INVESTITURE OF HIS MOST FAITHFUL MAJESTY JOHN THE SIXTH, KING OF PORTUGAL, WITH THE HABIT AND ENSIGNS OF THE MOST NOBLE ORDER OF THE GARTER.

Lisbon, September 24, 1823.

HIS Majesty, Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, having been pleased, by a Commission under His Royal Sign Manual and the Great Seal of the Order, to constitute and appoint the Right Honourable Sir Edward Thornton, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Lisbon, and Sir George Nayler, Knight, Garter Principal King of Arms, Knight of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, to be His Majesty's Plenipotentiaries for investing His Most Faithful Majesty John the Sixth, King of Portugal, with the whole Habit and Ensigns of the said Most Noble Order; the said Sir Edward Thornton and his suite embarked at Plymouth, on the 20th August, and arrived here on the 30th, and Sir George Nayler and his suite having embarked at Portsmouth, on the 23d of the same month, arrived in this City on the 7th instant; and on the 9th, the Plenipotentiaries had an audience of His Most Faithful Majesty. The suite of the Plenipotentiaries had also the honour of being presented to His Majesty previously to the day of the Investiture.

The preparatory arrangements for observing the accustomed Ceremonies being made, His Most Faithful Majesty was pleased to signify His Royal Pleasure to receive the Investiture yesterday, at two o'clock, at the Palace of Ajuda. The persons appointed to assist at the Ceremony assembled at the Residence of His Britannic Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary, and proceeded from thence to the Palace, in the following order:

A detachment of Cavalry.

Three of the Royal Carriages, each drawn by four horses, conveying the Suite of the Plenipotentiaries,
The Royal State Carriage, drawn by eight horses, in which were the two Plenipotentiaries.

The Carriage of Garter King of Arms.

The Carriage of his Excellency the British Minister.

A detachment of Cavalry.

Eleven Carriages, conveying the English Gentlemen invited to be present at the Ceremony, followed the Escort of the Plenipotentiaries.

On approaching the Palace, the Procession was received by the Royal Infantry, who presented arms, His Majesty's Band playing God save the King, until its arrival at the entrance. On alighting, the Plenipotentiaries were received in the Great Hall by the Officers of the Royal Household, where the Insignia being arranged on velvet cushions, and delivered to the several persons appointed to carry the same, the Procession advanced through the State Apartments, in the following order, viz, Vice-Admiral Sir Harry Neale, Bart. Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, wearing the Star and Collar of that Order.

The Surcoat, borne by William Turner, Esq. The Cap and Feathers, borne by Captain George Harris, R. N. The Statutes and Star, borne by Edward Ward, Esq. late Chargé d'Affaires and Secretary of Legation at the Court of Lisbon. The Garter and Ribband, with the George appendent, borne by Charles George Young, Esq. York Herald, Secretary to the Mission, in his Tabard and Collar of S. S. The Sovereign's Commission, borne by Francis Martin, Esq. Windsor Herald, in his Tabard and Collar of S. S. The Plenipotentiaries, viz. Sir George Naylor, K. H. Garter Principal-King of Arms, in his Mantle, Chain and Badge, bearing his Sceptre, and carrying the Letters of Credence.	The Insignia,	The Sword, borne by Augustus West, M. D. The Hood and Collar, borne by Captain Andrew King, R. N. The Mantle, borne by Captain Sir Charles Burrard, Bart. R. N. The Right Honourable Sir Edward Thornton, G. C. B. Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from His Britannic Majesty to the Court of Lis- bon, wearing the Star and Collar of the Order of the Bath.

Supported by

And followed by Robert Matthews, Esq. His Britannic Majesty's Consul General at Lisbon, Colonel Sir John Wilson, Knight, Lieutenant-Colonel Sir John Campbell, Knight, and other English Gentlemen.

On reaching the Royal Antichamber they were received by the Marquez de Ballas, Captain of the Royal Guard, and the Conde de Allmada, Master of the Ceremonies, and conducted to the Audience Chamber, which was splendidly fitted up for the occasion: two Chairs of State having been placed under the Canopy, the one on the right, representing the Stall of the Sovereign of the Order, the other on the left for His Most Faithful Majesty, each having affixed over their respective Seats an Escudocheon of their Arms within the Order of the Garter, and their Titles inscribed below. On each side of the State was placed a Chair for the Plenipotentiaries.

