A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE. R.

WHEREAS Francis Lord Napier was duly elected and returned to be one of the sixteen Peers of Scotland, to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and is, since deceased; in order to the electing another Peer of Scotland to sit in his room, We do, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood-House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday the second day of October next, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose another Peer of Scotland, to sit and vote in the House of Peers of this present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the room of the said Francis Lord Napier, deceased, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall then be present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing, duly signed before witnesses, and both constituent and proxy being qualified according to law), and the Lord Clerk-Register, or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such election made and duly examined, to certify the name of the Peer so elected, and sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificate into the High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We strictly charge and command that this Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns in Scotland, twenty-five days, at least, before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such election.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the twenty-first day of August one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and in the fourth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 21st of July 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels, of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, all vessels belonging to the subjects of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter in or clear out from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, shall be, and they are hereby exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port, in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and other places in America and the West Indies," certain articles enumerated in the schedule B annexed to the said Act, are permitted to be imported into certain ports in His Majesty's said dominions; and whereas some of the said articles are subject, on importation into the said ports, to the payment of certain duties, according to the rates set forth in schedule C annexed to the said Act; and whereas by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, whenever it shall be deemed expedient, to levy and charge any additional duty, or duties of Customs, or to withhold the payment of any drawbacks, bounties, or allowances upon any goods, wares, or merchandise imported into or exported from the United Kingdom, or imported into or exported from any of His Majesty's dominions, in vessels belonging to any foreign country in which higher duties shall have been levied, or smaller drawbacks, bounties, or allowances granted upon goods, wares, or merchandise when imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, than are levied or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country, provided always that such additional or countervailing duties so to be imposed, and drawbacks, bounties, or allowances so to be withheld as aforesaid, shall not be of greater amount than may be deemed fairly to countervail the difference of duty, drawback, bounty, or allowance paid or granted on goods, wares, or merchandise imported into or exported from such foreign country in British vessels, more or less than the duties, drawbacks, bounties, or allowances there charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise imported into or exported from such foreign country in vessels of such country; and whereas British vessels entering the ports of the United States, from the ports of His Majesty's possessions in America, or the West Indies, with cargoes consisting of articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the said possessions, are charged with a duty of one dollar per ton for tonnage duties and light money, and a discriminating duty of ten per cent. is charged on the cargoes of such vessels, to which vessels of the United States, and cargoes of the same description, entering the ports of those States from the ports of the said dominions are not subject; His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the said last recited Act, and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order there shall be charged on all vessels of the United States which shall enter any of the ports of His Majesty's possessions in America, or the West Indies, with articles of the growth, production, or manufacture of the said States, a duty of four shillings and three pence sterling for each and every ton burthen of such vessels, equal (as nearly as may be) to ninety-four cents of the money of the United States, and being the difference between the tonnage duty payable by vessels of the United States and British vessels entering any of the ports of the said United States, from any ports of His Majesty's dominions in America or the West Indies above enumerated, and further an addition of ten per cent. upon the duties set forth in table C above referred to, on any of the articles therein enumerated, which may be imported in any such vessel of the said States; such duties to be levied, collected, and applied in the same manner, and to the same purposes, as the duties levied under the authority of the said Act of the third year of His Majesty's reign: and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 6th of June 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and other places in America and the West Indies," it is enacted, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the schedule marked A, annexed to the said Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, that from and after the passing of this Order, all articles permitted by the said Act to be imported into and exported from the ports enumerated in schedule A annexed to the said Act, shall and may be in like manner imported into and exported from the port of Old Harbour, in the island of Jamaica, on payment of the duties, and subject to the rules, regulations, penalties, and forfeitures enacted by the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 17th of July 1923,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act for making further provision for the effectual performance of quarantine," it is, among other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or any three or more of them, to make such Order as they shall see necessary and expedient upon any unforeseen emergency, or in any particular case or cases, with respect to any ship or ships, vessel or vessels arriving and having any infectious disease or distemper on board, or on board of which any infectious disease or distemper may have appeared in the course of the voyage, or arriving under any other alarming or suspicious circumstances as to infection, although such ship or ships, vessel or vessels shall not have come from any place or places from which His Majesty, His heirs, or successors, by and with the advice of His or their Privy Council, may have adjudged and declared it probable that the plague, or any such infectious disease or distemper, may be brought; and also with respect to the persons, goods, wares, and merchandises on board the same; and all such Orders so made by the Lords or others of the Privy Council, or any three or more of them as aforesaid, shall be as good, valid, and effectual to all intents and purposes (as well with respect to the commander, master, or other person having the charge of any such ship or vessel, and all other persons on board the same, as with respect to any other persons having any intercourse or communication with them, and to the penalties, forfeitures, and punishments to which they may respectively become liable); as any Order or Orders made by His Majesty, His heirs, or successors, by and with the advice of His or their Privy Council concerning quarantine, and the prevention of infection as aforesaid, and notified by Proclamation, or published in the London Gazette:

