Customs, or to withhold the payment of any drawbacks, bounties, or allowances upon any goods, wares, or merchandise imported into or exported from the United Kingdom, or imported into or exported from any of His Majesty's dominions, in vessels belonging to any foreign country in which higher duties shall have been levied, or smaller drawbacks, bounties, or allowances granted upon goods, wares, or merchandise when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, than are levied or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country, provided always that such additional or countervailing duties so to be imposed, and drawbacks, bounties, or allowances so to be withheld as aforesaid, shall not be of greater amount than may be deemed fairly to countervail the difference of duty, drawback, bounty, or allowance paid or granted on goods, wares, or merchandise imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, more or less than the duties, drawbacks, bounties, or allowances there charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise imported into or exported from such foreign country in vessels of such country; and whereas British vessels entering the ports of the United States, from the ports of His Majesty's possessions in America, or the West Indies, with cargoes consisting of articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the said possessions, are charged with a duty of one dollar per ton for tonnage duties and light money, and a discriminating duty of ten per cent. is charged on the cargoes of such vessels, to which vessels of the United States, and cargoes of the same description, entering the ports of those States from the ports of the said dominions are not subject; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the said last recited Act, and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order there shall be charged on all vessels of the United States which shall enter any of the ports of His Majesty's possessions in America, or the West Indies, with articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the said States, a duty of four shillings and three pence sterling for each and every ton burthen of such vessels, equal (as nearly as may be) to ninety-four cents of the money of the United States, and being the difference between the tonnage duty payable by vessels of the United States and British vessels entering any of the ports of the said United States, from any ports of His Majesty's dominions in America or the West Indies above enumerated, and further an addition of ten per cent. upon the duties set forth in table C above referred to, on any of the articles therein enumerated, which may be imported in any such vessel of the said States; such duties to be levied, collected, and applied in the same manner, and to the same purposes, as the duties levied under the authority of the said Act of the third year of His Majesty's reign: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 16th of July 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intitled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should be suspended for the space of one year; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the date hereof, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia be suspended for the space of one year from the date of this Order.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 17th of July 1823,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act for making further provision for the effectual performance of quarantine," it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or any three or more of them, to make such Order as they shall see necessary and expedient upon any unforeseen emergency, or in any particular case or cases, with respect to any ship or ships, vessel or vessels arriving and having any infectious disease or distemper on board, or on board of which any infectious disease or distemper may have appeared in the course of the voyage, or arriving under any other alarming or suspicious circumstances as to infection, although such ship or ships, vessel or vessels shall not have come from any place or places from which His Majesty, His heirs, or successors, by and with the advice of His or their Privy Council, may have adjudged and declared it probable that the plague, or any such infectious disease or distemper, may be brought; and also with respect to the persons, goods, wares, and merchandises on board the same; and all such Orders so made by the Lords or others of the Privy Council, or any three or more of them as aforesaid, shall be as good, valid, and effectual to all intents and purposes (as well with respect to the commander, master, or other person having the charge of any such ship or vessel, and all other persons on board the same, as with respect to any other persons having any intercourse or communication with them, and to the penalties, forfeitures, and punishments to which they may respectively become liable), as any Order or Orders made by

His Majesty, His heirs, or successors, by and with the advice of His or their Privy Council concerning quarantine, and the prevention of infection as aforesaid, and notified by Proclamation, or published in the London Gazette :

And whereas, advices have been received that a malignant yellow fever is prevalent at Sierra Leone, and also at the Island of Ascension, and that it is reported to have proved very fatal to a vessel recently arrived from Sierra Leone; it is hereby ordered in Council, that all ships and vessels coming from, or having touched at, any port or place on the western coast of Africa, or at the Island of Ascension, or having received any person or persons, goods, wares, or merchandise, packets, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or any other articles whatever from out of any such ship or vessel, shall, on their arrival on the coasts of this kingdom, or of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark and Man, come to anchor at such place or places as have been or shall be appointed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, within or without the port to which such ships or vessels shall be bound, in order that the state of health of the crew and persons on board may be duly examined into and ascertained, prior to such ships and vessels being permitted to enter the port of their destination, and that, in the meantime, no intercourse with any other ship or vessel, or boat, or with the shore, shall be permitted, nor any of the crew or persons on board such ships or vessels be suffered to come or be brought on shore :