The Mission advanced into the Royal Presence with the usual reverences, and was received by His Most Faithful Majesty, wearing the under dress of the Order, attended by His Ministers and Great Officers of State; Her Majesty the Queen, the Infant Don Miguel, second Son of His Most Faithful Majesty, the Princesses of the Royal House, Her Royal Highness the Princess of Brazil, Widow of Don Joseph Prince of Brazil, and Aunt to His Most Faithful Majesty, and the Dukes of Cadaval and Lafões, being on the King's right hand; the Foreign Ministers resident at Lisbon on the left hand; the Chief of the Nobility of Portugal, and a numerous Court of Ladies of distinction were also present. The Ensigns being deposited on a table, covered with crimson velvet, placed on the right hand of His Majesty, Windsor Herald and the several persons who had borne the same, retired to the centre of the room behind the Plenipotentiaries, except York Herald, Secretary to the Commission, who remained in front and delivered the Insignia to the Plenipotentiaries; and Vice-Admiral Sir Harry Neale, who stood to the left of Her Majesty the Queen and Royal Family. The English Gentlemen who followed the Plenipotentiaries occupied the space at the end of the Audience Chamber.

The first Plenipotentiary advancing to the King, made an address explanatory of the object of the Mission, and then receiving from Garter the Letters of Credence presented them to His Majesty, who delivered the same to the Marquez de Palmella, the Minister for Foreign Affairs. His Majesty then very graciously replied to the address of the first Plenipotentiary, after which the Plenipotentiaries presented the Statutes, and the Star of the Order to the King, who thereupon delivered to the Plenipotentiaries an Instrument under His Royal Sign Manual and the Great Seal of Portugal, containing His Majesty's acceptance of the Order under the usual reservations.

The Commission was in like manner presented to the King, and delivered by His Majesty to the Marquez de Palmella, who having read it aloud, the same was returned to Garter, and by him to the Secretary to the Mission.

The Plenipotentiaries then buckled the Garter round the left of His Majesty, Garter reading the admonition in Latin. His Majesty was next invested with the Ribband with the George appendent, Garter reading the admonition.

The King then delivered his sword, which Garter received as an ancient fee appertaining to his office, and wore during the remainder of the Ceremony. The Plenipotentiaries thereupon invested His Majesty with the Sword of the Order, and His Majesty being afterwards divested of the Ribband and George was invested with the Surcoat.

His Majesty was next invested with the Mantle, the Hood, and the Collar severally, Garter reading the respective admonitions.

The Plenipotentiaries then placed the Cap and Feathers on His Majesty's head, and afterwards received from His Majesty an Instrument, under His Royal Signet and Sigro Mandat, containing His Majesty's nomination of a Proxy, in the event of an Installation in the Royal Chapel of St. George at Windsor.

The King being thus invested, Garter, after the usual reverences to the Sovereign's Stall, and then to His Most Faithful Majesty, proclaimed in French the Styles of His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Styles of His Most Faithful Majesty the King of Portugal, Knight Companion of the said Most Noble Order; whereupon the Investiture being concluded, the Plenipotentiaries with their suite, making their reverences, withdrew.

At the conclusion of the Ceremony, salutes were fired from the Fort of Belem and the Castle of St. George, and immediately afterwards the ships of His Most Faithful Majesty, and those of His Britannic Majesty, under the command of Vice-Admiral Sir Harry Neale (anchored upon this occasion opposite the Palace), saluted, the English ships manning their yards during the continuance of the salute.

In the afternoon, by command of the King, a grand dinner (at which the Marquez de Palmella presided), was given at the Palacio das Necessidades, to the Plenipotentiaries, Ministers of State, and other persons of distinction, to which the suite of the Plenipotentiaries were also invited. The health of the King of England, Sovereign of the Order, was given by the Marquez de Palmella, the Royal Band playing God save the King, and the Portuguese and English ships saluting. The first Plenipotentiary drank to the health of the King of Portugal, Knight Companion of the Most Noble Order of the Garter. The health of the Knights of the Order being subsequently drank to, the first Plenipotentiary drank to the health of Her Majesty the Queen, and the Royal House of Braganza.

The Mission was received with every possible mark of attention; the strictest observance was paid to the forms prescribed for the Solemnity; and the whole Ceremonies were conducted with a splendour suitable to the dignity of this Most Noble Order.

In the evening the Residences of the Plenipotentiaries, as well as His Majesty's ships, were illuminated.

GEO. NAYLER, Garter Principal King of Arms.

THE following Address having been delivered to the Marquess of Conyngham by the Mayor and Corporation of New Windsor, was by him presented to the King, which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Recorder, Town Clerk, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windsor.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Recorder, Town Clerk, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windsor, most humbly and respectfully approach your Majesty, to offer our heartfelt and dutiful congratulations upon the joyful event of your Majesty's arrival at your Castle of Windsor.

On this occasion your Majesty's most affectionate subjects and servants have a debt of gratitude to acknowledge, the expression of which they most earnestly offer to your Majesty, they beg to assure you, Sire, that their obligations for the especial kindness and protection of your Majesty's illustrious Family, during a long series of years, can never be forgotten; and that under every circumstance, these obligations have united with the homage which your Majesty's public and private virtues must command, to bind them in the most unvarying attachment to your Royal Person, and the most cordial support of your Majesty's kind and paternal Government.