And whereas, advices have been received that a malignant yellow fever is prevalent at Sierra Leone, and also at the Island of Ascension, and that it is reported to have proved very fatal to a vessel recently arrived from Sierra Leone; It is hereby ordered in Council, that all ships and vessels coming from, or having touched at, any port or place on the western coast of Africa, or at the Island of Ascension, or having received any person or persons, goods, wares, or merchandise, packets, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or any other articles whatever from out of any such ship or vessel, shall, on their arrival on the coasts of this kingdom, or of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark and Man, come to anchor at such place or places as have been or shall be appointed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, within or without the port to which such ships or vessels shall be bound, in order that the state of health of the crew and persons on board may be duly examined into and ascertained, prior to such ships and vessels being permitted to enter the port of their destination, and that, in the mean time, no intercourse with any other ship or vessel, or boat, or with the shore, shall be permitted, nor any of the crew or persons on board such ships or vessels be suffered to come or be brought on shore:

And it is hereby further ordered, that in case, upon such examination, it shall appear to the Superintendent or other principal Officer of the Customs, employed in the quarantine service, that such ships or vessels have the said contagious fever actually on board, or that any of the crew or persons on board have been ill, or have died of such contagious fever within the space of forty days prior to the arrival of such ships or vessels on the coasts of this kingdom, or of the Islands aforesaid, or that in the event of any death, occasioned by such contagious fever, having taken place on board at an earlier period of the voyage than forty days prior to their arrival on the coasts of this kingdom, or of the Islands aforesaid, the clothes and bedding and all personal effects, susceptible of infection, worn by or belonging to the persons so deceased, were not thrown overboard and sunk immediately upon such decease, or as soon after as possible; or in case it shall appear that such ships had, within the space of forty days prior to arrival on the coasts of this kingdom, or of the Islands aforesaid, received any person or persons, or any of the articles hereinafore mentioned, from out of any ship, vessel, or boat coming from any port or place on the western coast of Africa, or from the Island of Ascension, then and in such case every such ship and vessel, with their cargoes and persons on board, shall perform a quarantine of fifteen days (or of such further time as may be afterwards directed by any Order or Orders of three or more of the Lords or others of His Majesty's Privy Council), at the several places appointed for the performance of quarantine by ships subject and liable thereto, and bound to the said several ports respectively:

And it is hereby further ordered, that notwithstanding the ships and vessels arriving or to arrive from any port or place on the western coast of Africa, or from the Island of Ascension, may not be found liable to the performance of quarantine as above directed, no goods, wares, or merchandise enumerated in the first class of His Majesty's said Order in Council, bearing date the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, concerning quarantine, which may be imported in any of the said ships from any port or place on the western coast of Africa, or from the Island of Ascension, nor any packages of good, which packages may consist wholly or in part of any of the said articles so enumerated, be suffered to be landed or brought on shore, but shall be taken out of the ships and vessels importing the same, and sent to the usual place appointed for the performance of quarantine, and be there opened and aired for the space of fifteen days, as directed by His Majesty's said Order in Council of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, sec. 13, with respect to goods, wares, and merchandises coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary, on the Atlantic Ocean :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General, and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors and Commanders in Chief, for the time being, of the said Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sack, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 16th of July 1823.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should be suspended for the space of one year; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the date hereof, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia be suspended for the space of one year from the date of this Order.