And it is hereby further ordered, that in case, upon such examination, it shall appear to the Superintendent or other principal Officer of the Customs, employed in the quarantine service, that such ships or vessels have the said contagious fever actually on board, or that any of the crew or persons on board have been ill, or have died of such contagious fever within the space of forty days prior to the arrival of such ships or vessels on the coasts of this kingdom, or of the Islands aforesaid, or that in the event of any death, occasioned by such contagious fever, having taken place on board at an earlier period of the voyage than forty days prior to their arrival on the coasts of this kingdom, or of the Islands aforesaid, the clothes and bedding and all personal effects, susceptible of infection, worn by or belonging to the persons so deceased, were not thrown overboard and sunk immediately upon such decease, or as soon after as possible; or in case it shall appear that such ships had, within the space of forty days prior to arrival on the coasts of this kingdom, or of the Islands aforesaid, received any person or persons, or any of the articles hereinbefore mentioned, from out of any ship, vessel, or boat coming from any port or place on the western coast of Africa, or from the Island of Ascension, then and in such case every such ship and vessel, with their cargoes and persons on board, shall perform a quarantine of fifteen days (or of such further time as may be afterwards directed by any Order or Orders of three or more of the Lords or others of His Majesty's Privy Council), at the several places appointed for the performance of quarantine by ships subject and liable thereto, and bound to the said several ports respectively :

And it is hereby further ordered, that notwithstanding the ships and vessels arriving or to arrive from any port or place on the western coast of Africa, or from the Island of Ascension, may not be found liable to the performance of quarantine as above directed, no goods, wares, or merchandise enumerated in the first class of His Majesty's said Order in Council, bearing date the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, concerning quarantine, which may be imported in any of the said ships from any port or place on the western coast of Africa, or from the Island of Ascension, nor any packages of good, which packages may consist wholly or in part of any of the said articles so enumerated, be suffered to be landed or brought on shore, but shall be taken out of the ships and vessels importing the same, and sent to the usual place appointed for the performance of quarantine, and be there opened and aired for the space of fifteen days, as directed by His Majesty's said Order in Council of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, sec. 13, with respect to goods, wares, and merchandises coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary, on the Atlantic Ocean :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General, and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors and Commanders in Chief, for the time being, of the said Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 6th of June 1823.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and other places in America and the West Indies," it is enacted, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the schedule marked A, annexed to the said Act; it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; His Majesty is thereupon pleased; by and with the advice of His Privy Council; to order, that from and after the passing of this Order, all articles permitted by the said Act to be imported into and exported from the ports enumerated in schedule A annexed to the said Act, shall and may be in like manner imported into and exported from the port of Old Harbour, in the Island of Jamaica; on payment of the duties, and subject to the rules, regulations, penalties, and forfeitures enacted by the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 3d of April 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewardry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year, it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

C. C. Greville

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of February 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing date the fifteenth November last, to order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) should, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of November then instant), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such port or place on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council;" His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased hereby to revoke His said Order in Council; and His Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as before excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Co.n-

missioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain

 Whitehall, August 9, 1823.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First, Second, and Third, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any artificer in wool, iron, steel, brass, or other metal, clock-maker, watch-maker, or any other artificer of Great Britain, to go into foreign countries out of the King's dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon indictment or information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first offence, and shall be imprisoned three months, and till the fine be paid. And if any person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the discretion of the Court, and imprisoned twelve months, and till the fine be paid.

If any of the King's subjects, being such artificers, shall go into any country out of His Majesty's dominions, to exercise or teach the said trades to foreigners; and if any of the King's subjects in any such foreign country, exercising any of the said trades, shall not return into this realm within six months after warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the country where such artificers shall be, or by any person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this realm; such persons shall be incapable of taking any legacy, or of being an executor or administrator, or of taking any lands, &c. within this kingdom, by descent, devise, or purchase, and shall forfeit all lands, goods, &c. within this kingdom, to His Majesty's use, and shall be deemed alien, and out of His Majesty's protection.