In witnessing your Majesty's arrival at this renowned Palace of your Ancestors, we feel, Sire, that the Castle of Windsor will acquire new glories by your Majesty's residence; and that the future historian of this abode of a long line of illustrious Kings, will point to the whole course of your Majesty's Government; as an evidence that with your Majesty's name is associated all that is wise and just in legislation, all that is heroic in naval and military triumphs, and all that is permanent in national prosperity, as much as with those of the greatest Sovereigns whose memory has consecrated this "proud Keep of Windsor," the emblem of the British Monarchy, in its strength, its grandeur, and its endurance.

In our anticipations of the benefits which the Borough of New Windsor must derive from your Majesty's most gracious patronage, we cannot forbear to hope that the taste and munificence of your Majesty will give a new impulse to the public improvements of this ancient Town, so that, as it is unequalled in its natural advantages, it may keep pace with the general prosperity of your Majesty's dominions.

We beg, Sire, to offer our most ardent wishes for your Majesty's health, and for the continued happiness of your Majesty's reign; may your Majesty long enjoy this favoured Palace of the Kings of England; may your Majesty be very long preserved to the prayers of a loyal, happy and contented people.

[Here follow the signatures.]

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

For giving Currency to the Double Sovereign, or Gold Two Pound Piece.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit to order, that certain pieces of gold money should be coined, which should be called "double sovereigns,

"or gold two pound pieces," each of which should be of the value of forty shillings, and that each piece should be of the weight of ten pennyweights six grains, and  $\frac{5480}{10000}$  troy weight of standard gold, according to the weights approved of and confirmed by Us in Council, in pursuance of an Act made in the fourteenth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for regulating and ascertaining the weights to be made use of in weighing the gold and silver coin of this Kingdom:" And We have further thought fit to order, that every such double sovereign, or gold two pound piece, so ordered to be coined as aforesaid, shall have for the obverse impression Our effigy, with the inscription "Georgius III, D: G: Britanniar: Rex: F: D:" and for the reverse the image of Saint George, sitting on horseback, attacking the dragon, and the date of the year, and on the edge of the piece, in raised letters, the words "Decus et Tutamen. Anno Regni," with the year of the reign: And whereas pieces of gold money of the above description have been coined at Our Mint, and will be coined there, in pursuance of orders which We have given for that purpose; We have, therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Our Royal Proclamation; and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of gold money so coined, and to be coined as aforesaid, shall be current and lawful money of the Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall be called "double sovereigns," or "gold two pound pieces," and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and every of such double sovereigns not weighing less than ten pennyweights five grains, shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, every such double sovereigns of the value of forty shillings of like lawful money, in all payments whatsoever.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the nineteenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and in the fourth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of September 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from Tuesday the thirtieth day of this instant September to Tuesday the twenty-fifth day of November next.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of September 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the twenty-first of February last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as afove excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 30th of September 1823,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS information has been received that the malignant yellow fever that lately prevailed in the settlement of Sierra Leone and the Island of Ascension no longer exists; it is therefore ordered that the Order in Council of the seventeenth of July last, directing all vessels coming from the Western Coast of Africa and the Island of Ascension to the performance of quarantine (which Order was limited in its operation by another Order, bearing date the twenty-second instant, to vessels coming from the settlement of Sierra Leone and the Island of Ascension) be, and the same is hereby revoked: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General, and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors and Commanders in Chief, for the time being, of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th of September 1823.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to repeal certain duties of customs in Great Britain, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof; to grant certain bounties on salted provisions and silk manufactures exported; and to make more effectual regulations for collecting the duties of customs," certain duties are respectively imposed and directed to be levied on chocolate and cocoa paste of the British plantations; and cocoa nut husks, and shells; and on pepper, viz. Capsicum or Chillies, Cayenne, Guinea pepper, and long pepper; and on segars manufactured from tobacco, and on tobacco manufactured imported into Great Britain from foreign parts: And whereas His Majesty is empowered by the said Act to declare and direct by His Order in Council, that certain import duties of customs and excise (of which the duties upon the articles above enumerated form a part), shall be placed under the sole management of the Commissioners of the Customs, or under the sole management of the Commissioners of Excise, as shall be expressed and directed in such Order; His Majesty having taken the same into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare and direct that all the several duties upon the articles above enumerated, imposed by the aforesaid Act, in the schedules A. and B. thereof, and each and every of them shall be placed and shall be under the sole management of His Majesty's Commissioners of Excise, according to the provisions and directions of the said Act, from the tenth day of October next, during the time that the aforesaid duties shall continue to be payable:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville:

Whitehall, October 4, 1823.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about half-past eleven o'clock in the night of Sunday the 28th of September last, a barn, two corn ricks, a stable, and two cart-lodges belonging to Mr. Henry Robert Coulter, at Frith-Farm, in the parish of Newnham, in the county of Kent, were burnt to the ground, and that there is reason to believe that the same were wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said corn ricks and premises), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

GEORGE CANNING.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards, to be paid on conviction by the said Henry Robert Coulter, are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz. ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the said Henry Robert Coulter: and ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by neighbouring Gentlemen.