Pursuant to a Decree of the Court of Chancery of the County-Palatine of Lancaster, made in a Cause Stelfox v. Richardson, the Creditors, Annuitants, and Legatees of Thomas Bleaze, late of Manchester, in the said County-Palatine of Lancaster, Warehouseman (who died in or about the month of August 1809), are to come in and prove their respective debts, and claim their respective annuities and legacies, before William Shawe, Esq. Registrar of the said Court, at his Office, in Preston, in the said County, on or before the 21st day of October 1823, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Joseph Greated, of 63, Snowhill, in the City of London, and heretofore of Fleet-Street, in the said City, Auctioneer, Leather-Seller, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Friday the 26th day of September instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and conveying the said Bankrupt's share and interest of and in four freehold houses, situate in Ball-Court, Giltspur-Street, in the said City of London, and all equity of redemption therein, to the mortgagees of such premises, in satisfaction of all principal monies and interest secured by such mortgage.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Henry Rugg and Charles Rugg, of Austin-Friars, in the City of London, Silkmen, Copartners, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Thursday the 18th day of September instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to take into further consideration the offer, made by the said Bankrupts to the said Assignees on behalf of the Creditors; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Bagley, of Pocklington, in the County of York, Spirit-Merchant, Seedsman, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 6th day of October next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the house of Thomas Heard, Innkeeper, at Barnby-Moor, in the said County of York, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting any action at law or suit in equity against a certain person (to be named at the meeting), late Copartner of the said Bankrupt, or submitting to arbitration, or compounding any claim or demand which the said Assignees now have upon the said certain person; and the Creditors of the said Bankrupt, who have not already proved their debts, are to take notice, that the Commissioners in the said Commission will attend, at the time and place above-mentioned, in order that such Creditors may then prove the same.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Mellish Thatcher, of Hungerford-Wharf, near Hungerford-Street, Strand, in the County of Middlesex, Coal-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday next, the 22d day of September instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee completing an agreement entered into by the said Thomas Mellish Thatcher, before he became Bankrupt, with one Charles Ogilvy, for the sale to him the said Charles Ogilvy, of certain leasehold premises, situate at Upper Halliford, in the said County, together with certain stock, furniture and fixtures then on the said premises, and for that purpose to accept and carry into effect a proposition which has been made to the said Assignee by Thomas Oriel, the person of whom the said Thomas Mellish Thatcher agreed to purchase the said premises, and paid a considerable deposit for the same, but no assignment of the lease thereof was executed by the said Thomas Oriel to the said Thomas Mellish Thatcher, in consequence of a dispute between them respecting the purchase money, but the said Thomas Mellish Thatcher entered into an agreement with the said Charles Ogilvy, for the sale of the said leasehold premises, stock, furniture and fixtures, notwithstanding no such assignment thereof had been made to him as aforesaid; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee paying to the said Thomas Oriel, such sum in satisfaction of the remainder of the purchase money claimed by the said Thomas Oriel, as the said Thomas Oriel will accept in full for the execution of the assignment of the said premises to the said Charles Ogilvy, by the direction of the said Assignee, or such other sum as the said Assignee shall think proper, not exceeding the amount to be received by the said Assignee of the said Charles Ogilvy, and which he has agreed to pay for the lease of the said premises, stock, furniture and fixtures; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee defending any action or suit at law or in equity, which may be brought by the said Thomas Oriel or Charles Ogilvy for the performance of the aforesaid agreements, or any matter or thing relating thereto, in case the said Assignee shall not consider the aforesaid arrangements beneficial to the estate of the said Bankrupt, or shall not be able to carry the same into the intended effect, and in such case to defend the same and act in such manner in regard thereto as the said Assignee may think fit and proper, or beneficial to the estate of the said Bankrupt.

Whereas a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against Lewis Oldreive the younger, late of Dartmouth, in the County of Devon, Tallow-Chandler, and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major part of them, on the 23d and 24th days of September instant, and on the 28th of October next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon on each day, at the Castle Inn, in Dartmouth, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and at the Second Sitting to choose Assignees, and at the Last Sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his Examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his Certificate.