Upon complaint made, upon oath, before any Justice of Peace, that any person is endeavouring to seduce any such artificer, or that any such artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's dominions, for the purposes aforesaid, such Justice may send his warrant to bring the person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the oath of one witness, or by confession, that he was guilty of any of the said offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such person shall refuse to give security, the Justice may commit him to gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions. and until he shall be delivered by due course of law. And if any such artificer shall be convicted, upon indictment, of any such promise, contract, or preparation to go beyond the seas, for the purpose aforesaid, he shall give such security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till security given.

If any of the above offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary or the Circuits there.

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

IF any person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any artificer in wool, mohair, cotton, or silk, or in iron, steel, brass, or other metals or any clock-maker, watch-maker, or any other artificer in any other of the manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this kingdom or Ireland into any foreign country not within the dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall be convicted, upon indictment or information, in the King's Bench at Westminster, or by indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery or the county, &c. wherein such offence shall be committed in England, or by indictment in the Court of Justiciary or any of the Circuit Court, in Scotland, or by indictment or information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such offence be committed in Ireland; the person so convicted shall, for every artificer contracted with or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer imprisonment in the common gaol of the county or stewardry wherein such offender shall be convicted for twelve calendar months, and until forfeiture be paid: And in case of a subsequent offence of the same kind, the persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer imprisonment in the common gaol of the county or stewardry wherein such offender shall be convicted, for two years, and until such forfeiture be paid.

If any person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on board any ship or boat, not bound directly to some port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such tools or utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the preparing, working up, or finishing of the woollen or silk manufactures, or any part of such tools, he shall, for every offence, forfeit all such tools, or parts thereof, put on board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no essoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's warehouses, all such tools or utensils prohibited to be exported, as such officer shall find on board any vessel not bound directly to some port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all tools so seized shall, after condemnation, be publicly sold to the best bidder; and one moiety of the produce shall be to the use of His Majesty, and the other moiety to the officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his vessel, he shall, for every such offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the penalties inflicted upon persons exporting the tools; and, if the vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his employment, and be incapable of any employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any entry outward, or sign any cocket or sufferance for the shipping or exporting of any of the said tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his office, and be incapable of any office under His Majesty.

One moiety of the forfeitures shall be applied to the use of His Majesty, and the other moiety to the use of the person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25, and 26 of George III

BY these Statutes the like penalties and forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to persons packing or putting on board any vessel, not bound directly for some port in Great Britain or Ireland, any machine, engine, tool, press, paper, utensil, or implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the cotton, steel, or iron manufactures of this kingdom, or any part or parts of such machines or implements, or any models or plans thereof; and all Captains of ships and other persons receiving or being in possession of any such articles, with an intent to export the same to foreign parts, and all Custom-house Officers suffering an entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like penalties as are above-mentioned, in the case of tools and utensils used in the woollen and silk manufactures.

Trinity-House, London,
August 7, 1823.

THE Corporation of Trinity-House having, by virtue of the power vested in them by the Act of the 3d George the Fourth, cap. 111, proposed to the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, that vessels belonging to the United Kingdom, and trading between Great Britain and Ireland, should be placed on the footing of coasting vessels, as regards the rates to be levied for all light and other duties payable to them; and His Majesty, by His Order in Council, bearing date 16th July last, having been pleased to signify His Royal assent to and confirmation thereof;

Notice is hereby given, that instructions have been issued to the collectors at the several ports of the United Kingdom, directing that from and after the receipt of such instructions, vessels of the before mentioned description shall be deemed and rated as coasting vessels in respect of all light and other duties payable to this Corporation.

By command of the Corporation,

Js. Court, Secretary.

Bartlett and Son, Solicitors, Wareham; of Mr. George Filtter, Solicitor, Wareham; and of Mr. Richard Nightingale, Surveyor, Lyndhurst, New Forest, Hauts; and at the place of sale.

WHereas, by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause in which Henry Robert Jones and Frederick Robert Jones are plaintiffs, and Samuel Vines, gentleman, defendant, it is referred to Mr. Harvey, one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court whether William Robert Jones, named in the pleadings in the said cause, has at any time, and when, made any claim in respect of his share of £752 Os. 3d, new four per cent. annuities, and £400 three per cent. annuities, being the funds in the said order mentioned, and to cause advertisements to be published for the said William Robert Jones to come before him and make such claim within the time limited by the deed of appointment, dated the 20th day of May 1819, in the said order mentioned.—Now, therefore, the said William Robert Jones, if living, is, on or before the 4th day of February 1824, (being the end of twelve calendar months next after the decease of his mother Elizabeth Jones, and the time limited by the said deed of appointment for that purpose), peremptorily to come in and prove such his claim before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, in order that he may not be excluded the benefit of the said order.—The said William Robert Jones was, in the year 1811, in the employment of Messrs. Sanders, Fanner and Company, Manufacturers and Dyers, at Bradford, in Wiltshire, and left his lodgings in Bradford, on or about the first day of March in that year, having expressed an intention of going to America; he was one of the five children of Robert Jones, formerly of Mansion-House-Street, London, Merchant.

WHereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein William Hartley and another are plaintiffs, and John Ikin and others are defendants, it is referred to Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire who is the heir at law of Sir Clifton Wintringham, Bart. (the legal estate in certain premises mortgaged to the said Sir Clifton Wintringham, being vested in his heir at law).—Therefore any person or persons claiming to be the heir or heirs at law of the said Sir Clifton Wintringham are to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out his, her, or their heirship, pursuant to the said Decree.—The said Sir Clifton Wintringham, was formerly of the Upper-Mall, Hammersmith, in the Parish of Fulham, in the County of Middlesex, and died on or about the 10th January 1794.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Davenport v. Davenport, the Creditors of Samuel Davenport, formerly of Ashbourne, in the County of Derby, and afterwards of Abergavenny, in the County of Monmouth, Proprietor and Manager of Theatres at Chester, Abergavenny, and elsewhere (and who died on or about the 5th of September 1808), are, by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts before John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 6th day of November next, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Ede against Ede, the Creditors of George Ede, late of Merry-Oak, in the County of Southampton, Esq. (who died in the year 1821), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before John Springett Harvey, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Parker against Middleton, the Creditors of Thomas Athorpe, late of Dinnington, in the West-Riding of the County of York, Esq. deceased (who died in or about the month of November 1820), are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in before William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their debts, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Prichard v. Arbouin, the next of kin of James Arbouin, late of Gloucester-Place, New-Road, in the County of Middlesex, Esq. deceased (who died in the month of November 1821), who were living at the time of his death, or if any of them are since dead, their personal representatives, are forthwith to come in before John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their kindred or affinity, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 7th day of July 1823, made in a Cause Sylrester against Delisser, the Creditors of Elias Joseph, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Esq. deceased (who died on or about the 22d day of March 1819), are, by themselves or their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to an Order of the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, made in the matter of Charles Groves, a lunatic, all persons who were, on the 28th day of January 1817, Creditors of the said Charles Groves, late of Houndsditch, in the City of London, Oil-Merchant, but now residing at the house of Messrs. Burrows and Son, at Hoxton, in the County of Middlesex, are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and prove their debts before William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the Court of Chancery, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause James against Sharpe, the Creditors of John Sharpe, late of Fisher-Ground, in Eskdale, in the County of Cumberland, Yeoman, deceased, are, on or before the 28th day of November next, to come in and prove their debts before John Springett Harvey, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors, as well joint as separate, who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Isaac Tooke and Augustus Todd, of the Strand, in the County of Middlesex, and of Brighton, in the County of Sussex, Wine-Merchant and Partners, are desired to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Thursday the 21st day of August instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said Assignee giving to the said Augustus Todd a certain sum of money lately received by the said Assignee, for and in respect of a dividend on a debt proved by the said Augustus Todd, under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against a debtor to the separate estate of the said Augustus Todd; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Hyams, of Coventry-Street, Hay-Market, in the County of Middlesex, Jeweller, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 12th day of August instant, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling the whole or any part of the stock in trade and effects of the said Bankrupt, by public auction, private contract, or otherwise; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting any action or actions, suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of all or any of the debts, property, and effects due, owing, and belonging to the said Bankrupt's estate; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, giving time to debtors, and taking securities, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating to the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and on other general affairs.