OFFICE FOR BRITISH AND SPANISH CLAIMS.

October 13, 1823.

MEMORANDUM

ALL persons having Claims to lay before the Mixed Commission now sitting at No. 12, Manchester-Buildings, are requested to attend to the following regulations:

Every Claim, whether British or Spanish, must be accompanied by copies certified by notarial certificate of the documents in support of it; as the Commission will not be responsible for original documents.

The Claims of British subjects must be addressed to the British Commissioners, and those of Spaniards to the Spanish Commissioners.

(Signed)

*E. J. Dawkins. Diego Colon.

Office of the Commissioners for investigating the Debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic.

No. 11, Manchester-Buildings, Westminster, October 13, 1823.

THE Commissioners think it necessary to give notice, that, on the 25th June 1808, two Claims were preferred before the Board at Madras, one by Mr. Thomas Parry, founded on a bond of the Nabob Omdut ul Omrah, in favour of Ambrose Lynch Gilbert, for pagodas 3635 16f, which the said Thomas Parry stated to have been deposited in his charge, and that of the late Mr. Thomas Chase, by the late General Sydenham; and the other by Messrs. Parry, Neill, and Co. being a Bond of the said Nisab Omdut ul Omrah, in favour of Captain Mearns, for pagodas 500, which bond they stated to have been delivered to them by the said late Mr. Chase, without any information; but that no person competent on behalf of the parties interested in these bonds, to sign the deed of agreement, hath as yet appeared in behalf of either of them; and in consequence the said Claims have not yet been advertised. The Commissioners, however, in pursuance of the spirit of their notice of 1st November 1806, inserted in the London Gazette of the 4th November 1806, give notice to all the parties concerned, to appear, either by themselves or their attorneys, at this Office, within six months from this date, to sign the deed of agreement, in default of which appearance, the said Claims will be excluded from consideration.

By order of the Board,

Robt. Playfair, Assistant Secretary.

Bottling Wine and Rum, warehoused under the Act of the 4th Geo. 4. Chap. 24. for Exportation.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Commissions of Excise have, with the approbation of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, made the following rules and regulations, to be observed by all persons intending to avail themselves of the provisions of the Act permitting wine and rum to be bottled, viz.

No warehouse to be used for the purpose but such as shall be approved, according to the directions of the Act for depositing exciseable articles on bond.

Rum on no occasion to be bottled or deposited either before or after bottling in the same warehouse or place as wine.

Before the removal of the liquors from the warehouses in which they were stowed on importation to those specially appointed for bottling, six hours' notice in writing to be given to the proper officers, specifying where the liquors intended to be bottled are stored, the name of the ship and master by which and the place whence imported, the name of the bond and the date of the bond, with the mark, number, content, and ullage of each cask, the quality of the wines, and the quantity of the liquors intended to be drawn off.

A like notice to be given before beginning to bottle, specifying also into what seized cases the liquor is intended to be packed, and whether the bottles and corks are of British or foreign manufacture.

The officers to be furnished with the means of weighing and measuring a sufficient number of the bottles before they are filled, to enable them to calculate the content and weight of the whole.

No other liquors than such as are brought to be bottled to be put in the warehouse appointed for bottling. The operation of bottling to be performed within fourteen days after the removal of the liquor to the warehouse for that purpose. The bottles in every instance to be forthwith packed in cases, marked with the names of the vessels by which, and the places whence the liquor was imported, and the number of bottles in each case. The lees of wine to be forthwith put into a filtering bag, and when run through to be bottled as soon as possible and packed with the rest, and the refuse immediately destroyed.

Liquors drawn off and bottled in foreign bottles, to be kept distinct from those drawn off into bottles of British manufacture; and packages containing liquors of different importations not to be mixed together.

The exportation of the liquors to take place within three months after they are bottled.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His late Majesty, King George the Third, intituled "An Act for regulating Mad-Houses," notice is hereby given that the Commissioners appointed for licensing houses for the reception of lunatics within the cities of London and Westminster, and within seven miles of the same, and within the county of Middlesex, will meet at No. 7, Bedford-place, in the said county, on Monday the 20th day of October instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, in order to grant licences to all persons who shall desire the same, pursuant to the directions of the said Act.

R. Powell, M. D. Secretary.

CONTRACT FOR CLOTHING FOR THE ROYAL MARINES, AND ROYAL MARINE ARTILLERY.

Navy-Office, September 27, 1823.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 16th of October next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying
